Dreyer,1990 Close Encounters with Deadly Dangers Kendall Haven,1998-12-15 The sounds of an anaconda slithering along the steamy jungle floor in search of prey a lion s breath rippling through the dry savannah grass as it crouches waiting to spring the frantic thrashing of a seal pup s tail as it recoils from the vicious attack of a tiger shark these are part of the natural drama of the animal world and daily events when deadly predators come face to face with their prey This book includes 15 exciting tales that are packed with accurate scientific information Students will thrill to the dramatic spine tingling accounts of natural predators in the wild As they read the stories they will learn about many of the world s ecosystems from tropical rain forests to the Arctic tundra from African watering holes to the Pacific reef from Siberian forests to the Midwest prairie Each story is followed by suggestions for research and other activities References on predators and ecosystems are also listed Contexts for Learning Ellice A. Forman,Norris Minick,C. Addison Stone,1996 This work presents landmark research concerning the vital dynamics of childhood psychological development It s origin can be traced to the late 1970s when several psychologists began to challenge existing notions of cognitive development by suggesting that such functioning is bound to specific contexts and that cognitive development is based on the mastery of culturally defined ways of speaking thinking and acting About the same time several translations were made available in this country of the seminal work of Vygotsky the noted theoretician offering a conceptual base on which these workers could build This volume with contributions from many of the scholars who pioneered this area and translated the work of Vygotsky looks at the complex mechanisms by which children acquire the cultural and linguistic tools to carry out cognitive activities and explores the implications of this research for education The book is organized around three main parts Discourse and Learning in Classroom Practice Interpersonal Relations in Formal and Informal Education and The Sociocultural Institutions of Formal and Informal Education An afterword by Jacqueline Goodnow suggests new directions for sociocultural research and education The intended audience is composed of developmental educational and cognitive psychologists along with advanced students in developmental and educational psychology

Through the Eyes of a Child Donna E. Norton, Sandra E. Norton, Amy A. McClure, 2003 In its seventh edition Through the Eyes of a Child An Introduction to Children's Literature continues to be a visually stunning theoretically sound comprehensive overview of children's literature It focuses squarely on selecting and evaluating quality literature to share with children and guiding them to appreciate and respond to that literature This edition features multicultural literature and young adult literature in every chapter expanded coverage of biographies and informational books and over 100 new children's titles referenced throughout A children's literature CD ROM accompanies the book and contains bibliographic information for thousands of titles making it even easier to share quality literature with children and adolescents

Beyond the Science Kit Wendy Saul, Jeanne Reardon, 1996 The goal of Wendy Saul and Jeanne Reardon's book is not to dispense with kits rather to encourage teachers and their students to see kits as just a beginning to real scientific inquiry The essays in this volume reveal how elementary teachers have turned around their teaching to make themselves and their students producers as well as consumers of science knowledge

Hunting Big Game in the City Parks Howard G. Smith, 1969 Describes the characteristics habits and habitats of some insects that can be found in the back yard city park or nearby woods giving hints on how to observe trap and keep them in captivity

Children's Catalog Anne Price, Juliette Yaakov, 1996
