

The Backyard Show

"The Backyard Show"

Barney, a lovable purple dinosaur, magically comes to life to help Amy, Michael and their friends plan a surprise birthday party for their father. Barney shows them how to use their imaginations and the costumes in their club house (a converted garage) to create a fun filled song and dance extravaganza. This video stresses positive values and creative expression in play. Show features: Sandy Duncan as Mom • live action with animation • traditional songs and rhymes • stories filled with fantasy, magic, and surprises.

Backyard Show:

The Body in the Backyard Hollis Shiloh, 2017-09-13 Clarence Collin is pushing up daisies in Abe's bed of zinnias When the caustic critic of a TV gardening show winds up murdered in Abe's well groomed backyard both Abe and his hunky but irritating neighbor Gregory might be on the suspect list Abe starts amateur sleuthing in self defense and to spend time with Gregory When the two green thumbs look into their neighborhood's dirty little secrets who knows what they'll dig up A cozy gay mystery 51 000 words

Underground Music Cultures and Music-Making in Los Angeles Sébastien Darchen, John Willsteed, Damien Charrieras, 2025-02-27 This book focuses on the relationships between underground urban music cultures in Los Angeles and specific urban imaginaries related to music practices far away and sometimes in stark opposition to the commodified image of the city crafted by urban planners and associated urban stakeholders Rather than this commodified city and the imaginary city of the mind it examines the accidental tangential life of a mirage The city that appears in the distance is one that is formed by songs and music making The book shows how counter urban imaginaries emerge and are performed through diverse underground music making practices giving rise to alternative ways of seeing the city

reluctant to let his students and associates see his published works He mellowed after a short time because everyone approved of his writings The publication of Denizens led to a discussion of his other writings and that brought up the subject of the letters which we had been exchanging over the years He told me that the letters meant a lot to him because he used them to force him to continue writing even when the mood to write wasn't on him He also told me that the freedom he enjoyed in writing letters was the limited audience to whom he was writing friends and family In this publication I am violating that limitation by allowing you to enter into the audience that can see and read the thoughts he had intended for a select few Fred felt that in letter writing there could be an intimate bonding between the writer and the recipient in the best case a touching of souls Fred was still an innocent in many respects even after the war had stripped him of most of his innocence He wrote using humor sarcasm and other artifices to conceal his true message which was love He had a love for natural beauty children and animals He had admiration for talent honesty and integrity I hope that you can discover that by reading his letters He was my big brother and I loved him
