Greenwald,2014-08-23

There are over 7 billion people on this planet earth of which there are no two that are exactly alike from positive to negative from good to bad from a perfect ten down to a one in every way and every degree in between and yet in spite of all of their differences in thought they all want to be satisfied It started with the desires of Adam and Eve it continues today and there always will be for all of us Desire to be Satisfied Darby C.L. Moses,2014-02-03 A child lost in a world so alien to him that all he can do is find a warm place to curl up and wait to die Darby sees the child climbing into a dumpster on a cold Chicago night Darby always lived by three simple rules After finding the boy his rules began to drop by the wayside Over the period of the next few months Darby finds that not only his life but of that of the boy and his mother along with his friends and associates have been changed dramatically After that mayhem ensues as you are introduced to a virtual rouges gallery of cutthroats thieves and liars A few good Samaritans and well wishers are added and if thats not enough a surprise appearance by Mr Johnny Cash is added for a bit of flavor Can Darby rescue the boy and himself at the same time Or will the forces of evil prevail And can a man of the gun become a father and husband This book is a work of fiction Any resemblance of characters to persons living or dead is purely coincidental But Im fairly sure you will recognize personalities of some characters similar in someone you know I have also taken great liberty with locations In the end this is a work of entertainment so I hope that you enjoy reading it as much as I enjoyed crafting it for you Sincerely C L Moses

The Gates of Heaven R. G. Hare,2006-09-15 Doctor Harold Schwack conceals a dark and sordid past His latest patient Maryanne Hennessey sets him on a collision course with a force he doesn t believe in A force destined to unveil the true intentions of his sadistic heart and end the misery inflicted upon his unsuspecting patients Mark Hennessey battles to save not only his own soul but the souls of everyone around him His mother stricken with cancer painfully lingers in a medical bureaucracy with doctors who lack compassion yet still maintain God like attitudes Mark struggles to find peace for his mother only to discover his own sanity shattered when the heavens bestow a divine gift upon him A seemingly random meeting with a mysterious preacher Jonah transforms Mark into an angel of vengeance with the power to end the evil lives of the souls that Satan has already conquered A power Mark refuses to accept or believe exists until destiny intervenes and leads him down a path that only faith can overcome Faith that God really does have an overall plan for humanity and an eternal resting place within the Gates Of Heaven King Noir Tony Magistrale,Michael J. Blouin,2025-04-15 Over the past thirty years Stephen King has received enormous attention from both the popular press as well as academics seeking to explain the unique phenomenon of his success Books on King explore his canon in religious contexts in political and historical contexts in mythic specifically Jungian contexts in Gothic horror especially American literary contexts and in a wide variety of other contexts appropriate to a writer who over the past half century has become America's Storyteller Beginning with a never published chapter authored by Stephen King himself on the influence of the genre on his own writing King Noir makes an invaluable contribution to King scholarship by placing King's works in conversation with American crime fiction This is the third book that Tony Magistrale and Michael J Blouin have coauthored on the work of Stephen King and the first to consider King's canon through the lens of crime fiction King Noir examines not only King's own efforts at writing in the detective genre but also how the detective genre finds its way into work typically regarded as horror fiction In interviews King has acknowledged his debt to earlier writers in the genre such as Ed McBain and Raymond Chandler and he much more often references hard boiled writers than he does horror writers One could speculate that King became a writer because of his love of pulpy crime fiction which he continues to hold in high esteem From The Dead Zone to Mr Mercedes from the crime fiction of his pseudonym Richard Bachman to his most recent novel Holly King returns obsessively to patterns established by American sleuths of every stripe paying homage to them at the same time as he innovates on the formulas he has inherited To focus upon a hard boiled Stephen King is to discover exciting new avenues for inquiry into one of America's most enduring and adaptable storytellers
