Southern Excursions George Garrett, James Conrad McKinley, 2003-03-01 Few if any are better endowed than George Garrett to comment on the general and the particular the long and the short of southern letters in our time Garrett a prolific and internationally renowned author of fiction poetry drama and biography as well as a teacher editor critic and frequent jurist for literary competitions has been immersed in the writers and literature of his native region for almost a half century Southern Excursions contains more than fifty of the best essays reviews and other short pieces of his career For the connoisseur of good writing this book is a depository a treasure a veritable time capsule of southern literary and American culture Without sacrificing reverence for modern masters such as Faulkner O'Connor and Welty Garrett has consistently embraced worthy new artists through the years deftly and judiciously drawing the line between critical acclaim and popular success Payton Davis Shelby Foote Walker Percy William HoVman Madison Jones Reynolds Price Robert Morgan R H W Dillard Wendell Berry Doris Betts William Goyen Mary Lee Settle Randall Kenan David Huddle Allan Gurganus Dorothy Allison these are a few of the writers Garrett has championed If some names sound less familiar Garrett in these pages will inspire readers to swift investigation The author's charm wit and anecdotal style make reading Southern Excursions a delight and yet there's no mistaking his erudition Wise like a prophet with a talent scout's enthusiasm Garrett is not afraid to tell unwelcome truths covering topics that include southern publishing houses and literary quarterlies the alliance between writers and academia the state of criticism and theory and most eloquently the persistence of place memory and the Civil War as themes in southern letters Southern Excursions is a book for the ages stowing as it does the sage views of one as learned respected and modest in his time as George Garrett My strong suggestion to readers he states is to plunge in and fare forward Experience the story before turning to or trusting the opinions and judgments of others myself included

Double Vision George Garrett, 2004-07-19 A shotgun marriage of fact and fiction by one of the most highly regarded writers and teachers of our time A writer named George Garrett suffering from double vision as a result of a neurological disorder is asked to review a recent first biography of the late Peter Taylor a renowned writer who has been his long time friend and neighbor in Charlottesville Reflecting on their relationship Garrett conceives of a character not unlike himself a writer in his early 70s ill and suffering from double vision named Frank Toomer He gives Toomer a neighbor a distinguished short story writer named Aubrey Carver As the real George Garrett and Peter Taylor are replaced by two very different and imaginary writers the story becomes a wise and insightful exploration of American literary life the art of biography the comical rivalries among writers and academics notions of success and the knotty relationship of art to life fact to fiction and life to death Double Vision is a witty tour de force and
