Healing the Wounds of Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe Dumisani Ngwenya, 2017-12-14 This book is based on a participatory action research project carried out with a group of former Zimbabwe People s revolutionary Army ZPRA which was the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People s Union ZAPU which was led by the late Joshua Nkomo ZPRA was the primary target of Gukurahundi a pogrom by the Mugabe government which left an estimated 20 000 civilians dead and countless others tortured in the early 1980s in Matebeleland Zimbabwe It has been almost 30 years since the violence ended but there has never been an official healing and reconciliation programme or truth commission into the atrocities The government chose the path of amnesia by granting a blanket amnesty to all involved The regime has enforced a culture of silence over the event through repression and intimidation The book is a culmination of a two year journey by the group and the author of an exploration of group based self healing approaches to the pain caused by the violence of Gukurahundi Sustainability Standards and Global Governance Archna Negi,Jorge Antonio Pérez-Pineda,Johannes Blankenbach,2020-07-02 This open access book focuses on the issue of sustainability standards from the perspective of both global governance frameworks and emerging economies It stems from the recognition that the accelerated pace of economic globalization has generated production and consumption patterns that are generating sustainability concerns Sustainability standards and regulations are increasingly being used in a bid to make global consumption and production more sustainable Given the dense inter connectedness of economic affairs globally the use of sustainability standards has become a concern of global governance who face the challenge of achieving a balance between the use of standards for genuine sustainability objectives and not allowing them to turn into instruments of protectionism or coercion The emerging economies given their increasing engagement with the global economy are most impacted by the use of sustainability standards The emphasis of emerging economies in this book is retained both by using case studies from these economies and by collating perceptions and assessments of those located in these economies The case studies included span sectors such as palm oil forestry food quality vehicular emissions and water standards and address the problems unique to the emerging economies including capacity building for compliance with standards adapting international standards in domestic contexts and addressing the exclusion of small and medium enterprises etc Complex interfaces and dynamics of a global nature are not limited to the thematic of this book but also extend to the process through which it was written This book brings together insights from developed as well as emerging economies Germany India Mexico Brazil Indonesia Pakistan Mexico and China It also brings together scholars and practitioners to jointly ponder upon the conceptual aspects of the global frameworks for sustainability standards This book is a very useful resource for researchers and practitioners alike and provides valuable insights for policy makers as well Community Secondary Schools in Tanzania Elia Shabani Mligo,Devotha Lawrence Mshana,2018-01-22 Community Secondary Schools are the majority secondary schools in Tanzania These are schools built by community initiatives with the aim of helping more children acquire a secondary education Despite this good intention these schools face a number of challenges One such challenge has to do with academic performance This book investigates this challenge It examines the factors that contribute to students poor performance in the community secondary schools in Tanzania to discern the main factors contributing to their poor performance Many factors contribute to students poor performance such as lack of support from parents on educational issues teachers and students attitudes and perceptions on education inadequate learning and teaching materials and resources learning and teaching environments as well as lack of adequate motivation for teachers and students This book explores these challenges and proposes future prospects to make such schools have efficient performance in Tanzania and
