Child Abuse, Prediction, Prevention and Follow Up Tunbridge Wells Study Group, 1978 Papers presented by the Tunbridge Wells Study Group on child abuse at their Farnham meeting T p Abstracts on Criminology and Penology ,1978 Bimonthly Abstracts of journal articles and monographs Covers material from psychiatric literature as well as from criminological sources Entries arranged in classified order Author subject indexes Violence in the Home Michael D. A. Freeman, 1979 Violence Against Women in the Family Jane Frances Connors, Centre for Social Development and Humanitarian Affairs (United Nations), 1989 Risk and Social Work C Paul Brearley, 2023-07-28 First published in 1982 Risk and Social Work provides a useful framework for analysing risk in the social welfare context Surprisingly social work and other helping professions have hitherto given little attention to the use and meaning of risk although the term is frequently employed with clients and helpers being described as at risk or in danger The media have taken up these terms noticeably in cases involving child abuse the elderly and conditions in psychiatric institutions often at the expense of our image of the social services Paul Brearley s discussion of the analysis and management of risk in social work will therefore be of value to people working in the helping professions Mr Brearley begins by establishing a series of definitions drawing primarily from the commercial insurance field and from the literature on scientific and workplace hazards These definitions form the base for a framework of risk analysis which stresses the importance of values and the chance element in decision making about risk He shows how this framework can be used in practice in emergency and risky situations and looks at the management of hazards and uncertainty with particular reference to social work practice Family Violence International Society on Family Law, 1978 SWT, Social Work Today ,1985 Social Work Today ,1977 Social Work, the Media and Public Relations (Routledge Revivals) Bob Franklin, Nigel Parton, 2014-06-17 Over the past few decades relationships between social workers and the media have become increasingly challenging Social workers feel aggrieved by media reporting of their profession and believe that journalists lack sufficient knowledge and experience of the social services to report matters adequately and sensitively whilst some journalists have urged social workers to adopt a more proactive public relations strategy This book first published in 1991 analyses the causes and consequences of the negative portrayal of social work within the media and considers various ways in which this image might be improved The authors consider a variety of developments during the 1990s designed to redress imbalances in media reporting and present a more accurate picture of social workers and the people with whom they work This title remains very relevant in light of the high profile cases related to the social service that continue to feature in the British press and will be of particular value to students and researchers with an interest in the relationship between the media and social policy Woman Battering in the United States Helen M. Eigenberg, 2001 Using her own original writings and some taken from a variety of previously published books and periodicals Eigenberg U of Tennessee at Chattanooga displays woman battering with all of its edges showing The book examines woman battering as a means of social control and as a crime that is routinely ignored by all ranks of society Articles cover topics such as what causes battering who is beaten police response to battering and factors in arrests of domestic assaults British journal of law and society ,1980 The Personal Social Services Eric Sainsbury,1977 Violence and the Family John Powell Martin,1978 The Abused Child in the Family and in the Community C.
