Klaus-Dieter Mathes, 2021-11-23. Maitr pa 986 1063 is one of the greatest and most influential Indian yogis of Vajrayana Buddhism. The legacy of his thought and meditation instructions have had a profound impact on Buddhism in India and Tibet and several important contemporary practice lineages continue to rely on his teachings. Early in his life Maitr pa gained renown as a monk and scholar but it was only after he left his monastery and wandered throughout India as a yogi that he had a direct experience of nonconceptual realization. Once Maitr pa awakened to this nondual nature of reality he was able to harmonize the scholastic teachings of Buddhist philosophy with esoteric meditation instructions. This is reflected in his writings that are renowned for evoking a meditative state in those who have trained appropriately. He eventually became the teacher of many well known accomplished masters including Padampa Sangy and the translator Marpa who brought his teachings to Tibet. Drawing on Maitr pa's autobiographical writings and literary work, this book is the first comprehensive portrait of the life and teachings of this influential Buddhist master. Klaus Dieter Mathes also offers the first complete English translation of his teachings on nonconceptual realization which is the foundation of Mah mudra meditation. Sounds of Innate Freedom

Karl Brunnhölzl, 2024-06-04. A paragraph on the series Sounds of Innate Freedom: The Indian Texts of Mah mudra is an historic five volume series containing many of the first English translations of the classic mah mudra literature. The texts and songs in these volumes are excerpted from the large compendium of texts called The Indian Texts of the Mah mudra of Definitive Meaning compiled by the Seventh Karmapa Chötra Gyatso 1456-1539. In its modern Tibetan edition, this collection consists of five volumes containing seven kinds of texts: the Anvilatantra as a tantric source of Mah mudra attributed to the Buddha himself and its commentary; songs of realization; doh Caryagti and vajragti commentaries on songs of realization; and other texts independent tantric treatises, nontantric treatises, edifying stories, and doxographies presenting hierarchies of different Buddhist and non-Buddhist philosophical systems. The collection offers a brilliant window into the richness of this vast ocean of Indian Mah mudra texts in the Kagy tradition as well as a clear view of the sources of one of the world's great contemplative traditions. It is for meant for anyone who appreciates Buddhist literature and Buddhist tantric practice. Reading these songs and texts that express the inexpressible and contemplating their meaning in meditation will open doors to experience and possibly even awakening just as they did for practitioners in the past.

Description of volume 5: Volume 5 most closely follows Luminous Melodies and contains the most versified songs of realization consisting of doh's, couplets, vajragti's, vajra songs, and Caryagti's, conduct songs, all luminously expressing the inexpressible as well as commentary. The doh lineage in tantric Buddhism began when Saraha, known as the Great Brahmin, started singing songs of realization to his disciples, the royal family, and the people of the kingdom. Since then, the great Mah mudra Siddhas have continued to express their realization and instructions to their disciples in pithy songs composed and sung spontaneously.

These songs display a vast range of styles themes and metaphors providing readers a feast offering of profound pith instructions of great power that were uttered by numerous male and female mahasiddhas siddhas yog s and kin s often in the context of ga acakras and initially kept in their secret treasury This volume can stand on its own at the same time as it provides a taste of the entire collection offering a window into the richness of this vast ocean of Indian Mah mudr texts in the Kagy tradition The majority of songs and their commentaries are translated for the first time into English by Karl Brunnh lzl brilliantly capturing the wordplay mystical wonder bliss and ecstatic sense of freedom expressed by awakened Mah mudra masters of India such as Saraha L hipa K a alias K hapa Jaganmitr nanda alias Mitrayog Vir pa Tilopa N ropa Maitr pa N g rjuna the female mah siddhas princess Lak m kar and ombiyogin as well as many otherwise unknown figures of this rich Buddhist tradition Karl Brunnh lzl s learned and lucid introduction situates the songs in their social religious and literary context Mah mudr refers to perfect buddhahood in a single instant the omnipresent essence of all phenomena that is nondual and devoid of all obscurations Reading these songs that express the inexpressible and contemplating their meaning in meditation will open doors to experience and possibly even awakening just as they did for practitioners in the past For besides the officially recognized mah siddhas there were many other varieties of practitioners and many lived and taught outside of the framework of institutionalized Buddhism in their time evidence that the teachings and the path of mah mudr are accessible to and can be practiced by anyone from any walk of life whether a king a servant in a brothel or a housewife often without having to renounce their day jobs
