Blood River:

Blood River Tim Butcher, 2010-12-15 THE NUMBER ONE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER A compulsively readable account of an African country now virtually inaccessible to the outside world and one journalist's daring and adventurous journey When war correspondent Tim Butcher was sent to cover Africa in 2000 he quickly became obsessed with the idea of recreating H M Stanley's famous nineteenth century trans Africa expedition but travelling alone Despite warnings that his plan was suicidal Butcher set out for the Congo's eastern border with just a rucksack and a few thousand dollars hidden in his boots Making his way in an assortment of vessels including a motorbike and a dugout canoe helped along by a cast of unlikely characters he followed in the footsteps of the great Victorian adventurers Butcher's journey was a remarkable feat but the story of the Congo told expertly and vividly in this book is more remarkable still A masterpiece John Le Carr Extraordinary audacious completely enthralling William Boyd A remarkable marriage of travelogue and history which deserves to make Tim Butcher a star for his prose as well as his courage Max Hastings

From Memory to Marble Elizabeth Rankin, Rolf Michael Schneider, 2020-09-07 For the first time the 92 metre frieze of the Voortrekker Monument in Pretoria one of the largest historical narratives in marble has been made the subject of a book The pictorial narrative of the Boer pioneers who conquered South Africa's interior during the Great Trek 1835-52 represents a crucial period of South Africa's past Conceptualising the frieze both reflected on and contributed to the country's socio-political debates in the 1930s and 1940s when it was made The book considers the active role the Monument played in the rise of Afrikaner nationalism and the development of apartheid as well as its place in post-apartheid heritage The frieze is unique in that it provides rare evidence of the complex processes followed in creating a major monument Based on unpublished documents drawings and models these processes are unfolded step by step from the earliest discussions of the purpose and content of the frieze through all the stages of its design to its shipping to post-war Italy to be copied into marble from Monte Altissimo up to its final installation in the Monument The book examines how visual representation transforms historical memory in what it chooses to recount and the forms in which it is depicted The second volume expands on the first by investigating each of the twenty-seven scenes of the frieze in depth providing new insights into not only the frieze but also South Africa's history Françoise van Schalkwyk of African Minds co-publisher with De Gruyter writes From Memory to Marble is an open access monograph in the true sense of the word Both volumes of the digital version of the book are available in full and free of charge from the date of publication This approach to publishing democratises access to the latest scholarly publications across the globe At the same time a book such as From Memory to Marble with its unique and exquisite photographs of the frieze as well as its wealth of reproduced archival materials demands reception of a more traditional kind that is on the printed page For this reason the book is likewise available in print as two separate volumes The printed and digital books should not be seen as separate incarnations each brings its own advantages working together to extend the reach and utility of From Memory to Marble to a range of interested readers For more material you can browse at Stanford's database Voortrekker Monumentality a digital archive SWORDPLAY KING CHAPTER 28 Anh Bar Lang,2025-07-01 SWORDPLAY KING CHAPTER 28 Although there was a regrettable point but Zhou Heng also formed the 21st moon also forming a complete half moon He finally reached the limit of the Moon Bright Emperor Huo Tian is there any way for me to immediately break through to the Moon Bright Emperor The two eleven ring Moon Bright Emperors could be compared to the seven ring Moon Bright Emperor but Zhou Heng could not be completely at ease he always had the feeling that Zhong Gufeng might be the eight ring Moon Bright Emperor or even stronger The seven ring Moon Bright Emperor and the eight ring Moon Bright Emperor the gap was just a wide moat

Telling Stories of Pain and Hope Mary Elizabeth Lange,Ruth Teer-Tomaselli,2024-06-07 The histories of South Africa and Ireland have been tumultuous and traumatic Both countries have experienced political repression sectarian violence and oppression that still impact the spiritual well being of people today Their parallel histories are of colonialism displacement and division and a fight for land and sovereignty Both countries have embarked on a process of healing and reconciliation yet there is an ongoing struggle for reparation and or reversal of previous injustices Recognising that museums of the 21st century have the potential to contribute to catharsis and mutual understanding this book reflects on selected museums in South Africa and Ireland that commemorate the pain of the past and the hope for the future The primary focus of the book is the way in which museum guides curators and managers share their stories and the stories of their ancestors and the stories of other people's ancestors who were caught up in the conflict while interweaving the stories of the authors as well Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Technicians of the Sacred, Third Edition Jerome Rothenberg,2017-08-22 A
