Blood at the Root Jennie Lightweis-Goff,2011-08-31 In Blood at the Root winner of the SUNY Press 2009 Dissertation First Book Prize in African American Studies Jennie Lightweis Goff examines the centrality of lynching to American culture focusing particularly on the ways in which literature popular culture and art have constructed the illusion of secrecy and obsolescence to conceal the memory of violence Including critical study of writers and artists like Ida B Wells Barnett Richard Wright William Faulkner George Schuyler and Kara Walker Lightweis Goff also incorporates her personal experience in the form of a year long travelogue of visits to lynching sites Her research and travel move outside the American South and rural locales to demonstrate the fiction of confining racism to certain areas of the country and the denial of collective responsibility for racial violence Lightweis Goff seeks to implicate societal attitude in the actions of the few and to reveal the legacy of violence that has been obscured by more valiant memories in the public sphere In exploring the ways that spatial and literary texts replace lynching with proclamations of innocence and regret Lightweis Goff argues that racial violence is an incompletely erupted trauma of American life whose very hiddenness links the past to still present practices of segregation and exclusion
