Arnovick, 2000-02-15 The purpose of Diachronic Pragmatics is to exemplify historical pragmatics in its twofold sense of constituting both a subject matter and a methodology This book demonstrates how diachronic pragmatics with its complementary diachronic function to form mapping and diachronic form to function mapping can be used to trace pragmatic developments within the English language Through a set of case studies it explores the evolution of such speech acts as promises curses blessings and greetings and such speech events as flyting and sounding Collectively these illocutionary biographies manifest the workings of several important pragmatic processes and trends increased epistemicity subjectification and discursization a special kind of pragmatization It also establishes the centrality of cultural traditions in diachronic reconstruction examining various de institutionalizations of extra linguistic context and their affect on speech act performance Taken together the case studies presented in Diachronic Pragmatics highlight the complex interactions of formal semantic and pragmatic processes over time Illustrating the possibilities of historical pragmatic pursuit this book stands as an invitation to further research in a new and important discipline
