Globalizing Chinese Migration Pál Nyíri, Igor Savelyev, 2020-08-26 This title was first published in 2003. Globalizing Chinese Migration is the first volume to deal comprehensively with the most recent wave of the migration from the People's Republic of China to Europe and Asia. By analyzing the Chinese state's role in this migration the authors dismiss as fiction the theory sometimes advanced by hostile and racist foreign observers that Chinese authorities are intent on using mass emigration as an expansionist tool. They go on to explain that migrants who might in earlier times have been reviled as traitors and absconders are today more likely to be viewed by sections of the Chinese state bureaucracy as patriots who remain part of China's polity and economy and contribute to its standing overseas. Some senior officials however particularly diplomats stress the harm done by new migrants both to China's economy which loses assets as a result of the migrants' entrepreneurial activities and to its reputation in the world. An essential resource for academics and students alike the volume presents important new data on aspects of Chinese migration largely neglected in the existing English language literature. These include new forms of emigration from China by students and by workers from the country's north eastern provinces and emigration to destinations including Russia Southeast Asia and Japan normally unremarked by students of population movements.

The Migration of Chinese Women to Mexico City Ximena Alba Villaléver, 2020-11-09 This book focuses on the migration strategies of Chinese women who travel to Mexico City in search of opportunities and survival. Specifically it explores the experiences and contributions of women who have placed themselves within the local and conflictive networks of Mexico City's downtown street markets particularly in Tepito where they work as suppliers and petty vendors of inexpensive products made in China. Specifically in Yiwu Street markets are the vital nodes of Mexican popular economy. Economically popular but the people that work and live among them have a long history of marginalization in relation to formal economic networks in Mexico City. Despite the difficult conditions of these spaces in the last three decades they have become a new source of economic opportunities and labor market access for Chinese migrants particularly for women. Through their commerce these migrants have introduced new commodities and new trade dynamics into these markets which are thereby transformed into alternative spaces of globalization.
