Techno-chop Michael Lichter, Steve Terry, Mike Seate, Simon Green, Although the spotlight shines brightest on leading chopper builders such as Jesse James Billy Lane and the Teutuls there is a large network of creative and talented chopper designers and fabricators at work across the country Their work might not be on TV but it fetches premium prices and turns heads on the street and at shows This book tells the story of several of today s leading chopper builders both famous and relatively unknown It also features their works in stunning photography that captures the intricate details and fine workmanship of these amazing motorcycles Living Labor Joseph B. Entin,2023-02-13 For much of the twentieth century the iconic figure of the U S working class was a white male industrial worker But in the contemporary age of capitalist globalization new stories about work and workers are emerging to refashion this image Living Labor examines these narratives and in the process offers an innovative reading of American fiction and film through the lens of precarious work It argues that since the 1980s novelists and filmmakers including Russell Banks Helena V ramontes Karen Tei Yamashita Francisco Goldman David Riker Ramin Bahrani Clint Eastwood Courtney Hunt and Ryan Coogler have chronicled the demise of the industrial proletariat and the tentative and unfinished emergence of a new much more diverse and perilously positioned working class In bringing together stories of work that are also stories of race ethnicity gender and colonialism Living Labor challenges the often assumed division between class and identity politics Through the concept of living labor and its discussion of solidarity the book reframes traditional notions of class helping us understand both the challenges
