of Children s Spirituality Christian Perspectives launched in 2003 with its first conference held at Concordia University Chicago in River Forest Illinois An earlier edition of this book composed of chapters based on presentations from that conference was published in 2004 In 2018 a decision was made to revise this book from the inaugural conference updating some chapters and providing a new perspective on the ongoing work of the organization now called the Children s Spirituality Summit For example given the advances in what we are learning from brain research a chapter on this topic has been extensively updated What this revised volume provides is a collection of chapters offering theological perspectives social science research and insights on ministry practice about the spiritual lives of children how they relate to God how this relationship grows and what helps in promoting the spiritual formation and vitality of children in the home church and school This book offers twenty three chapters by professors graduate students social science researchers and ministry leaders from different denominational traditions addressing a wide range of issues in theory research and ministry practice with children This second edition offers much to learn from stimulate your thinking and improve your practice The Religious

Education of Adults Leon McKenzie, R. Michael Harton, 2002 Increasingly adults do not see the church as a credible provider of quality religious education This revision by R Michael Harton of the classic work by Leon McKenzie addresses the foundational issues of what constitutes such an education for adults and how ministers and teachers can determine and understand the needs of learners It also offers ways to involve learners in the planning and execution of their own religious education A must read for ministers and seminarians who care about the religious education of adults Leon McKenzie is a retired professor of adult education at Indiana University where he also served as Director of Human Resource Development for Indiana University Hospital He received his Ed D in adult education from IU and has authored several books including Adult Education and the Burden of the Future and Adult Education and World View Construction He lives in Indianapolis R Michael Harton has authored several articles on local church adult education and contributed to A Church's Ministry to Adults and Handbook on Adult Religious Education A former congregational educator and seminary professor he now serves the Virginia Baptist Resource Center in Richmond Virginia and teaches adjunctively at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond He received his Ed D in adult education and instructional systems technology from Indiana University Adult Education in the Church Roy B. Zuck, Gene A. Getz, 1970 Foundations for Christian Education Eleanor Ann Daniel, John William Wade, 1999 Here is an excellent resource for your Christian Education program Daniel and Wade discuss the foundations of an effective Christian Education program and tackle organizational and administrative issues involved with such a program You will also find age specific information for all ages of learners If you are a Christian Ed Director or a teacher who wants to better understand the elements of a C E program that will make a difference in the lives of the teachers and the students this is the book for you Guiding Workers in Christian Education Frank Melbourne McKibben, 1953

Principles and Practices of Christian Education Robert W. Pazmiño, 2002-04-29 Principles and Practices of Christian Education shows teachers how they can use two important principles that stand behind all evangelical practices to make their education program stand out from all the others in its nurture of students First evangelical Christian education recognizes the need for conversion personal and corporate transformation that reconnects people to their Creator Second evangelical Christian education strives for connection making contact with people as unique individuals who live in a particular society and who need to know more about scripture In this book Christian education students learn that the work for which they prepare is a partnership with God to transform people Their central task is worship but through it and other activities they lead others to faith commitment and transformation of communities
