and to explain it to others more winningly Like every religion this faith has three aspects corresponding to the three parts of the soul and filling the innate needs of all three parts Kreeft uses these three divisions as the basic outline for his Christian apologetics First every religion has some beliefs whether expressed in creeds or not something for the intellect to know Second every religion has some duty or deed some practice of program some moral or ethical code something for the will to choose Finally every religion has some liturgy some worship some church something for the body and the concrete imagination and the aesthetic sense to work at Creed Code and Cult Words Works and Worship are a most useful way of outlining any religious faith including the Catholic Faith of Christians These essays were written for Catholics by a Catholic But I believe that nearly everything I say here will be found by the orthodox Biblical Protestant reader to be his faith as well That solid and substantial core that C S Lewis called mere Christianity Peter Kreeft
