American Journal of Pharmacy and the Sciences Supporting Public Health ,1868 Basket Weavers for the California Curio Trade Marvin Cohodas,1997-11 The peoples of northwestern California s Lower Klamath River area have long been known for their fine basketry Two early twentieth century weavers of that region Elizabeth Hickox and her daughter Louise created especially distinctive baskets that are celebrated today for their elaboration of technique form and surface designs Marvin Cohodas now explores the various forces that influenced Elizabeth Hickox analyzing her relationship with the curio trade and specifically with dealer Grace Nicholson to show how those associations affected the development and marketing of baskets He explains the techniques and patterns that Hickox created to meet the challenge of weaving design into changig three dimensional forms In addition to explicating the Hickoxes basketry Cohodas interprets its uniqueness as a form of intersocietal art showing how Elizabeth first designed her distinctive trinket basket to convey a particular view of the curio trade and its effect on status within her community Through its close examination of these superb practitioners of basketry Basket Weavers for the California Curio Trade addresses many of today s most pressing questions in Native American art studies concerning individuality patronage and issues of authenticity Graced with historic photographs and full color plates it reveals the challenges faced by early twentieth century Native weavers Extremely well written and based on an impressive amount of archival research It skillfully interweaves biography rigorous stylistic analysis and social history into an impressive story Janet Berlo editor The Early Years of Native American Art History Published with the assistance of The Southwest Museum Los Angeles Challenging Mathematics In and Beyond the Classroom Edward J. Barbeau,Peter J. Taylor,2009-04-21 In the mid 1980s the International Commission on Mathematical Instruction ICMI inaugurated a series of studies in mathematics education by comm sioning one on the influence of technology and informatics on mathematics and its teaching These studies are designed to thoroughly explore topics of c temporary interest by gathering together a group of experts who prepare a Study Volume that provides a considered assessment of the current state and a guide to further developments Studies have embraced a range of issues some central such as the teaching of algebra some closely related such as the impact of history and psychology and some looking at mathematics education from a particular perspective such as cultural differences between East and West These studies have been commissioned at the rate of about one per year Once the ICMI Executive decides on the topic one or two chairs are selected and then in consultation with them an International Program Committee IPC of about 12 experts is formed The IPC then meets and prepares a Discussion Document that sets forth the issues and invites interested parties to submit papers These papers are the basis for invitations to a Study Conference at which the various dimensions of the topic are explored and a book the Study Volume is sketched out The book is then put together in collaboration mainly using electronic communication The entire process typically takes about six years

The Yacht Club; or, The Young Boat-Builder Oliver Optic, 2016-08-27 The Yacht Club is the second volume of the Yacht Club Series to which it gives a name and like its predecessor is an independent story The hero has not before appeared though some of the characters of Little Bobtail take part in the incidents but each volume may be read understandingly without any knowledge of the contents of the other In this story the interest centres in Don John the Boat builder who is certainly a very enterprising young man though his achievements have been more than paralleled in the domain of actual life Like the first volume of the series the incidents of the story transpire on the waters of the beautiful Penobscot Bay and on its shores They include several yacht races which must be more interesting to those who are engaged in the exciting sport of yachting than to others But the principal incidents are distinct from the aquatic narrative and those who are not interested in boats and boating will find that Don John and Nellie Patterdale do not spend all their time on the water 6 The hero is a young man of high aims and noble purposes and the writer believes that it is unpardonable to awaken the interest and sympathy of his readers for any other than high minded and well meaning characters But he is not faultless he makes some grave mistakes even while he has high aims The most important lesson in morals to be derived from his experience is that it is unwise and dangerous for young people to conceal their actions from their parents and friends and that men and women who seek concealment choose darkness because their deeds are evil Harrison Square Boston The Basket Weavers Amelia

Khatri, AI, 2025-02-12 The Basket Weavers explores the comprehensive history of basket weaving highlighting its evolution from functional necessity to a significant art form across various cultures The book argues that basket weaving offers a unique perspective on the link between human culture technology and the environment Interestingly basket weaving predates pottery in many societies demonstrating its early importance The book also showcases how different cultures adapted readily available natural resources to suit their regional climates and needs The book begins by introducing fundamental techniques and materials progressing to specific regional traditions like Native American coiling East Asian bamboo weaving and European willow work Each regional study examines the environmental context historical development and cultural significance of basketry By focusing on the social and economic roles of basket weavers the book emphasizes how this craft has historically supported communities worldwide and continues to evolve as a contemporary art form

Through Life and Beyond; and Paul Fenton Mrs. F. Marshall Ward,1870

The Top Books of the Year Baskets Beyond The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Baskets Beyond : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
