Fearmongering in Greek and Roman Literature and Beyond Priscilla Gontijo Leite, Ian Worthington, 2025-08-25 This volume provides for the first time a focused study of scare tactics and fearmongering in a broad range of Greek and Roman authors and genres showing how alarmist tactics were used in both antiquity and today Scare tactic rhetoric is a timely topic fear in current politics can justify actions and decisions and be used to control what is debated in the public arena with the truth often shaped and even removed from what was being said The ancient world was no different In this volume an international selection of scholars discusses how and why alarmist tactics were used in a variety of genres in Greco Roman literature including oratory historiography drama philosophy and children s stories to convey political messages and ideas They also draw parallels between ancient and contemporary fear

Fearmongering in Greek and Roman Literature and Beyond is suitable for students and scholars in Classics and Ancient History Rhetoric and Rhetorical Theory Ancient Societies and Politics as well as those operating in adjacent fields of study along with the general reader interested in the ancient world psychology politics and the exploitation of rhetoric

The Elusive Auteur Barrett Hodsdon, 2017-05-21 The director s authorial role in filmmaking the extent to which a film reflects his or her individual style and creative vision has been much debated among film critics and scholars for decades Drawing on generations of criticism this study describes how the designation auteur has gone from stylistic criterion to product label in what has always been an essentially collaborative industry Examining the controversy in regard to Hollywood directors the author compares directors and would be auteurs of the classic studio system with those of contemporary Hollywood and its new climate of cultural entrepreneurship
