Chinese Indonesians Remembering Distorting And Forgetting:

Chinese Indonesians Tim Lindsey, Helen Pausacker, 2005 This volume honours and reflects on the life and work of the Australian Indonesianist Charles A Coppel His interests reflected in this volume are broad ranging from history politics legal issues and violence against the Chinese through to culture and religion The chapters in the volume contributed by scholars from Australia Indonesia Europe and Singapore also all reflect a theme inspired by Charles Coppel's expression remembering distorting forgetting by which he drew attention to misrepresentations of the Chinese seeking to locate the realities behind the myths that form the basis for the racism and xenophobia the Chinese have often experienced in Indonesia Ethnic Chinese in Contemporary Indonesia Leo Suryadinata, 2008 The Chinese in Indonesia have played an important role in Indonesian society before and after the fall of Soeharto This book provides comprehensive and up to date information by examining them in detail during that era with special reference to the post Soeharto period The contributors to this volume consist of both older and younger generation scholars writing on Indonesian Chinese They offer new information and fresh perspectives on the issues of government policies legal position ethnic politics race relations religion education and prospects of the Chinese Indonesians Chinese Indonesians Reassessed Siew-Min Sai, Chang-Yau Hoon, 2013 The book shows how the Chinese minority is much more diverse and the picture much richer and more complicated than previous studies have allowed Subjects covered include the historical development of Chinese communities in peripheral areas of Indonesia the religious practices of Chinese Indonesians which are by no means confined to Chinese religions and Chinese ethnic events where a wide range of Indonesians not just Chinese participate Chinese Indonesians and Regime Change Marleen Dieleman, Juliette Koning, Peter Post, 2010-11-12 By taking regime change as its main theme this book offers a new perspective on the multiple roles that Chinese Indonesians played in terms of shaping moderating and stimulating social change in Indonesia Chinese Indonesians in Post-Suharto Indonesia Wu-Ling Chong, 2018-10-02 Selfish obscenely rich insular and opportunistic these remain how Chinese minorities in Indonesia are perceived by the indigenous population However far from being passive victims of discrimination and marginalisation Chong presents a forceful case in which Chinese Indonesians possess the agency to shape their future in the country particularly in the changing political business and socio cultural environment after the fall of Suharto While a lack of good governance that promotes the rule of law and accountability allows or even encourages some Chinese to maintain the status quo by perpetuating corrupt business practices inherited from Suharto's New Order regime there are other Chinese Indonesians who make full use of the democratic space opened up under the new administrations acting as agents of reform by participating in electoral politics and establishing inter ethnic socio cultural organisations Building on Anthony Giddens's structure agency theory and Pierre Bourdieu's notions of habitus and field Chong shows that the Chinese minorities have played an active role in the democratic process even though they continue to occupy an ambivalent position in Indonesia The Chinese Indonesians diverse strategies to safeguard their personal interests and cultural identities make a stimulating case study of what an ethnic minority could do to make a difference Backed by formidable research Chong has produced an intriguing and original view of the political social and economic activity of the still precariously placed Chinese minority in Indonesia Donald L Horowitz Duke University author of Constitutional Change and Democracy in Indonesia In this illuminating study Chong traces the political economy of Indonesia's ethnic Chinese minority as they navigate the country's post 1998 politics which is more free but still lacks strong rule of law Focusing especially on Medan and Surabaya she analyses how some have strongly supported reforms while many continue old practices of surviving and profiting by participating in massive corruption and extortion Jeffrey A Winters

Northwestern University author of Oligarchy The Japanese Occupation of Borneo, 1941-45 Ooi Keat Gin, 2010-12-17 The Japanese occupation of both British Borneo Brunei Sarawak and North Borneo and Dutch Borneo in 1941 to 1945 is a much understudied subject Of particular interest is the occupation of Dutch Borneo governed by the Imperial Japanese Navy that had long term plans for permanent possession This book surveys Borneo under Western colonialism examines pre war Japanese interests in Borneo and analyses the Japanese military invasion and occupation It goes on to consider the nature of Japanese rule in Borneo contrasting the different regimes of the Imperial Japanese Army which ruled the north and the Navy A wide range of issues are discussed including the incorporation of the economy in the Greater East Asia Co prosperity Sphere and the effects of this on Borneo's economy The book also covers issues such as the relationship with the various indigenous inhabitants with Islam and the Muslim community and the Chinese as well as topics of acculturation and propaganda and major uprisings and mass executions It examines the impact of the wartime conditions and policies on the local multiethnic peoples and their responses providing an invaluable contribution to the greater understanding of the significance of the wartime Japanese occupation in the historical development of Borneo BitterSweet Stuart

Pearson, 2013-08-01 Behind the statistics of migration are the life stories of millions of migrants and their descendants The movement of people out of China is one of the largest movements of humanity in modern times and large numbers of Chinese emigrated to the colony of the Dutch East Indies now Indonesia While many of them prospered in their new home it was against a background of uncertainty and a feeling that they were not entirely welcome in their adopted homeland

BitterSweet is the poignant story of one Chinese family's life in Indonesia and of their eventual emigration to Australia

Post-War Borneo, 1945-1950 Ooi Keat Gin, 2013-05-29 This book examines Borneo both British Borneo Brunei Sarawak and North Borneo and Dutch Borneo in the period 1945-1950 Borneo then was at the crossroads Following the Japanese Occupation the likely future status of the various Bornean territories was not at all clear and the book discusses the various factions and powers both local and international who were contending for control in this period It examines the effects of the Japanese surrender the impact of the subsequent interregnum and Australian and British military administrations the reassertion of Dutch control the struggle for Indonesian independence and movements for local autonomy reassertion of ethnic rights interests and identity It charts developments throughout this volatile and uncertain period up to the point at which the newly independent Republic of Indonesia emerged and a more settled period began

Chinese in Dubai Yuting Wang, 2020-09-07 Chinese in Dubai offers the first book length study of the experiences of overseas Chinese living in the most prominent global city in the Arabian Gulf and the broader Middle East region Evolving around three themes money pride and spirituality this book delineates the changing shape of Chinese spaces in metropolitan Dubai explicates how a frontier mentality affects intergroup relations identity construction and religious experiences in the Chinese diaspora It documents how the Chinese make sense of their struggles sufferings prosperity and success in relation to Dubai s fast changing social environment This book is a timely endeavour to gauge the implications of a rising China and the shifting patterns of the international economic and political order for the global Chinese diaspora

Religion, Law and Intolerance in Indonesia Tim Lindsey, Helen Pausacker, 2016-05-20 Despite its overwhelmingly Muslim majority Indonesia has always been seen as exceptional for its diversity and pluralism In recent years however there has been a rise in majoritarianism with resurgent Islamist groups pushing hard to impose conservative values on public life in many cases with considerable success This has sparked growing fears for the future of basic human rights and in particular the rights of women and sexual and ethnic minority groups There have in fact been more prosecutions of unorthodox religious groups since the fall of Soeharto in 1998 than there were under the three decades of his authoritarian rule Some Indonesians even feel that the pluralism they thought was constitutionally guaranteed by the national ideology the Pancasila is now under threat This book contains essays exploring these issues by prominent scholars lawyers and activists from within Indonesia and beyond offering detailed accounts of the political and legal implications of rising resurgent Islamism in Indonesia Examining particular cases of intolerance and violence against minorities it also provides an account of the responses offered by a weak state that now seems too often unwilling to intervene to protect vulnerable minorities against rising religious intolerance

Torn Between America and China Daniel Novotny, 2010 How can a developing democratic and predominantly Muslim country like Indonesia manage its foreign relations while facing a myriad of security concerns and dilemmas in the increasingly complex post Cold War international politics without compromising its national interests and sacrificing its independence Approaching this problem from the vantage point of the Indonesian foreign policy elite this book explores the elite's perceptions about other states and the manner in which these shape the decision making process and determine policy outcomes The combined qualitative and quantitative research strategy draws on a unique series of in depth interviews with 45 members of the Indonesian foreign policy elite that included the country's present and or former presidents cabinet ministers high ranking military officers and senior diplomats Among all state actors Indonesian relations with the United States and China are the highest concern of the elite The leaders believe that in the future Indonesia will increasingly have to manoeuvre between the two rival powers While the United States during George W Bush's presidency was seen as the main security threat to Indonesia China is considered the main malign factor in the long run with power capabilities that need to be constrained and counter balanced

Nationalism in Asia Jeff Kingston, 2016-06-13 Using a comparative interdisciplinary approach Nationalism in Asia analyzes currents of nationalism in five contemporary Asian societies China India Indonesia Japan and South Korea Explores the ways in which nationalism is expressed embraced challenged and resisted in contemporary China India Indonesia Japan and South Korea using a comparative interdisciplinary approach Provides an important trans national and trans regional analysis by looking at five countries that span Northeast Southeast and South Asia Features comparative analysis of identity politics democracy economic policy nation branding sports shared trauma memory and culture wars territorial disputes national security and minorities Offers an accessible thematic narrative written for non specialists including a detailed and up to date bibliography Gives readers an in depth understanding of the ramifications of nationalism in these countries for the future of Asia

Chinese Indentured Labour in the Dutch East Indies, 1880-1942 Gregor Benton, 2022-09-19 This book offers a comprehensive account of indentured Chinese labour in the Dutch East Indies between 1880 and 1942 particularly in its twilight years after 1917 The author shows that Chinese indenture started and evolved differently from other forms of bonded labour in Southeast Asia and globally including its Indian and Javanese variants This difference is reflected in its lexicon which was in part special to the Chinese strain Using fieldwork findings from the tin islands of Bangka and Belitung and the Deli plantations on Sumatra as well as archival materials in Dutch Chinese and other languages held in libraries in Java Nanjing Taipei Hong Kong and Leiden this book presents cutting edge research that sets out to contribute to the revising of our historical understanding of indenture

Outside and In-Between: Theorizing Asian-Canadian Exclusion and the Challenges of Identity Formation, 2021-09-06 Asian Canadians whether immigrant international students naturalized native born or other are hampered in their exploration and articulation of self by the dearth of critical writing both for them and by them Despite the influx of Asian students and their inflated tuition rates to Canadian postsecondary institutions they are strikingly underrepresented in the literature of the academy Critical theory focusing on Asian identity anti Asian racism and the Asian Canadian experience is limited or presented as an artifact of the past Across the globe but particularly in the English speaking West the internationalization of higher education continues its upward trend 2017 data from the Canadian Bureau for International Education positioned Canada as the fourth leading destination for international students seeking post secondary education The fact that the vast majority of international students at Canadian colleges and universities come from Asia has been well documented in domestic media but the lived experiences and perspectives of these transnational individuals have not This edited collection provides much needed theorizing of Asian Canadian lived experiences focusing on such themes as multiculturalism diversity race culture agency education community activism citizenship identity model minority myths gender colonization neoliberalism and others Contributors include Sarah Alam Syed Fahad Ali Wallis Caldoza Valerie G Damasco Grace Garlow Allison Lam Kailan Leung Juanna Nguyen Dionisio Nyaga Jasmine Pham Vania Soepriatna Tika Ram Thapa and Rose Ann Torres Southeast Asian Diaspora in the United States Jonathan H. Lee, 2014-10-16 Southeast Asian Diaspora in the United States Memories and Visions Yesterday Today and Tomorrow provides various exploratory interpretations on Southeast Asian American subjectivities communities histories creativities and cultural expressions as they are revealed informed or infused with visions dreams and or memories of self in relation to others places time and events historically significant or quotidian The interaction and interplay of visions memories and subjectivities is the focus of examination and interpretation either directly or tangentially Authors explore varieties of homes religiosities creativities cultural forms and productions and queer sexualities utilizing critical ethnic and Asian American studies discourses coupled with other interdisciplinary approaches to provide new and alternative visions on Cambodian Hmong Filipino Indonesian Lao Thai and Vietnamese American subjects and their communities that links Southeast Asia to America in vexing creative and purposeful ways Constructing China Mobo Gao, 2018-07-20 From fear and anxiety to celebration China's rise has provoked a variety of responses across the world In light of this phenomenon how are our understandings of China produced From West to East Mobo Gao interrogates knowledge production rejecting the supposed objectivity of empirical statistics and challenging the assumption of a dichotomy between the Western liberal democracy and Chinese authoritarianism By examining issues such as the Chinese Neo Enlightenment and neoliberalism national interest vested in Western scholarship representations of the Great Leap Forward and the Cultural Revolution and the South China Sea the book asks how is contemporary China constructed By dissecting the political agenda and conceptual framework of commentators on China Gao provocatively urges those not only on the Right but also on the Left to be self critical of their views on Chinese politics economics and history Law Reform in Developing and Transitional States Timothy Lindsey, 2007 Law reform in developing countries has become an increasingly topical subject in recent years A critical issue is why so many law reform projects in developing economies are regarded by their sponsors and recipients as unsuccessful This informative book examines examples of law reform projects in post socialist and post authoritarian states in Asia identifies common problems proposes analytical frameworks for understanding the problems identified Though parallels between Asian models and those in developing states elsewhere in the world are strong the book has been developed to avoid suggestion that the issues covered are somehow peculiarly Asian indeed it is shown that cultural relativist approaches to Asia are unsustainable This is an invaluable reference for those involved in the areas of development economics Asian studies and comparative politics

Chinese Buddhism in Catholic Philippines Ari C. Dy, 2017-10-20 Drawing on his personal experience of growing up exposed to the rituals of Chinese Buddhism and yet embracing Catholicism and being ordained a Jesuit priest Fr Ari Dy ventures to examine Chinese Buddhism in the Philippines analyzing its adaptation to the Philippines and its contribution to conceptions of Chinese identity Producing China in Southeast Asia Chih-yu Shih, 2017-03-21 This book presents studies on Chinese intellectuals in Southeast Asia and how they understand China and Chineseness in the 21st century It posits through analyses of works and oral histories of a number of Chinese scholars in the region that the dominant but distinctive approaches adopted by them are those that are rooted in humanism and pragmatism In doing so the book explores the significant population local conditions and strategy of survival among the Southeast Asian Chinese as factors that influence their views and perspectives Studies presented in the book simultaneously implicate subjectivity where authors and their readers position themselves among ethnic national and civilizational identities It highlights that while national level identity necessarily involves dangerous self interrogation and at times politics that is often suppressive and confrontational intellectual writings on China that stick to the ethnic and civilizational levels provide more sensible exits With that the book then goes on to make the argument that in Southeast Asian Chinese studies the humanities usually prevail over the social sciences at these two alternative levels Lastly the book also shows how the humanities can be instrumental to Southeast Asian Chinese scholars choice of identity strategy which makes pragmatism an important theme The book will be of interest to students and researchers involved in Southeast Asian and Chinese studies
