Lifelong Learning in the UK Anne O'Grady, 2013-06-03 Written specifically for Education Studies students this accessible text offers a clear introduction to lifelong learning and the impact it has on all areas of society Assuming no prior knowledge of the subject it explores what lifelong learning is where learning can and does take place and who is accessing it Offering a clear overview of the different strands to lifelong learning the book examines the concept of lifelong learning drawing on key policy initiatives and strategies Each section outlines the types of individuals who are most likely to access lifelong learning within and across these strands including for example migrants refugees and asylum seekers unemployed adults carers and guardians older age groups and returning learners Chapters cover adult and community learning higher education further education work based learning prison and probation learning Including supporting tasks and reflection activities this textbook will give students a broad understanding of lifelong learning and its role in supporting adults throughout their life both socially and economically Lifelong Learning in the UK is an essential introductory text for students on undergraduate courses in Education Studies

Higher Education Transitions Eva Kyndt, Vincent Donche, Keith Trigwell, Sari Lindblom-Ylänne, 2017-05-18 In the current era where lifelong learning is brought to the fore higher education can no longer be regarded as an isolated trajectory within one's educational career as many students face substantial challenges in crafting their professional future More specifically the transition from school to higher education and continuing to the labour market are often a difficult hurdles for many students Almost half of students do not succeed in the first year and often withdraw from education students are faced with a variety of contexts and may choose to study in a different international context and they are then confronted with structural barriers in finding a high quality job as evidenced by increasing levels of youth unemployment and underemployment Higher Education Transitions aims to deepen our understanding of the transitions taking place when students enter progress and leave higher education to enter the labour market Drawing on an international team of contributors this guide includes three conceptual and fifteen empirical studies which include a range of quantitative qualitative cross sectional and longitudinal studies Divided into three sections to reflect each important transition phase topics include transitions from secondary to higher education transitions within higher education transitions from higher education to the labour market By considering transitions across different phases as a broad and interrelated process this guide will be essential reading for higher education researchers policy stakeholders and all those interested in the transitions into higher education and the labour market

EBOOK: Educational Management in Managerialist Times Martin Thrupp, Robert Willmott, 2003-08-16 This closely argued and lively polemic is recommended for all policymakers and practitioners concerned with educational leadership and change BJET Thrupp and Willmott have produced a very important book regarding knowledge claims around issues of policy and practice I will be recommending my masters and doctoral students to read the book so that as practitioners they may relish the opportunity to engage with issues of knowledge production Thrupp and Willmott's book is directly relevant to every day practice in teaching and learning across the educational system and it should be required reading for all training programmes because it enables trainees to know and understand the knowledge structures that are being used to control their work and identities BJES will stir a lot of debate and be seminal to debates about the direction of education management for some time to come Mike Bottery Hull University a genuinely readable and accessible book that critically engages with school management literature InService Education Journal This important and provocative book is not another how to educational management text Instead it offers a critical review of the extensive educational management literature itself The main concern of the authors is that educational management texts do not do enough to encourage school leaders and teachers to challenge social inequality or the market and managerial reforms of the last decade They demonstrate this problem through detailed analyses of texts in the areas of educational marketing school improvement development planning and strategic human resource management school leadership and school change For academics and students Education Management in Managerialist Times offers a critical guide to existing educational management texts and makes a strong case for redefining educational management along more socially and politically informed lines The book also offers practitioners alternative management strategies intended to contest rather than support managerialism while being realistic about the context within which those who lead and manage schools currently have to work This controversial new title brings a new insight to the educational management debate

Researching Transitions in Lifelong Learning John Field,Jim Gallacher,Robert Ingram,2009-06-03

Perspectives on comprehensive internationalisation of higher education Nirmala Dorasamy, Gift Mugano, 2023-03-01 This book argues that international higher education has to be competitive sustainable and contribute to educational development both locally and internationally It shows that higher education institutions HEIs are seen as being driven by an economic or an educational agenda For example internationalization can be influenced by the university ranking system which is based on the international reputation of universities the competitive quality of programmes offered in a market oriented education environment generation of income from the enrolment of international students and employment of high profile researchers Likewise the book contributes to the production of knowledge by positing that an international profile for HEIs is fundamental to building their international excellence outstanding academic standards and strengthening their competitiveness and economic growth Although virtual internationalization can be used as an effective vehicle for students to gain international exposure the majority of students have remained in their local environment This book provides a detailed array of new needs attitudes and demands that teaching and learning pedagogy has to consider with a view to fostering the internationalisation of higher education In addition this book also argues that HEIs must ethically and pedagogically respond to the needs of international students and other stakeholders across various modes of internationalization of higher education The book argues that any rationale to internationalise higher education must ensure that inequitable and unethical ideologies and practices are addressed In the same vein this book also places emphasis on the importance of institutional quality assurance mechanisms accreditation learning outcomes and multicultural connectivity through an inclusive curriculum Lastly in providing thorough strategies for comprehensive internationalisation of higher education this book provides pertinent discussions on the sustainable funding models for the HEIs repositioning the higher education sector as a vibrant export sector reforms in higher education governance in HEIs entrepreneurship in higher education and competition in higher education

Developing Teachers and Developing Schools in Changing Contexts Zijian Li, Ling-po Shiu, 2008 More than ever schools are regarded as a learning community in which its leaders and therefore the school s primary agents of change are expected to stay abreast of the latest developments in education and instruction This book provides important insights for improving professional development activities school university partnerships and networks educational management as well as teaching and learning in schools and colleges It builds on research conducted in the 1990s during which the pursuit of school improvement and skill development first converged

The Marketisation of Higher Education and the Student as Consumer Mike Molesworth, Richard Scullion, Elizabeth Nixon, 2010-10-04 Until recently government policy in the UK has encouraged an expansion of Higher Education to increase participation and with an express aim of creating a more educated workforce This expansion has led to competition between Higher Education institutions with students increasingly positioned as consumers and institutions working to improve the extent to which they meet consumer demands Especially given the latest government funding cuts the most prevalent outlook in Higher Education today is one of business forcing institutions to reassess the way they are managed and promoted to ensure maximum efficiency sales and profits Students view the opportunity to gain a degree as a right and a service which they have paid for demanding a greater choice and a return on their investment Changes in higher education have been rapid and there has been little critical research into the implications This volume brings together internationally comparative academic perspectives critical accounts and empirical research to explore fully the issues and experiences of education as a commodity examining the international and financial context of marketisation the new purposes of universities the implications of university branding and promotion league tables and student surveys vs quality of education the higher education market and distance learning students as active consumers in the co creation of value changing student experiences demands and focus With contributions from many of the leading names involved in Higher Education including Ron Barnett Frank Furedi Lewis Elton Roger Brown and also Laurie Taylor in his journalistic guise as an academic at the University of Poppleton this book will be essential reading for many
