Chopsticks Only Work In Pairs:

Chopsticks Only Work in Pairs Shanshan Du, 2002-12-18 The ideal of gender equality seems forever elusive always tantalizingly over the horizon Shanshan Du suggests that by shifting our attention away from the various utopian ideals embedded in mainstream feminism we may be surprised to learn that gender egalitarian societies do exist Based on extensive fieldwork this book explores the Lahu society in Southwest China where practical gender equality has become the byproduct of a potent ideology of gender unity vividly expressed by the proverb chopsticks only work in pairs "Chopsticks Only Work in Pairs" Shanshan Du, 2002 Based on extensive fieldwork this book explores the Lahu society in Southwest China where practical gender equality has become the byproduct of a potent ideology of gender unity vividly expressed by the proverb chopsticks only work in pairs Women and Gender in Contemporary Chinese Societies Shanshan Du, Ya-chen Chen, 2013-03-04 Recent attention to historical geographic and class differences in the studies of women and gender in China has expanded our understanding of the diversity and complexity of gendered China Nevertheless the ethnic dimension of this subject matter remains largely overlooked particularly concerning women's conditions and gender status Consequently the patriarchy and its oppression of women among the Han the ethnic majority in China are often inaccurately or erroneously associated with the whole gendered heritage of China epitomized by the infamous traditions of footbinding and female infanticide Such academic and popular predisposition belies the fact that gender systems in China span a wide spectrum ranging from extreme Han patriarchy to Lahu gender egalitarianism The authors contributing to this book have collectively initiated a systematic effort to bridge the gap between understanding the majority Han and ethnic minorities in regard to women and gender in contemporary Chinese societies By achieving a quantitative balance between articles on the Han majority and those on ethnic minorities this book transcends the ghettoization of ethnic minorities in the studies of Chinese women and gender The eleven chapters of this volume are divided into three sections which jointly challenge the traditions and norms of Han patriarchy from various perspectives The first section focuses on gender traditions among ethnic minorities which compete with the norms of Han patriarchy The second section emphasizes the impact of radical social transformation on gender systems and practices among both Han and ethnic minorities The third section underscores socio cultural diversity and complexity in resistance to Han patriarchal norms from a broad perspective This book complements previous scholarship on Chinese women and gender by expanding our investigative lens beyond Han patriarchy and providing images of the multiethnic landscape of China By identifying the Han as an ethnically marked category and by bringing to the forefront the diverse gender systems of ethnic minorities this book encourages an increasing awareness of and sensitivity to the cross cultural diversity of gendered China both in academia and beyond Intimacies William R. Jankowiak, 2008-02-18 No culture is ever completely successful or satisfied with its synthesis of romantic love companionship and sexual desire Whether the setting is a busy metropolis or a quiet farming village a tension always exists between a community's sexual habits and customs and what it believes to be the proper context for love. Even in Western societies we prefer sexual passion to romance and companionship and no study of any culture has shown that individuals regard passion and affection equally. The pursuit of love and sex has generated an infinite number of ambiguities and contradictions yet every community hopes to find a resolution to this conflict either by joining, dividing or stressing one act over the other. In this follow up to Romantic Passion: A Universal Experience, William R Jankowiak examines how different cultures rationalize the expression of passionate and comfort love and physical sex. He begins by mapping out the intricacies of the love-sex conundrum and the psychological dilemma of reconciling these competing forces. He then follows with essays on sex, love and intimacy among Central African foragers and farmers, the love dyad in Lithuania, intimacy among the Lahu of Southwestern China, the interplay of love, sex and marriage in the High Himalayas, verbalized experiences of love and sexuality in Indonesia, love work as it relates to sex work among prostitutes, intimacies and estrangements in the marital and extramarital relationships of Huli men, infidelity and masculinity in Southwestern Nigeria and the ritual of sex and the rejuvenation of the love bond among married couples in the United States. Handbook on Ethnic Minorities in China, Xiaowei Zang, 2016-11-25. This much needed volume explains who ethnic minorities are and how well they do in China. In addition to offering general information about ethnic minority groups in China, it discusses some important issues around ethnicity including ethnic inequality, minority rights and multiculturalism. Drawing on insights and perspectives from scholars in different continents, the contributions provide critical reflections on where the field has been and where it is going, offering readers possible directions for future research on minority ethnicity in China. The Handbook reviews research and addresses key conceptual, theoretical and methodological issues in the study of ethnicity in China. ASIAN HIGHLANDS PERSPECTIVES 35, Various, 2014-12-30. Philip's Daughters Estrela Y. Alexander,Amos Yong,2009-01-01 This volume brings together twelve scholars from a variety of scholarly fields including biblical studies history theology sociology anthropology and missiology in a multi disciplinary exploration of themes related to women s leadership within the three branches of the renewal movement Holiness Pentecostal and Charismatic traditions These scholars women and men from both within and outside the traditions draw on various methodologies including hermeneutics ethnography critical theory and historical analysis to explore the experiences and contributions of women from the movement s inception to the present They keep before us the challenges that still impact women s full participation as equal partners in ministry and leadership on both the American and global scene The volume looks at the multiple roots of women s marginalization within the renewal movement while suggesting progressive solutions that take seriously the social locations of Pentecostal and Charismatic congregations and the theological foundations on which the movement has been built At the same time it locates these discussions within the broader postmodern realities facing the church as it attempts to faithfully live out its witness to the biblical truth that both male and female are created in the God s image and endowed with the capacity to work creatively toward the unfolding of the Kingdom Utopia and Neoliberalism Hana Horáková,Andrea Boscoboinik,Robin Smith,2018 This volume aims to unpack the uneasy relationship between utopia and rural spaces in the context of global pressures The ethnographies presented here offer a rich array of examples combining rural spaces utopian representations and neoliberal practices In attempting to reconcile the desire to preserve the traditional image of rural landscapes in the context of neoliberal practices that threaten the ideal of a rural utopia imaginaries appear as powerful devices for understanding the world and motivating action

Exotic No More Jeremy MacClancy, 2010-04-08 Since its founding in the nineteenth century social anthropology has been seen as the study of exotic peoples in faraway places But today more and more anthropologists are dedicating themselves not just to observing but to understanding and helping solve social problems wherever they occur in international aid organizations British TV studios American hospitals or racist enclaves in Eastern Europe for example In Exotic No More an initiative of the Royal Anthropological Institute some of today's most respected anthropologists demonstrate in clear unpretentious prose the tremendous contributions that anthropology can make to contemporary society They cover issues ranging from fundamentalism to forced migration child labor to crack dealing human rights to hunger ethnicity to environmentalism intellectual property rights to international capitalisms But Exotic No More is more than a litany of gloom and doom the essays also explore topics usually associated with leisure or high culture including the media visual arts tourism and music Each author uses specific examples from their fieldwork to illustrate their discussions and 62 photographs enliven the text Throughout the book the contributors highlight anthropology's commitment to taking people seriously on their own terms paying close attention to what they are saying and doing and trying to understand how they see the world and why Sometimes this bottom up perspective makes the strange familiar but it can also make the familiar strange exposing the cultural basis of seemingly natural behaviors and challenging us to rethink some of our most cherished ideas about gender free markets race and refugees among many others Contributors William O Beeman Philippe Bourgois John Chernoff E Valentine Daniel Alex de Waal Judith Ennew James Fairhead Sarah Franklin Michael Gilson Faye Ginsburg Alma Gottlieb Christopher Hann Faye V Harrison Richard Jenkins Melissa Leach Margaret Lock Jeremy MacClancy Jonathan Mazower Ellen Messer A David Napier Nancy Scheper Hughes Jane Schneider Parker Shipton Christopher B Steiner

The Woman Who Married the Bear Barbara Alice Mann, Kaarina Kailo, 2023 Stories of the primordial woman who married a bear appear in matriarchal traditions across the global North from Indigenous North America and Scandinavia to Russia and Korea In The Woman Who Married the Bear authors Barbara Alice Mann a scholar of Indigenous American culture and Kaarina Kailo who specializes in the cultures of Northern Europe join forces to examine these Woman Bear stories their common elements and their meanings in the context of matriarchal culture The authors reach back 35 000 years to tease out different threads of Indigenous Woman Bear traditions using the lens of bear spirituality to uncover the ancient matriarchies found in rock art caves ceremonies rituals and traditions Across cultures in the earliest known traditions women and bears are shown to collaborate through star configurations and winter cave dwelling symbolized by the spring awakening from hibernation followed by the birth of cubs By the Bronze Age however the story of the Woman Bear marriage had changed it had become a hunting tale refocused on the male hunter Throughout the book Mann and Kailo offer interpretations of this earliest known

Bear religion in both its original and its later forms Together they uncover the maternal cultural symbolism behind the bear marriage and the Original Instructions given by Bear to Woman on sustainable ecology and lifeways free of patriarchy and social stratification Enchanted Modernities Micah F. Morton,2025 Enchanted Modernities tells the story of an Indigenous community's work to decolonize and reclaim its collective ancestral identity In this rich theoretically informed ethnography Micah F Morton follows a transregional network of Indigenous Akha people from Thailand Myanmar Burma China and Laos as they spearhead a new movement for a pan Akha identity In the face of enormous historical and present day colonialist pressures this neo traditionalist movement has focused on revitalizing or vitalizing in Morton's suggestive term Akha ancestral ways preventing ongoing conversion to Christianity and facilitating return conversion to the ways of the Ancestors Morton focuses especially on the community's work to ensure their Ancestors live on and thus remain a dynamic part of their and their descendants' lives Although modernity and its colonial legacies are often portrayed as severing or at least attenuating people's ancestral ties Enchanted Modernities shows that those ties persist and in fact are on the rise Akha and other Indigenous ancestral and animist resurgences are blossoming despite the paradigmatic Western framing of modernity as fundamentally at odds with Ancestors and for that matter kinship and even religion Morton demonstrates that modernity and modernization proceed alongside the reproduction of new and old forms of enchantment A Handbook for Social Science Field Research Ellen Perelman, Sara R. updates the organization and presentation of cultural universals and cultural variations presents updated and enhanced discussions of anthropological studies of humankind and the environment with expanded analysis of industrial agriculture in the age of globalization includes more illustrations and updates to existing illustrations sidebars and guideposts throughout the volume is written in clear supple prose that delights readers while informing on content of one of the important courses in a liberal arts education one that effectively bridges humanities and the sciences Women in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium Ya-chen Chen, 2012-01-01 Women and Gender in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium by Ya chen Chen is an excavation of underexposed gender issues focusing mainly on contradictory and troubled feminism in the film narratives In the cinematic world of martial arts films one can easily find representations of women of Ancient China released from the constraints of patriarchal social order to revel in a dreamlike space of their own They can develop themselves protect themselves and even defeat or conquer men This world not only frees women from the convention of foot binding but it also unbinds them in terms of education critical thinking talent ambition opportunities to socialize with different men and the freedom or right to both choose their spouse and decide their own fate Chen calls this phenomenon Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The liberation is never sustaining or complete however Chen reveals the presence of a glass ceiling marking the maximal exercise of feminism and women s rights which the patriarchal order is willing to accept As such these films are not to be seen as celebrations of feminist liberation but as enunciations of the patriarchal authority that suffuses Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The film narratives under examination include Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon directed by Ang Lee Hero Zhang Yimou House of the Flying Daggers Zhang Yimou Seven Swords Tsui Hark The Promise Chen Kaige The Banquet Feng Xiaogang and Curst of the Golden Flower Zhang Yimou Chen also touches upon the plots of two of the earliest award winning Chinese martial arts films A Touch of Zen and Legend of the Mountain both directed by King Hu Social Behaviour of Children Ralph E. S. Tanner, 2007 Contents Acknowledgements 1 Introduction 2 Irregularity and Indistinct socialisation 3 Ethology and pro social behaviour 4 Anthropology and pro social behaviour 5 Social environments a typology 6 Methodology the difficulties of data collection 7 Language and pro social development 8 Change and the pro social behaviour of the growing child 9 Social and physical environmental variations affecting the growing child 10 Parental care and the scarcity of uniformities 11 Education 12 Anti social behaviour 13 Generational relations and pro social behaviour 14 The transition in moral development Bibliography Index The behaviour of children within ages defined in most countries without regard to biological maturity or social usefulness is often concentrated on their failure and the failure of their carers to conform to what their societies expect of them This study attempts to show that children and their carers are genetically and ethologically channelled into behaviour to support the small groups in which they live For most of our known global history children have been seen as economic social and status assets to these small groups and their value assessed in proportion to their eventual contribution as adults They are not taught to behave in contributory ways but are absorbed into their need to be useful in terms of all those with whom they associate Cross culturally the growth of individualism and the decline of usefulness of children for their parents have led to pro social behaviour being much reduced to immediate benefits to children and for the small group in which they spend less and less time Teaching children to be useful to an impersonal society in which they have little interest is an industry in modern states Perhaps our conclusion must be that children will only behave in ways that their society deems correct when they sense on their own that it is profitable to do so The ethical values which have historically maintained the necessary unity of the small group have faded with the growth of survival through secondary employment and state welfare provisions
