Choral Masterworks: A Listener's Guide Michael Steinberg, 2005-04-22 Michael Steinberg's highly successful listener's guides The Symphony and The Concerto have been universally praised for their blend of captivating biography, crystal clear musical analysis, and delightful humor. Now Steinberg follows these two greatly admired volumes with Choral Masterworks: A Listener's Guide, the only such guide available to this most popular of musical forms. Here are more than fifty illuminating essays on the classic choral masterworks ranging from Handel's Messiah, Bach's Mass in B Minor, and Beethoven's Missa Solemnis to works by Haydn, Brahms, Mendelssohn, and many others. Steinberg spans the entire history of classical music from such giants of the Romantic era as Verdi and Berlioz to leading modern composers such as Elgar, Rachmaninoff, Vaughan Williams, and Stravinsky to contemporary masters such as John Adams and Charles Wuorinen. For each piece, Steinberg includes a fascinating biographical account of the work's genesis, often spiced with wonderful asides such as the true story of Mozart's Requiem: Salieri had nothing to do with the composition of it, nor did he poison Mozart, who most likely died of rheumatic fever. The author also includes an astute musical analysis of each piece, one that casual music lovers can easily appreciate and that musicians and more serious fans will find invaluable. The book also includes basic information such as the various movements of the work, the organization of the chorus and orchestra, and brief historical notes on early performances. More than twenty million Americans perform regularly in choirs or choruses; Choral Masterworks will appeal not only to concertgoers and CD collectors but also to this vast multitude of choral performers, an especially engaged and active community.

Choral Monuments Dennis Shrock, 2017 Choral Monuments provides extensive material about eleven epoch-making choral masterworks that span the history of Western culture. Included are Missa Pange lingua (Josquin Desprez), Missa Papae Marcelli (G. P. da Palestrina), B Minor Mass (J. S. Bach), Messiah (G. F. Handel), The Creation (Joseph Haydn), Symphony 9 (Ludwig van Beethoven), St Paul Felix (Mendelssohn), Ein deutsches Requiem (Johannes Brahms), Messa da Requiem (Giuseppe Verdi), Mass (Igor Stravinsky), and War Requiem (Benjamin Britten). The works are presented in separate chapters, with each chapter divided into three basic sections: history, analysis, and performance practice. Discussions of history are focused on relevancies: the genesis of the designated work in reference to the composer's total choral output, the work's place within the musical environment, and social climate of its time, and essential features of the work that make it noteworthy. In addition, the compositional history addresses three other factors: the work's public reception and critical response both at the time of its composition and in ensuing years; the history of score publications, detailing the various differences between editions and the texts of the composition. The material regarding textual treatment, which often includes the complete texts of the works being discussed, concentrates on primary concerns of the text's usage. Also included in the discussion are noteworthy aspects of texts separate from the music, as well as biographical details of librettists and poets if appropriate. The analysis section of each chapter outlines and describes musical forms and other types of compositional organization, including parody technique, mirror structures, and motto repetitions, as well as salient compositional characteristics that directly relate and contribute to the work's artistic stature Numerous charts and musical examples illustrate the discussions The discussion of performance practices includes primary source quotations about a wide range of topics from performing forces tempo and phrasing of each work to specific issues such as tactus text underlay musica ficta metric accentuation and ornamentation
