Chretien Vol 1 The Will To Win:

Chrétien: The will to win Lawrence Martin, 1995 In the Long Run We're All Dead Timothy Lewis, 2007-10-01 In The Long Run We're All Dead The Canadian Turn to Fiscal Restraint offers the first comprehensive scholarly account of this vital public policy issue Lewis deftly analyzes the history of deficit finance from before Confederation through Canada's postwar Keynesianism to the retrenchment of the Mulroney and Chrétien years In doing so he illuminates how the political conditions for Ottawa's deficit elimination in the 1990s materialized after over 20 consecutive years in the red and how the decline of Canadian Keynesianism has made way for the emergence of politics organized around balanced budgets

Canada's Department of External Affairs, Volume 3 John Hilliker, Mary Halloran, Greg Donaghy, 2017-06-16 Volume three of the official history of Canada's Department of External Affairs offers readers an unparalleled look at the evolving structures underpinning Canadian foreign policy from 1968 to 1984 Using untapped archival sources and extensive interviews with top level officials and ministers the volume presents a frank insider's view of work in the Department its key personalities and its role in making Canada's foreign policy In doing so the volume presents novel perspectives on Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and the country's responses to the era's most important international challenges These include the October Crisis of 1970 recognition of Communist China UN peacekeeping decolonization and the North South dialogue the Middle East and the Iran Hostage crisis and the ever dangerous Cold War

Elusive Destiny Paul Litt, 2011-10-21 Going my way asked John Turner's campaign brochure in 1962 my way is the Liberal way It was that is until Pierre Trudeau came to power Turner was his party's star apprentice in the Liberal art of managing a heterogeneous nation through brokerage politics but in the 1968 election Canadians opted instead for a newly minted celebrity leader for a reimagined nation A political biography extraordinaire Elusive Destiny reveals the inner workings of the Liberal Party in its heyday as charted through the meteoric rise and fall of John Napier Turner It highlights Turner's vision for the country and tallies the political price he paid when he deviated from the Trudeau legacy on matters such as language rights social spending and Quebec It also provides a new perspective on federal politics from the 1960s through the 1980s while giving John Turner his rightful place in Canadian history

Women on the Defensive Sylvia B. Bashevkin, 1998-06-08 Bashevkin combines individual voices with policy initiatives to provide the first complete picture of the recent past and uncertain future of contemporary feminism BOOK JACKET A Justifiable Obsession P.E. Bryden, 2013-01-01 A Justifiable Obsession traces the evolution of Ontario's relationship with the federal government in the years following the Second World War Through extensive archival research in both national and provincial sources P E Bryden demonstrates that the province's successive Conservative governments played a crucial role in framing the national agenda although this central relationship has received little attention compared to those that have been more volatile As such Bryden's study sheds light on an important but largely ignored chapter in Canadian political history Bryden focuses on the politicians and strategists who guided the province through the negotiation of intergovernmental economic social and constitutional issues including tax policies the design of the new social welfare net and efforts to patriate the constitution Written in a lucid engaging style that captures the spirit of the politics of postwar Canada A Justifiable Obsession is a significant contribution to our understanding of Ontario's politics and political culture

The Pursuit of Division Martin Loney, 1998 The topic of equity policies and identity politics in Canada is at the forefront of public and media discussion and Martin Loney adds fuel to the fire In The Pursuit of Division he provides a provocative critique of recent government policies with respect to race gender and preferential hiring exposing the suspect methods of so called progressive thinkers in their pursuit of the politics of difference

Women's Work is Never Done Sylvia Bashevkin, 2013-09-13 First published in 2002 Social critics policy makers and the public in general frequently overlook the crucial status of women as the main recipients of welfare and as providers of paid and unpaid care The eight original essays in this collection remedy this situation By comparing welfare policy in advanced industrial countries and the welfare experiences of different populations of women black or white young and old with that of the male experience Sylvia Bashevkin and her contributors challenge the Moynihan report the conservative fatherhood movement and neoliberal philosophy politics and practice Women's Work is Never Done adds a new dimension to the important public discussion of women's status as citizens disparities in welfare reform and poverty in a globalized world

Canada Among Nations, 1997 Fen Osler Hampson, Maureen Appel Molot, Martin Rudner, 1997 Asia Pacific Face Off is the thirteenth in the Canada Among Nations series published by The Norman Paterson School of International Affairs In recognition of the government's designation of 1997 as Canada's Year of Asia Pacific the volume focuses on aspects of Canada's relations with the countries in this region During 1997 Canada will host the annual Leaders Meeting of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC forum and a number of apec ministerial meetings As many of our contributors suggest Canada has not yet acquired much of a presence in the Asia Pacific region and we have some distance to go before our status as an Asia Pacific nation is taken seriously by our APEC partners The high profile of Team Canada missions should not be mistakenly interpreted as evidence of concerted Canadian policy with respect to Asia Pacific In terms of educational or economic linkages with the countries of APEC Canada could take lessons from Australia a country whose policies our authors compare with Canada's Citizens Plus Alan C. Cairns, 2011-11-01 We are in the midst of a fundamental re evaluation of the desired relation of Aboriginal and non Aboriginal peoples to each other and of how the former are to be institutionally and constitutionally accommodated within Canada Words matter How we think about where we are and about the future goal of our relationship can confine us in an intellectual prison or liberate us from choices we will otherwise regret In Citizens Plus Alan Cairns unravels the historical record to clarify the current impasse in negotiations between Aboriginal peoples and the state He considers the assimilationist policy assumptions of the imperial era examines more recent government initiatives and analyzes the emergence of the nation to nation paradigm given massive support by the Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples We are battered by contending visions he argues a revised assimilation policy that finds its support in the Canadian Alliance Party is countered by the nation to nation vision which frames our future as coexisting solitudes Citizens Plus stakes out a middle ground with its support for constitutional and institutional arrangements which will simultaneously recognize Aboriginal difference and reinforce a solidarity which binds us together in common citizenship Essential reading for those in political science history Native studies public administration and law Citizens Plus will also appeal to the general public interested in one of the most important and complex issues on our agenda Selected as a BC Book for Everybody The Charter Debates Adam M. Dodek, 2018-01-01 The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms may only be thirty five years old but it is an important document for all Canadians Few today however are aware of the extensive work and tumultuous debates that occurred behind the scenes In The Charter Debates Adam Dodek tells the story of the Special Joint Committee of the Senate and the House of Commons on the Constitution whose members were instrumental in drafting the Charter Dodek places the work of the Joint Committee against the backdrop of the decades long process of patriation and takes the reader inside the committee room giving them access to Cabinet discussions about constitutional reform The volume offers a textual exploration of the edited proceedings concerning major Charter subjects such as fundamental freedoms democratic rights equality rights language rights and the limitations clause Presenting key moments from the transcripts carefully selected and contextualized The Charter Debates is a one of a kind resource for scholars students and general readers interested in the Charter and its impact on constitutional politics in Canada The Guardian Institute of Public Administration of Canada, 2011-01-01 Finance departments have often been portrayed as guardians of the public purse In The Guardian a multidisciplinary group of contributors examines the Ministry of Finance of Ontario since the Second World War During the last sixty years the Ministry was transformed from a relatively small Treasury to a sophisticated policy machine What started as a modest bookkeeping operation evolved into a key bureaucratic and policy agency as the government of Ontario assumed a leadership position in developing the province These essays reveal Ontario's finance as a dynamic policy issue shaped by the personalities of premiers and ministers the energies of public servants at all levels and a critical dialogue between political and administrative worlds Drawing on different methodologies this collection profiles a ministry as policy entrepreneur spender revenue generator capacity builder budget director program manager and intergovernmental agent The Guardian fills a significant gap in public administration literature and in so doing describes how Ontario's Ministry of Finance defined its role as guardian Canada Among Nations, 1997 Fen Hampson, 1997-08-15 Asia Pacific Face Off is the thirteenth in the Canada Among Nations series published by The Norman Paterson School of International Affairs In recognition of the government's designation of 1997 as Canada's Year of Asia Pacific the volume focuses on aspects of Canada's relations with the countries in this region During 1997 Canada will host the annual Leaders Meeting of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC forum and a number of apec ministerial meetings As many of our contributors suggest

Canada has not yet acquired much of a presence in the Asia Pacific region and we have some distance to go before our status as an Asia Pacific nation is taken seriously by our APEC partners The high profile of Team Canada missions should not be mistakenly interpreted as evidence of concerted Canadian policy with respect to Asia Pacific In terms of educational or economic linkages with the countries of APEC Canada could take lessons from Australia a country whose policies our authors compare with Canada's
