Christ In A Pluralistic Age:

Christ in a Pluralistic Age John B. Cobb, 1999-01-18 Preaching Christ in a Pluralistic Age Carl E. Braaten, 2011

Pluralism as such is not the enemy of the gospel. Preaching the Christian message will always encounter a world with many religions, world views, ideologies, and lifestyles. The earliest generation of Christians found themselves in a pluralistic situation. They were witnessing to Jews as well as to Greeks and Romans in the great melting pot of Hellenistic culture. Religious pluralism does pose a threat when it becomes an ideological dogma that asserts that all religions are equally valid and lead to the same goal. Proclaiming Christ in a Pluralistic Age J. I. Packer, 2024-02-06

5 Classic Lectures from J I Packer. Defending the Truth of the Gospel against Humanism, Universalism, and More. Christians today confront complex opposition to the gospel from intellectuals, skeptics, and pluralists who deny the divinity of Christ. But these are not new issues; the first-century church encountered similar challenges to their faith. How did the apostle Paul address these questions and doubts to effectively spread God's word? In these lectures, originally given at Reformed Bible College and Moore College in 1978, renowned theologian J I Packer tackles common objections to Christianity, including secular humanism, pluralism, and universalism. By studying the evangelistic efforts of Paul and the early church, Packer skillfully preaches the glory of Christ crucified and helps students, pastors, and believers share their faith in an age of skepticism. 5 Vintage Lectures Covering topics including Jesus's humanity and divinity, substitutionary atonement, and the truth of Christ's resurrection. A Great Resource for Pastors and Thoughtful Christians. Provides gospel-centered answers to different worldviews, including universalism, secular humanism, and pluralism. From J I Packer, Prolific theologian and bestselling author of Knowing God.

Christian Theology in a Pluralistic Age David H. Jensen, 2024-12-16. How does today's context of radical pluralism affect Christian theology? Can Christian theologians be claimed by more than one religious tradition? What makes constructive interreligious dialogue possible? The authors of this volume explore the challenges and opportunities of religious diversity and religious non-affiliation for Christian faith. By exploring the ways in which engagement of other traditions changes them, these theologians offer hopeful reflections for the church's dialogical future. The Gospel in a Pluralist Society Lesslie Newbigin, 1989-10-30. How does the gospel relate to a pluralist society? What is the Christian message in a society marked by religious pluralism, ethnic diversity, and cultural relativism? Should Christians encountering today's pluralist society concentrate on evangelism or on dialogue? How does the prevailing climate of opinion affect perhaps, infect Christians' faith? These kinds of questions are addressed in this noteworthy book by Lesslie Newbigin, a highly respected Christian leader and ecumenical figure. Newbigin provides a brilliant analysis of contemporary secular, humanist, pluralist culture and suggests how Christians can more confidently affirm their faith in such a context. While drawing from scholars such as Michael Polanyi, Alasdair MacIntyre, Hendrikus Berkhof, Walter Wink, and Robert Wuthnow, The Gospel in a Pluralist Society is suited not only to an academic readership. This heartfelt work by a missionary pastor and preacher also offers to Christian leaders and

The Trinity in a Pluralistic Age Kevin J. Vanhoozer,1996 This provocative collection of papers from an international array of theologians explores the Christian doctrine of the Trinity in the context of twentieth century cultural and religious pluralism How should Christians think about their faith in relation to other faiths and in relation to culture in general Can the Trinity fit into a global religion These essays originally presented at the Fifth Edinburgh Dogmatic Conference show how a full orb'd Trinitarian doctrine with a proper emphasis on both the One and the Three provides the necessary resources for successfully addressing the problems and the possibilities of contemporary pluralism Gary Badcock Richard Bauckham Henri Blocher Gerald Bray Colin Gunton Trevor Hart Lesslie Newbigin Roland Poupin Kevin J Vanhoozer Stephen Williams

Proclaiming Christ in a Pluralistic Age James Innell Packer,2024 In the first century church Paul defended the gospel against the intellectual assertions of his day Jews required signs Greeks sought wisdom and skeptics denied the dual nature of the God Man Jesus Christ Two thousand years later J I Packer pulled these same Christological weeds defending the truth of the gospel against kenosis secular humanism pluralism universalism and more How did Paul and Packer attack these invasive intellectual species They preached Christ crucified They told the story of the gospel the many stranded story of the eternal Son of God who died for sinners in the most wonderful exchange the world has ever seen No other name but Jesus no other truth but the Cross of Christ can save sinners in any age Christ and Reconciliation Veli-Matti

Krkkinen,2013-05-26 In Christ and Reconciliation Veli Matti Karkkainen develops a constructive Christology and theology of salvation in dialogue with the best of Christian tradition with contemporary theology in its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Karkkainen's Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World is a five volume project that aims to develop a new approach to and method of doing Christian theology in our pluralistic world at the beginning of the third millennium Topics such as diversity inclusivity violence power cultural hybridity and justice are part of the constructive theological discussion along with classical topics such as the messianic consciousness incarnation atonement and the person of Christ With the metaphor of hospitality serving as the framework for his discussion Karkkainen engages Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism in sympathetic and critical mutual dialogue while remaining robustly Christian in his convictions Never before has a full scale doctrinal theology been attempted in such a wide and deep dialogical mode

Deep Religious Pluralism David Ray Griffin,2005-01-01 A groundbreaking scholarly work Deep Religious Pluralism is based on the conviction that the philosophy articulated by Alfred North Whitehead encourages not only religious diversity but deep religious pluralism Arising from a 2003 Center for Process Studies conference at Claremont Graduate University this book offers an alternative to the version of religious pluralism that has dominated the recent discussion especially among

Christian thinkers in the West which has evoked a growing call to reject pluralism as such. Renowned contributors of a diversity of faiths include Steve Odin, John Shunji Yakota, Sandra B. Lubarsky, Jeffery D. Long, Mustafa Ruzgar, Christopher Ives, Michael Lodahl, Chung-ying Cheng, Wang Shik Jang, and John B. Cobb Jr. John Hick's Pluralist Philosophy of World Religions Paul R. Eddy, 2015-06-22. According to John Hick's model of religious pluralism, all the world's great religions present equally valid ways of understanding and responding to the same ultimate Reality. This book offers an exposition of and critical response to Hick's model. Following an introductory chapter that surveys dominant approaches to religious diversity, the rise and development of Hick's pluralist interpretation of religions is traced. Finally, a critical assessment of Hick's mature pluralist model is offered. The conclusion: Hick's model is ultimately unsuccessful in overcoming the pluralist's most difficult conceptual problem, namely, providing an adequate account of the fact that the world's religions understand the divine Reality in often contradictory ways. Ultimately, Hick's own solution threatens two of his long-cherished goals: a robust religious realism and a tradition-neutral religious pluralism. God, Mystery, Diversity Gordon D. Kaufman, 1996-01-01. In this frank and stimulating book, senior theologian Kaufman lays out in brief compass his historicist approach to Christian theology and central Christian mysteries, especially as they impinge on today's radically pluralistic religious and cultural scene and the moral challenges presented globally by it. God and Humanity in Auschwitz Donald J. Dietrich, 2009-08-01. God and Humanity in Auschwitz synthesizes the findings of research developed over the last thirty years on the rise of anti-Semitism in our civilization. Donald J. Dietrich sees the Holocaust as a case study of how prejudice has been theologically enculturated. He suggests how it may be controlled by reducing aggressive energy before it becomes overwhelming. Dietrich studies the recent responses of Christian theologians to the Holocaust and the Jewish theological response to questions concerning God's covenant with Israel, which were provoked by Auschwitz. Social science has dealt with the psychosocial dynamics that have supported genocide and helps explain how ordinary persons can produce extraordinary evil. Dietrich shows how this research combined with theological analyses can help reconfigure theology itself. Such an approach may serve to help dissolve anti-Semitism, to aid in constructing such positive values as respect for human dignity, and to point the way to restricting future outbreaks of genocide. God and Humanity in Auschwitz surveys which religious factors created a climate that permitted the Holocaust. It also illuminates what social science has to tell us about developing a strategy that, when institutionally implemented, can channel our energies away from sanctioned murder toward a more compassionate society. The book has proven to be an essential resource for theologians, sociologists, historians, and political theorists. Christian Theology and Religious Pluralism David S. Nah, 2013-01-31. While much has been written analyzing the philosophical basis of Hick's pluralism, very little attention has been devoted to the theological foundations of his argument. Filling this gap, this book examines Hick's theological attempts to systematically deconstruct the church's traditional incarnational Christology. Special attention is given to evaluating Hick's foundational theses. Christianity and Religious

Plurality Wilbert R. Shenk, Richard J. Plantinga, 2016-10-11 Over the past two centuries the Christian faith has spread to all continents Although more global than ever Christians are religious minorities in most societies Religious freedom is hardly universal In the past fifty years millions of people have been uprooted from their traditional homelands in Asia Africa and Latin America Some have emigrated to Western Europe and North America The West has become the scene of cultural linguistic and religious variety on a scale unimagined in 1900 Today the full range of faiths and religious practices from all continents are present in Europe and North America Christians are challenged to come to terms with this changed situation These developments have intensified religious plurality Christians all over the world are being urged to understand and engage with this new situation This volume highlights this new reality and specifies some sources for engagement not least among them the Judeo Christian scriptures fundamental to all Christianities that emerged out of religious plural contexts On the basis of their faith in the Triune God disclosed in this text all followers of Jesus Christ must interact with these opportunities in today's radically context sensitive world

Postmodern Philosophy and Christian Thought Merold Westphal, 1999-11-22 Are postmodern philosophy and Christian thought so diametrically opposed that never the twain shall meet Or are various postmodern philosophies in spite of their secular provenance open to religious appropriation These thirteen lively original essays awaken secular postmodernisms and various modes of Christian thinking from their ideological complacency An open space for passionate dialogue emerges from conversations that powerfully engage both intellectual and religious points of view

Searching for an Adequate God David Ray Griffin, 2000 In this book advocates of both process and free will theism come together for the first time to describe their respective theological perspectives and enter into constructive dialogue with each other Featuring two of today's best philosophers David R Griffin representing process theology and William Hasker representing free will theism as well as theologians interested in both views this volume provides a fully orbited discussion of these two vital theological positions

Pluralism Chester Gillis, 1993 Methodologically Gillis suggests that Christian theology be constructed not only with an awareness of but also using the data of other religions Theologically he defends the position of pluralism and investigates the implications of this for soteriology christology and ethics As practical theology he offers suggestions for the conduct of interreligious dialogue on the local level Chester Gillis is assistant professor theology at Georgetown University He holds a Licentiate degree in Philosophy and the M A in Religious Studies from the Catholic University of Leuven His Ph D in Theology is from the Divinity School of the University of Chicago He is author of A Question of Final Belief
