Christ In Context:

Christ and Context Hilary Regan, Alan J. Torrance, 2016-10-06 There is a growing awareness of cultural diversity and plurality on the one hand and shared responsibility for our planet on the other. The sense of cultural identity exposes the wealth and richness of our heritage but also introduces its risks like the proliferation of often violent independence and separatist movements. A sense of shared responsibility represents the hope to avoid ecological catastrophe and highlights the problems of inequality, poverty and suffering. Is our understanding of cultures and contexts affected or even dramatically transformed by our perception of Christ and Trinitarian theology? This series of essays addresses the issues of cultural plurality and diversity, poverty, sexist and racist oppression and ecological crisis and aims to discuss the place of Christ in our understanding of human contextuality. Authors include Gustavo Guti rrez, J rgen Moltmann, Johann Metz, Janet Martin Soskice and John de Gruchy.

The Historical Jesus in Context Amy-Jill Levine, Dale C. Allison, John Dominic Crossan, 2024-11-01 This anthology presents a broad range of primary sources and expert commentary that contextualize the historical Jesus in his world. This landmark volume places the gospel narratives in their full literary, social and archaeological context. More than twenty-five internationally recognized experts offer new translations and descriptions of texts that shed new light on the Jesus of history, including pagan prayers and private inscriptions, miracle tales and martyrdoms, parables and fables, divorce decrees and imperial propaganda. The translated materials from Christian, Coptic and Jewish as well as Greek, Roman and Egyptian texts extend beyond single phrases to encompass the full context, thus allowing readers to locate Jesus in a broader cultural setting than is usually made available. This book demonstrates that only by knowing the world in which Jesus lived and taught can we fully understand him, his message and the spread of the Gospel. Gathering material that was previously available only in disparate sources, this formidable book provides innovative insight into matters no less grand than first-century Jewish and Gentile life, the composition of the Gospels and Jesus himself.

Jesus in Context Darrell L. Bock, Gregory J. Herrick, 2005-09 Gathers key extra-biblical writings that provide the necessary background for Gospel passages in one handy volume.

The Cross in Our Context Douglas John Hall, 2003 In this small gem of theological reflection, North America's foremost theologian of the cross offers a profound and compelling contemplation on the relevance of the church's most fundamental confession. Hall ponders what confessing Jesus as crucified means in today's context, one that is postmodern, pluralistic, multicultural and in some respects post-Christian. A digest of his monumental trilogy, this book lays out in brief compass the heart of Hall's theology of the cross, contrasting it sharply with the theology of established Christianity, showing how it reframes classical Christology and soteriology and drawing the implications for what it means to be human for Christian ethics and for the church.

Communicating Christ in Animistic Contexts Gailyn Van Rheenen, 1991 Whether in New Age mysticism, occultism, Haitian voodooism, Chinese ancestor veneration or Japanese Shintoism, animistic beliefs are widespread even today. Gailyn Van Rheenen presents a rigorous biblical, theological and anthropological foundation for ministering in animistic contexts Early Christian Families in Context David L. Balch, Carolyn Osiek, 2003 Typical studies of marriage and family in the early Christian period focus on very limited evidence found in Scripture This interdisciplinary book offers a broader richer picture of the first Christian families by drawing together research by experts ranging from archaeologists to ancient historians By exploring the nature of households in the ancient Greco Roman world the contributors assemble a new understanding of ancient Christian families that is both compelling and instructive Divided into six parts the book covers key aspects of ancient family life from meals and child rearing to women s roles and the lives of slaves Three concluding chapters explore the implications of all this information for theological education today Contributors David L Balch Suzanne Dixon J Albert Harrill Ross S Kraemer Christian Laes Peter Lampe Amy Jill Levine Margaret Y MacDonald Dale Martin Eric M Meyers Margaret M Mitchell Carolyn Osiek Beryl Rawson Richard Saller Timothy F Sedgwick Monika Trummer Andrew Wallace Hadrill You Belong to Christ J. Brian Tucker, 2011-01-01 You Belong to Christ explores the way that the Apostle Paul sought to form the social identity of one of his most important Christ following communities It sheds light on the way various social identities function within the Pauline community and provides guidance concerning the social implications of the gospel Drawing from contemporary social identity theories as well as ancient source material J Brian Tucker describes the way 1 Corinthians 1 4 forms social identity in its readers so that what results is an alternative community with a distinct ethos in contrast to the Roman Empire and its imperial ideology This book contends that previous identities are not obliterated in Christ but maintain their fundamental significance and serve to further the Pauline mission by means of social integration Providing a comprehensive survey of Christian identity in Pauline studies as well as an interesting look into the material remains of Roman Corinth this volume provides a social scientific reading of 1 Corinthians 1 4 and argues that Paul s strategy was to form salient in Christ social identity in those to whom he wrote The Christian Programme Joseph Pathrapankal, 2005-05-16 What does it mean to be a Christian in our times in a world come of age where Christians all over the world have to face the challenge posed by religious pluralism and secular humanism and even the challenge of a so called religionless Christianity in a postmodern era Answers to this question can be varied and all of them point to something more crucial and radical This basic question is to be approached from an equally radical answer given by Jesus of Nazareth in the Sermon on the Mount Matt 5 1 7 29 wherein we get the blueprint of an authentic programme of life for all humans The theological and pastoral study of this major discourse of Jesus highlights the parameters of a responsible and committed life Chinese Church in Context Grace Kwan Sik Tsoi, Philip Chia, 2025-09-24 Chinese Church in Context Voices from Downunder offers an insightful exploration of the Chinese Christian experience in Australia This compelling anthology features contributions from nine scholars who examine the intricate relationship between faith culture and identity within Chinese Australian churches From historical overviews to contemporary challenges the book addresses crucial topics such as contextualization cultural conflicts and the interaction between Christianity and Chinese traditions Readers will discover invaluable insights into issues faced by Chinese churches in Australia including the effects of ongoing immigration the relevance of biblical narratives for Australian Chinese Christians and the delicate balance between indigenization and syncretism Each chapter provides a unique perspective tackling subjects like the theology of conservative Evangelicals the significance of politics in diasporic communities and the implications of necromancy in biblical texts With its diverse range of topics and expert contributors this volume serves as an essential resource for scholars pastors and anyone interested in the dynamic landscape of Chinese Christianity in Australia today Dive into this rich tapestry of voices and discover how faith is being redefined in a new cultural context Explorations in Christian Theology and Ethics Michelle J.

Bartel,2016-04-22 Engaging variously with the legacy of Paul L Lehmann these essays argue for a reorientation in Christian theology that better honours the formative power of the gospel to animate and shape doctrine and witness as well as ethical and political life The authors explore key themes in Christian theology and ethics forgiveness discernment responsibility spirituality the present day tasks of theology and the role of faith in public life making plain the unabated importance of Lehmann s work at this juncture in contemporary theology The internationally recognized contributors draw crucial connections between the gospel of reconciliation the form of Christian theology and witness and the challenges of contemporary ethical and political reflection This book demonstrates why this close friend of Dietrich Bonhoeffer and author of Ethics in a Christian Context and The Transfiguration of Politics continues to influence generations of theologians in both the English speaking world and beyond The Lord's Prayer in the Ghanaian Context Michael Wandusim,2021-10-25

This study explores the reception history of the Lord s Prayer in the Ghanaian context After presenting the current state of research in the Lord s Prayer from an exegetical perspective this book discusses a wide field of hermeneutical approaches such as inculturation biblical hermeneutics mother tongue biblical hermeneutics African feminist biblical hermeneutics liberation biblical hermeneutics and post colonial biblical hermeneutics Taking the discussions of these approaches together it was realised that the general hermeneutical setting in Ghana and Africa as whole is reader centred i e the readers play an active role in the hermeneutical process and the results of the hermeneutical process are aimed at the readers contexts and the transformation of those contexts The Gospel in the Western Context Gert-Jan Roest,2018-10-02

In The Gospel in the Western Context Gert Jan Roest focuses on discerning a Western contextual gospel an endeavour that is very relevant to the current state of Christianity in the postmodern and post Christendom West After giving an in depth analysis and synthesis of how Hendrikus Berkhof and Colin Gunton read the Western context and contextualize their Christology he develops a gospel centred model for reading the context Meanwhile he makes a creative and much needed attempt to connect the two disciplines of systematic theology and missiology and convincingly shows that both disciplines cannot only enrich one another but also can give church practitioners insight and wisdom for their tasks Christ in Context Eugene

TeSelle,1975 New Horizons in Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton,1992 This book explores the rapidly growing interdisciplinary area of hermeneutics and its significance for biblical studies combining wide fundamental rigorous and creative theoretical concerns with practical questions about how we read biblical texts

Trinity in Unity in Christian-Muslim Relations Risto Jukko,2007 Through a systematic analysis of official Vatican documents this book shows that the Trinitarian basis of recent Roman Catholic theology of religions has led the Church to adopt a dialectical attitude towards Islam

The Christian Message as Vision and Mission Santiago Sia,2017-08-21 With all the messages that come our way through social media and in sophisticated gadgets does the Christian message of love hope and redemption still have an importance and relevance What does it have to offer to enable us to meet the various challenges which beset present day living Today there is an even greater and more urgent need to focus on it After all the Christian message is not merely information because it is also about a way of life Neither is it simply an exhortation since it also presents a definite goal This book provides some philosophical considerations which underpin its central teaching While aware of its richness and complexity the essays concentrate on the Christian message insofar as it provides a vision for humanity and articulates a mission to implement it The book serves to establish points of encounter rather than points of departure in order to contribute to the ongoing reflection by those who believe in that message as well as to the debates with those who oppose it

The Dissenting Tradition in American Education James C. Carper,Thomas C. Hunt,2007 During the mid nineteenth century Americans created the functional equivalent of earlier state religious establishments Supported by mandatory taxation purportedly inclusive and vested with messianic promise public schooling like the earlier established churches was touted as a bulwark of the Republic and as an essential agent of moral and civic virtue As was the case with dissenters from early American established churches some citizens and religious minorities have dissented from the public school system what historian Sidney Mead calls the country s established church They have objected to the orthodoxy of the public school compulsory taxation and attempts to abolish their schools or bring them into conformity with the state school paradigm The Dissenting Tradition in American Education recounts episodes of Catholic and Protestant nonconformity since the inception of public education including the creation of Catholic and Protestant schools homeschooling conflicts regarding regulation of nonconforming schools and controversy about the propositions of knowledge and dispositions of belief and value sanctioned by the state school Such dissent suggests that Americans consider disestablishing the public school and ponder means of education more suited to their confessional pluralism and commitments to freedom of conscience parental liberty and educational justice

Pentecostal Preaching and Ministry in Multicultural and Post-Christian Canada Steven M. Studebaker,2019-11-07 Over the past forty years Canada has become an increasingly secular multicultural and religiously plural society Indeed the church in Canada and Pentecostals in particular face a challenging context for responding to the call to bear witness to Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit Like the disciples on the day of Pentecost however we need the Holy Spirit to come upon us and liberate us from our post Christian pessimism We need the Holy Spirit to enable us to proclaim the gospel to the nations people that are no longer at the ends of the earth but making their home in Canada This book engages this new context and considers and proposes ways that pentecostal Christians and churches can respond to the challenges of the increasingly post Christian multicultural secular and religiously plural context of Canadian society A Sociology of Mystic Practices Dann Wigner,2018-06-08 This book investigates the process of spiritual borrowing between the emergent church EC and the Christian mystical tradition From its inception the EC has displayed interest in mystic practices but the exact nature of this interest or how these practices are appropriated and reinterpreted in the EC context has not been researched My research shows that the emergent church is appropriating Christian mystic practices by investing these practices with their own theological content The practices themselves are changed to fit in their new context showing that EC belief shapes EC behavior My study adds a new case study perspective to the sociological examination of the process of spiritual borrowing especially through close inspection of how a spiritual practice changes to fit a new theological context Additionally my book contributes to the study of the complex relationship between belief and behavior PAUL'S LETTER TO THE HEBREWS Edward D. Andrews,2023-10-29 Dive into a profound exploration of Paul s Letter to the Hebrews with this mammoth 533 page commentary the 16th volume of the esteemed CPH New Testament Commentary Series Authored by the notable Bible scholar Edward D Andrews this work meticulously dissects the apostolic message offering readers a deep comprehensive understanding of its theological significance Beginning with a detailed introduction to set the stage each chapter meticulously unpacks the rich tapestry of Paul s teachings From the supremacy of God s Son to the high priestly ministry of Jesus from faith s champions to the final exhortations every chapter is thoughtfully explored accompanied by insightful commentaries Not only does Andrews provide clarifying context to complex subjects but he also addresses common Bible difficulties associated with each chapter offering concrete examples and analogies to deepen understanding This commentary stands out for its objective approach rooted in the Historical Grammatical method of interpretation Its literal Bible chronology and preference for the UASV translation ensure that readers receive an accurate straightforward account of Paul s words Beyond merely discussing the scriptural text the work bridges the gap between ancient teachings and modern readers providing a timeless message of faith endurance and God s unwavering promise With its visual aids and structured layout this book is an essential resource for anyone yearning to delve deeper into the heart of the New Testament Whether you re a theologian pastor student or simply a Bible enthusiast Paul s Letter to the Hebrews CPH New Testament Commentary promises to be a valuable addition to your library illuminating the path to deeper faith and understanding
