Bates, Nathan Nunn, James Robinson, 2014-08-11 Why has Africa remained persistently poor over its recorded history Has Africa always been poor What has been the nature of Africa's poverty and how do we explain its origins This volume takes a necessary interdisciplinary approach to these questions by bringing together perspectives from archaeology linguistics history anthropology political science and economics Several contributors note that Africa's development was at par with many areas of Europe in the first millennium of the Common Era Why Africa fell behind is a key theme in this volume with insights that should inform Africa's developmental strategies African Textiles Today Chris Spring, 2012-10-09 African Textiles Today illustrates how African history is read told and recorded in cloth All artifacts or works of art hold within them stories that range far beyond the time of their creation or the lifetime of their creator and African textiles are patterned with these hidden histories In Africa cloth may be used to memorialize or commemorate something an event a person a political cause which in other parts of the world might be written down in detail or recorded by a plaque or monument History in Africa can be read told and recorded in cloth Making and trading numerous types of cloth have been vital elements in African life and culture for at least two millennia linking different parts of the continent with each other and the rest of the world Africa s long engagement with the peoples of the Mediterranean and the islands of the Atlantic and Indian Oceans provides a story of change and continuity African Textiles Today shows how ideas techniques materials and markets have adapted and flourished and how the dynamic traditions in African textiles have provided inspiration for the continent s foremost contemporary artists and photographers With a concluding chapter discussing the impact of African designs across the world the book offers a fascinating insight into the living history of Africa African Art in Detail Christopher Spring,2009 This book opens with the question What is African art The answer is a brilliantly colorful and detailed look at the myriad materials and genres forms and meanings cultural contexts and expressions that comprise artistic traditions across this vast and varied continent Viewing artworks in their contexts ancient and modern urban and rural western and eastern decorative and functional the book is nothing less than a virtual tour of African culture Masks textiles royal art sculpture ceramics tools and weapons in each instance the book features examples that reveal the most significant aspects of workmanship materials and design in objects of wood stone ivory clay metalwork featherwork leather basketwork and cloth Photographs of each piece alongside close ups of fine details afford new views of these works and allow for intriguing comparisons between seemingly unrelated objects and media The featured details evoke the hand and eye of the most accomplished craftspeople across Africa past and present In sum these photographs along with Chris Spring s enlightening commentary offer an experience of African art that is at once broad and deep richly informed and intimately felt They are at the same time a kaleidoscopic view of art from prehistory to gestures prefiguring the future African Mind, Culture, and Technology Yamikani Ndasauka,2024-07-01 This book provides a philosophical investigation of technology in Africa articulating conceptual foundations and analyses rooted in African worldviews and communitarian values It aims to spur discourse and understanding of how technology can be justly shaped for human advancement in Africa Yamikani Ndasauka highlights the need to understand African conceptions of existence ethics and values as foundations for envisioning more humanistic technological applications A historical contextualisation traces the layered origins of African technology philosophy in indigenous innovation resistant adaptation of external systems and creative fusion of endogenous and exogenous knowledge The book develops African frameworks to assess and design technology in accord with human dignity and collective advancement The Underneath of Things Mariane C. Ferme,2001-09-14 Researched with unusual sensitivity original in approach illuminating beyond its immediate geographical and theoretical referents and written in a style that is both carefully crafted and eminently accessible this is the work of a remarkably talented observer and scholar Jane Guyer editor of Money Matters Instability Values and Social Payments in the Modern History of West African Communities former president of the African Studies Association The world is currently quite aware of Sierra Leone and its predicament and it needs this well informed and beautifully written account of what makes the country so wonderful despite its woes Ferme's work is truly transcendent capturing magnificently well some of the most important aspects of an otherwise difficult ethnographic case It is a truthful and honest piece of work based on a deep grasp of the ethnographer's craft Paul Richards author of Fighting for the Rain Forest War Youth and Resources in Sierra Leone Ferme is a true master in the magic of things She gives the study of secrecy new impetus by examining its history relating that history not only to discourse but also to material conditions She brilliantly shows how for Sierra Leone societies the celebration of ambiguity has been a way to live with permanent danger from the long history of slavery through the present civil war Peter Geschiere author of The Modernity of Witchcraft Politics and the Occult in Postcolonial Africa The Underneath of Things is a model of patience detailed observation and elegant writing a theoretically creative study that is keen to track and to disentangle the webs and flows of everyday life Achille Mbembe author of On the Postcolony The Study of Dress History Lou Taylor, 2002-05-03 Over the past ten years the study of dress history has finally broken free of the shackles that have held it back and is now benefiting from new multidisciplinary approaches and practices which draw on material culture art history ethnography and cultural studies This book focuses on the development of these new methods to be found within the field of dress history and dress studies and assesses the current condition and future directions of the subject Salaula Karen Tranberg Hansen, 2000-08 When we donate our unwanted clothes to charity we rarely think about what will happen to them who will sort and sell them and finally who will revive and wear them In this fascinating look at the multibillion dollar secondhand clothing business Karen Tranberg Hansen takes us around the world from the West where clothing is donated through the salvage houses in North America and Europe where it is sorted and compressed to Africa in this case Zambia There it enters the dynamic world of Salaula a Bemba term that means to rummage through a pile Essential for the African economy the secondhand clothing business is wildly popular to the point of threatening the indigenous textile industry But Hansen shows wearing secondhand clothes is about much more than imitating Western styles It is about taking a garment and altering it to something entirely local something that adheres to current cultural norms of etiquette By unraveling how these garments become entangled in the economic political and cultural processes of contemporary Zambia Hansen also raises provocative questions about environmentalism charity recycling and thrift Design and Tradition in an India-West Africa Trade Textile Hazel Ann Lutz, 2003 Story Harold Scheub, 1998-10-01 What is the essence of story How does the storyteller convey meaning Leading scholar Harold Scheub tackles these questions and more demonstrating that the power of story lies in emotion While others have focused on the importance of structure in the art of story Scheub emphasizes emotion He shows how an expert storyteller uses structural elements image rhythm and narrative to shape a story's fundamental emotional content The storyteller uses traditional images repetition and linear narrative to move the audience past the story's surface of morals and ideas and make connections to their past present and future To guide the audience on this emotional journey is the storyteller's art The traditional stories from South African Xhosa and San cultures included in the book lend persuasive support to Scheub's These stories speak for themselves demonstrating that a skilled performer can stir emotions despite the obstacles of space time and culture

Pathways to Alternative Epistemologies in Africa Adeshina Afolayan, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, 2021-01-04 This volume investigates alternative epistemological pathways by which knowledge production in Africa can proceed The contributors using different intellectual dynamics explore the existing epistemological dominance of the West from architecture to gender discourse from environmental management to democratic governance and offer distinct and unique arguments that challenge the denigration of the different and differing modes of knowing that the West considered barbaric and primitive This volume therefore constitutes a minimal gesture that further contributes to the ongoing discourse on alternative modes of knowing in Africa

Anthropology and the Individual Daniel

Miller, 2009-12-15 This study demonstrates how methods of social analysis can be applied to the individual while remaining entirely distinct from psychology and other perspectives on the person Contributors have drawn on approaches from material culture to create analytical portraits of individuals

Islamic Art in the 19th Century Doris Behrens-Abouseif, Stephen

Vernoi, 2006 This collection of essays provides a timely reassessment of nineteenth century Islamic art and architecture The essays demonstrate that the arts of that era were vibrant and diverse making ingenious use of native traditions and materials or adopting imported conventions and new technologies However traditionalists revivalists and modernists all referred in one way or another to an Islamic heritage whether to reinvent revive or reject it Beginning with an historical introduction and an assessment of changing attitudes towards the visual arts the following essays provide case studies of architecture and art in

Ottoman Turkey Egypt Morocco sub Saharan Africa Iran Central Asia India and the Caribbean They examine such issues as patronage sources of artistic inspiration and responses to European art The essays have a relevance and importance for our understanding of the societies and attitudes of that time and have a direct bearing on the more general debate concerning cultural identity and the integration of modern ideas in the Muslim world The book is richly illustrated with very many illustrations in black and white and in full colour Establishing Dress History Lou Taylor, 2004-05-07 Establishing Dress History will appeal not only to students and academics but all those those with an interest in the history of dress and fashion The title fuses together two areas of current academic interest dress design and history and current museum studies approaches
