Art of the Christian World Rizzoli editore, 1982* World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) ,2001 Nelson's Dictionary of Christianity Thomas Nelson, 2001-03-21 This dictionary provides definitions for over 7 000 terms and names in the history of Christianity The topics range from the foundational theological developments of the early church to the divisions of the Protestant Reformation to the missionary enterprises of the last two centuries Nelson's Dictionary of Christianity is an essential resource for anyone who wants to know more about how Christians have lived built the church and worked to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ around the world Images, Iconoclasm, and the Carolingians Thomas F. X. Noble, 2012-02-25 In the year 726 C E the Byzantine emperor Leo III issued an edict declaring images to be idols forbidden by Exodus and ordering all such images in churches to be destroyed Thus commenced the first wave of Byzantine iconoclasm which ran its violent course until 787 when the underlying issues were temporarily resolved at the Second Council of Nicaea In 815 a second great wave of iconoclasm was set off only to end in 842 when the icons were restored to the churches of the East and the iconoclasts excommunicated The iconoclast controversies have long been understood as marking major fissures between the Western and Eastern churches Thomas F X Noble reveals that the lines of division were not so clear It is traditionally maintained that the Carolingians in the 790s did not understand the basic issues involved in the Byzantine dispute Noble contends that there was in fact a significant Carolingian controversy about visual art and if its ties to Byzantine iconoclasm were tenuous they were also complex and deeply rooted in central concerns of the Carolingian court Furthermore he asserts that the Carolingians made distinctive and original contributions to the whole debate over religious art Images Iconoclasm and the Carolingians is the first book to provide a comprehensive study of the Western response to Byzantine iconoclasm By comparing art texts with laws letters poems and other sources Noble reveals the power and magnitude of the key discourses of the Carolingian world during its most dynamic and creative decades Visions of Truth Mara Lief Crabtree, 2023-11-30 This book is the first ever written on the meaning and value of using art forms in the ministry of spiritual direction The use of art by spiritual directors has the capacity to deepen understanding and enrich the full experience of spiritual direction Included are the biblical theological and very practical aspects related to the use of art how these truths are expressed in various genres of art and in ways that bring depth of knowledge wisdom and guidance in understanding one's relationship with God and others as well as the possibilities for further growth and maturity in those relationships The text is written for spiritual directors their mentors and supervisors and for those receiving the ministry of direction It provides encouragement and is instructive for all those desiring to increase their knowledge understanding and level of experience in the profound opportunities for individuals spiritual formation conformation and transformation in the ministry of spiritual direction Studying Christianity William H. Brackney, 2010-04-01 An introduction to the study of Christian foundations scripture community religious values theology ethics and much more The Bible and the Holy

Ross, 2003-06-30 In the first volume of the Artists of an Era series Leslie Ross examines the identities of artists attributed to the most famous and influential works of medieval art These works are much discussed within the realm of art history yet the identities of medieval artists fall victim to incomplete historical records and often remain enigmatic In ten narrative chapters Ross examines this significant area of the art world including architecture iconography metalwork scribe work sculpture even medieval art instruction and summarizes the lives and work of that genre s leading artist or artists Students will learn not only what is factually known of an artist s life as well as what is purely speculative but also the processes used to gather the information and fuel speculation Readers will also gain unique insights into the practices and traditions of medieval art and the role it played within medieval society A timeline chapter bibliographies a list of further resources on medieval art and an index offer additional tools to students of medieval art and art history National Union Catalog , 1982 The Biblical Archaeologist George Ernest Wright, 1983 Medieval Art Leslie D. Ross, 1996-11-14 Designed as a quick reference source to the topics symbols themes and stories most frequently found in early Christian western medieval and Byzantine art this work describes topics that include names and narratives drawn from the Bible and apocrypha the lives of saints and numerous other textual sources Authors whose works were frequently illustrated or who were influential on the visual arts are treated as are selected art historical terms and events of significance for the arts Cross references alert readers to alternate titles and related topics and the majority of entries cite a pictorial example These are keyed to standard texts for easy viewing access The dictionary begins with Aaron and ends with Zoomorphic Decoration This dictionary focuses on the medieval period and the distinctive ways in which the subjects and symbols referenced in the work evolved and developed during the Middle Ages resulting in a unique overview of the evolution development popularity and transformations that took place in medieval artistic iconography The introduction provides chronological thematic and bibliographic surveys to supplement the 500 individual entries the bibliography directs the readers to more detailed studies The work also includes names and topics not always found in art reference sources for example authors whose works were frequently illustrated or who were influential on the visual arts and historical events of significance for the arts Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Saint Judas, Apostle and Martyr Kathryn Eberle Wildgen,2000 Between 1125 and 1135 it is generally agreed a sculptor of genius usually referred to as Gislebertus carved a tympanum and a series of capitals for the cathedral dedicated to Saint Lazarus at Autun The capital depicting the suicide of Judas is unique in the Romanesque repertoire both for its beauty of technique and for its execution of subject matter The iconography is at once baffling and rich in possibilities of interpretation which extend far beyond a simple image of a hanged man One of the possibilities explored is that this is an image of a man realizing in extremis that he could and should have been remembered throughout history as Saint Judas Apostle and Martyr rather than as the paradigmatic traitor There are objects in the image that demand and receive explanations albeit tentative the protuberance on Judas back the strap from which he is hanging the position of his hands and feet The interpretation is set firmly in its historical period but the image is also discussed as an object whose significance transcends the time and the place in which it was conceived and produced
