,1939 Rogue River Journal John Daniel,2005-04-14 In November of 2000, after the presidential election but before the final results had been handed down by the Supreme Court, John Daniel climbed into his pickup, drove to a remote location in Oregon's Rogue River Canyon, and quit civilization. The strictures were severe: with no two-way human communication, not even with his wife and no radio, no music, not even his cat. He would isolate himself in a cabin, sure to be snowed in soon after his arrival, intent on hearing no human voice but his own until spring thawed the road. This experiment in solitude was an attempt to clarify his identity while pursuing daily life without the distractions of the world at large. Daniel had spent a week or two alone before, but this would be an entirely new challenge, and as he drove off into the mountains, he felt a fear-tinged freedom. Rogue River Journal chronicles his journey in solitude, a season of memory, and his search for a coherent place to stand on the earth. Mastery of the Wild Barrett Williams,ChatGPT,2024-04-22 Immerse yourself in the art of survival
