Performance Art in Portugal Cláudia Madeira, 2023-12-14 This book explores histories which have only recently been rediscovered by artists and researchers This study explores the history of Portuguese performance art in its various speculative and performative forms The author approaches this relationship with the re emergence and centrality of these semi peripheral histories at an international level whilst identifying some of their unique traits their cycles of emergence and retraction in Portuguese history their multiple and complex ontologies the intertwined relations between the art of performance and the social performance of the Portuguese regarding topics as sensitive and fracturing as those of the long dictatorship the colonial war and the revolutionary process or even the integration of Portugal in the European Community and more recently the various 21st century social political and economic crises This reading in turn covers the development of the relationship between performance and hybridism namely analyzing the recent dimension of meta hybridism in the processes of artistic homage that contemporary Portuguese creators have been establishing through access to the histories and archives of this historical genre This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance studies performance art and arts in general

The Ecology of the Performance Art Process Angela Viora, 2025-02-25 This book offers a new dynamic and ecological perspective to analyse the process of performance art namely what occurs during the unfolding of a piece exploring the essence of its happening through the forces at play The author's aim is to provide a deeper understanding of performance art which the existing scholarship acknowledges as an art form that actively engages with the world Much work has been done on the transformative effects of performance art on the artists and the audiences and its impact on society over time The author takes this perspective further by asking how does this transformation happen Little work exists on exploring the forces and dynamics occurring while a performance is developing neither before nor after but during it This is the first and main gap that this book fills given the importance of process and processuality as the characterising features of this art form By filling this gap this book offers a new way to understand performances and their impact in the world and over time as well as providing practitioners with tools for performing and designing their works starting from the process rather than focusing on the outcomes This book studies the matrix of the performance art process by conceiving it as an ecosystem in which all the elements at play animate and inanimate are agentic and intertwine in relationships of mutual influence and exchange This book will be useful for scholars and practitioners of performance art and performance studies practice as research PaR visual culture art history and philosophy especially phenomenology

Collision David Cecchetto, Nancy Cuthbert, Julie Lassonde, 2008-12-18 With very few exceptions interdisciplinary art and interarts practices examined as such including the perspective of artist researchers and not subsumed under a singular category of performance or visual art have until now been largely ignored While it would be simplistic to think that this collection somehow rectifies the piecemeal status of this discourse our wager is that this collection works towards presenting an understanding of this status as in a certain sense constitutive of the field Beginning with an introduction to the very multiplicities that compose and complicate interdisciplinary practices then moving into questions of body technology location movement space practice performativity aesthetics this collection covers an enormous amount while still retaining an overarching sense of unity in the context of the subject as a whole Each of these sections negotiates a series of interrelated collisions in order to address a range of theoretical positions as well as a variety of international and cultural perspectives In addition to addressing the notion of interdisciplinarity and the challenges of specific interarts practices this publication seeks to question how we might understand interarts practice in a way that does not exclude perspectives such as spirituality law political activism and community development to name only a few The inclusion of these disparate practices within this publication itself a site of collision of the poetic the conversational and the theoretical is thus not presented as an attempt to unify or normalize them but rather as a productive charting of their radical explosion a collision that is always a colliding www.wac.ucla.edu/cip Women, Art, Freedom Pamela Karimi, 2024-09-11 Women Art Freedom offers an insightful look at the 2022 Woman Life Freedom uprising in Iran sparked by the tragic murder of Jina Mahsa Amini at the hands of the morality police for violating hijab rules. Beyond its feminist undertones and the remarkable courage of the young protesters, what sets this uprising apart from previous ones is the abundant and diverse art it has inspired. This book, rather than merely analyzing the artworks that garnered attention on social media platforms, brings to light lesser-known grassroots artistic movements that played a crucial role within their immediate local communities. Engaging with primarily Iran-based artists, it uncovers their role in shaping guerrilla interventions and street occupations and in articulating distinct forms of peaceful civil disobedience. By drawing on a broad spectrum of historical and theoretical sources, this book further reveals the origins and inspirations of Iran's protest art. Focusing mainly on the interconnections between the public sphere, women's bodies, and feminist viewpoints, Women Art Freedom underscores the vital role of artists in championing global justice and equality.

Theater(s) and Public Sphere in a Global and Digital Society, Volume 1, 2022-12-28 Volume 1 of Theater(s) and Public Sphere in a Global and Digital Society inquires the fundamental contribution that artistic and cultural forms bring to social dynamics and how these can consolidate cohabitation and create meaningfulness in addition to fulfilling economic and regulatory needs. As symbolic forms of collective social practices, artistic and cultural forms weave the meaning of a territory, a context, and a people, but also of the generations who traverse these same cultures. These forms of meaning interact with the social imagery, mediate marginalization, transform barriers into bridges, and are the indispensable tools for any social coexistence and its continuous rethinking in everyday life. The various epistemic approaches present here refer to sociology, theatre studies, cultural studies, psychology economy of culture and social statistics which observe theatre as a social phenomenon Contributors are Maria Shevstova Ilaria Riccioni Roberta Paltrinieri Gerhard Gl her Raimondo Guarino Mariselda Tessarolo Raffaele Federici Marco Serino Maria Grazia Turri Elena Olesina Elena Polyudova Marisol Facuse Vincenzo Del Gaudio Laura Gemini Stefano Brilli Jessica Camargo Molano Annalisa Cicerchia Simona Staffieri and Giulia Cavrini Performance Art in Ireland Aine Phillips,2015-01-01 This book the first devoted to the history and contemporary forms of Irish performance art in the north and south of Ireland brings together contributions by prominent Irish artists and major academics It features rigorous critical and theoretical analysis as well as historical commentaries that provide an absorbing sense of the rich histories of performance art in Ireland Presenting diverse visual documentation of performance art practices this collection shows how performance art in Ireland engaged with and in turn influenced and led contemporary performance and Live Art internationally Co published with Live Art Development Agency African Americans in the Performing Arts Steven Otfinoski,2010 Provides short biographies of African Americans who have contributed to the performing arts
