Art Et Outrage:

Against Art and Culture Liam Dee, 2017-12-12 Offering a negative definition of art in relation to the concept of culture this book establishes the concept of art culture to describe the unity of these two fields around named labour idealised creative subjectivity and surplus signification Contending a conceptual and social reality of a combined art culture this book demonstrates that the failure to appreciate the dynamic totality of art and culture by its purported negators is due to almost all existing critiques of art and culture being defences of a true art or culture against inauthentic manifestations and art thus ultimately restricting creativity to the service of the bourgeois commodity regime While the evidence that art culture enables commodification has long been available the deduction that art culture itself is fundamentally of the world of commodification has failed to gain traction By applying a nuanced analysis of both commodification and the larger systems of ideological power the book considers how the surplus of art culture is used to legitimate the bourgeois status quo rather than unravel it It also examines possibilities for a post art culture world based on both existing practices that challenge art culture identity as well as speculations on the integration of play and aesthetics into general social life An out and out negation of art and culture this book offers a unique contribution to the cultural critique landscape Antinomies of Art and Culture

Okwui Enwezor, Nancy Condee, Terry Smith, 2009-01-16 Collection of essays by art historians and cultural theorists on what it means for art to be contemporary in the wake of postmodernism Issues in Art and Design Teaching Nicholas

Marian Engel's Notebooks Christl Verduyn, 2006-01-01 Marian Engel emerged as a writer during that period in Canada when nationalism increased and new feminism dawned Although she is recognized as a distinguished woman of letters she has not been widely studied consequently we know relatively little about her and her craft The material collected in Marian Engel's Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute is a major step in redressing that neglect Extracts carefully chosen by Christl Verduyn from Marian Engel's forty-nine notebooks Engel began in the late 1940s and which she maintained until her death in 1985 track Engel's creative development illustrate her commitment to the craft of writing and document her growth as a major Canadian writer The notebooks also portray Engel's surprising leaps of logic her fascination with the bizarre the eclecticism of her reading and the depth and variety of her thinking Finally they present moving documentation of a woman facing cancer and early death Christl Verduyn's illuminating introductory discussions to each of the notebooks unobtrusively guide us in the reading of these sometimes difficult writings Marian Engel's Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute leaves readers with a vivid sense of Canadian culture during the 1960s and 1970s It provides insight into the literary life of one of Canada's significant woman writers including her connections with other Canadian writers and will be of special interest to scholars working in the field of literature

Judging the Image Alison Young, 2005 This book extends the cultural turn in legal and criminological studies by interrogating our responses to the image It provides a space to think through problems of ethics social authority and the legal imagination

Art and Celebrity John A. Walker, 2002-12-20 The growing cult of the celebrity in contemporary culture is throwing up paradoxical ideas about the contradictions between high art and mass appeal and blurring the already unstable boundaries between art commodity and popular culture This is a lively and accessible study of the phenomenon informed by a look at what happens when the serious world of art collides with celebrity Global culture is now dominated by celebrities some of whom like Madonna and Stallone are art collectors and some like Dennis Hopper and David Bowie are part-time artists Walker explains how artists such as Warhol Gavin Turk Jeff Koons Elizabeth Peyton and Alison Jackson contribute to but also critique the cult of celebrity by depicting film celebrities rock stars and royalty in paintings and statues Celebritisation has overtaken the art world too Walker surveys 14 art stars of the twentieth century from Dali to Tracey Emin He also reviews alternatives the left wing pantheon of figures such as Mao Che Guevara and Rosa Luxemburg and pictorial celebrations of the people

Contemporary Art and Classical Myth Jennie Hirsh, 2017-07-05 Contemporary art is deeply engaged with the subject of classical myth Yet within the literature on contemporary art little has been said about this provocative relationship Composed of fourteen original essays Contemporary Art and Classical Myth addresses this scholarly gap exploring and in large part establishing the multifaceted intersection of contemporary art and classical myth Moving beyond the notion of art as illustration the essays assembled here adopt a range of methodological frameworks from iconography to deconstruction and do so across an impressive range of artists and objects Francis Al s Ghada Amer Wim Delvoye Luciano Fabro Joanna Frueh Felix Gonzales Torres Duane Hanson Yayoi Kusama Roy Lichtenstein Kara Walker and an iconic photograph by Richard Drew subsequently entitled The Falling Man Arranged so as to highlight both thematic and structural affinities these essays manifest various aspects of the link between contemporary art and classical myth while offering novel insights into the artists and myths under consideration Some essays concentrate on single works as they relate to specific myths while others take a broader approach calling on myth as a means of grappling with dominant trends in contemporary art

Sculpture and Archaeology Andrew Jones, 2017-07-05 In recent years the intersections between art history and archaeology have become the focus of critical analysis by both disciplines Contemporary sculpture has played a key role in this dialogue The essays in this volume by art historians archaeologists and artists take the intersection between sculpture and archaeology as the prelude for analysis examining the metaphorical and conceptual role of archaeology as subject matter for sculptors and the significance of sculpture as a three dimensional medium for exploring historical attitudes to archaeology

Postcolonial Identity in Wole Soyinka Mpalive-Hangson Msiska, 2007 Soyinka s representation of postcolonial African identity is re examined in the light of his major plays novels and poetry to show how this writer s idiom of cultural authenticity both embraces hybridity and defines itself as specific and particular For Soyinka such authenticity involves recovering tradition and inserting it in postcolonial modernity to facilitate transformative moral and political justice The past can be both our enabling future and our nemesis In a distinctive approach grounded in cultural studies Postcolonial Identity in Wole Soyinka locates the artist s intellectual and political concerns within the broader field of postcolonial cultural theory arguing that although ostensibly distant from mainstream theory Soyinka focuses on fundamental questions concerning international culture and political identity formations the relationship between myth and history tradition and modernity and the unresolved tension between power as a force for good or evil Soyinka s treatment of the relationship between individual selfhood and the various framing social and collective identities so the book argues is yet another aspect linking his work to the broader intellectual currents of today Thus Soyinka s vision is seen as central to contemporary efforts to grasp the nature of modernity His works conceptualize identity in ways that promote and modify national perceptions of Africanness rescuing them from the colonial and neocolonial logic of cultural denigration in a manner that fully acknowledges the cosmopolitan and global contexts of African postcolonial formation Overall what emerges from the present study is the conviction that in Soyinka's work it is the capacity to assume personal and collective agency and the particular choices made by particular subjects at given historical moments that determine the trajectory of change and ultimately the nature of postcolonial existence itself Postcolonial Identity in Wole Soyinka is a major and imaginative contribution to the study of Wole Soyinka African literature and postcolonial cultural theory and one in which writing and creativity stand in fruitful symbiosis with the critical sense It should appeal to Soyinka scholars to students of African literature and to anyone interested in postcolonial and cultural theory The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1859
