Art In Context David Brutus:

On Depiction: Selected Writings on Art Avigdor Arikha, 2019-08-25 A marvellous book which teaches us how to see There is not a word out of place And the author's seriousness allows us to feel his full passion what really matters for him This book will provide me lasting company and I will often look in its pages for backing for my own judgements Jean Starobinski When a great painter also happens to be an intelligent and cultivated one his observations on art count a hundred times more than a critic's or a historian's do A man's knowledge of his own craft is both irreplaceable and indispensable Simon Leys Throughout his whole development I have never ceased to admire the acuteness of his vision and his faultless insight into the art of the past Samuel Beckett Avigdor Arikha was one of the most important artists of the twentieth century He was born in Romania to German speaking Romanian Jewish parents and spent most of his life in Paris A talented child he started drawing early on During the Second World War he was deported to a concentration camp in the Ukraine where he drew the horrors he witnessed These drawings saved his life During the 1950s he established himself in Paris and was enjoying a successful career as an abstract painter In 1965 a Caravaggio exhibition prompted him to convert to drawing from life He stopped using colour until 1973 when he started again to paint He worked with a religious almost war like intensity until his death Arikha was also an erudite and passionate scholar endowed with a deep understanding of the history of art and its techniques well versed in world history and fascinated by science He wrote many essays and curated important exhibitions of masters such as Poussin Velázquez and Ingres In this collection of essays that he wrote between 1965 and 1994 Arikha expounds on art and artists Mantegna Velázquez Poussin David Ingres Degas Matisse and more technique seeing and the state of culture in his day which one could argue is no more hopeful today almost thirty years later Art in Literature, Literature in Art in 19th Century France Emilie Sitzia, 2011-12-08 The traditional relationship between painting and literature underwent a profound change in nineteenth century France Painting progressively asserted its independence from literature as it liberated itself from narrative obligations whilst interrogating the concept of subject matter itself Simultaneously the influence of art on the writing styles of authors increased and the character of the artist established itself as a recurring motif in French literature This book offers a panoramic review of the relationship between art and literature in nineteenth century France By means of a series of case studies chosen from key moments throughout the nineteenth century the aim of this study is to provide a focused analysis of specific examples of this relationship revealing both its multifaceted nature as well as offering a panorama of the development of this on going and increasingly complex cultural relationship From Jacques Louis David's irreverence for classical texts to Victor Hugo's graphic works from Edouard Manet's illustrations to Vincent Van Gogh's paintings of books from Honoré de Balzac's Unknown Masterpiece to Joris Karl Huysmans's A Rebours this interdisciplinary investigation of the links between literature and art in France throws new light on both fields of creative endeavour during a critical phase of France's cultural history Grétry and the Growth of Opéra-comique David

Charlton,1986-03-06 First published in 1986 this major study in English explores Gr try and op ra comique between 1768 and 1791 Aspects of "official" Painting and Philosophic Art, 1789-1799 Diane Kelder,1976 Originally presented as the author s thesis Bryn Mawr 1966 Jacques-Louis David Jacques Louis David,2006 Well known specialists in art history gender studies French literature and aesthetics address a wide range of issues and problems pertaining to the intersection of art and culture that have profound implications for artistic and historical developments in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century France and Europe The essays present new historical archival and interpretative material from diverse methodological vantage points in clear and lucid prose that makes the volume particularly accessible to a broader public interested in learning more about the artist and his time The text is complemented by seventeen black and white plates and fifty five figures Jacket Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1975 David Antoine Schnapper,1982 It is very rare to find artists who have played real political roles This is however true of David 1748 1825 who lived through the most eventful period in all French history from the Ancien R gime to the restoration He was a deputy to the Convention voted for the death of the King became a member of the Comit de S ret G n rale and for a time inspired the cultural policy of the country Book jacket History Today Peter Quennell,1973

Mark Darlow offers an unprecedented opportunity to consider the material context of opera production combining in depth archival research with a study of the works themselves He argues that a mixture of popular and State interventions created a repressive system in which cultural institutions retained agency compelling individuals to follow and contribute to a shifting culture Theatre thereby emerged as a locus for competing discourses on patriotism society the role of the arts in the Republic and the articulation of the Revolution s relation with the Old Regime and is thus an essential key to the understanding of public opinion and publicity at this crucial historical moment Critical Terms for Art History, Second Edition Robert S. Nelson, Richard Shiff, 2010-03-15 Art has always been contested terrain whether the object in question is a medieval tapestry or Duchamp s Fountain But questions about the categories of art and art history acquired increased urgency during the 1970s when new developments in critical theory and other intellectual projects dramatically transformed the discipline The first edition of Critical Terms for Art History both mapped and contributed to those transformations offering a spirited reassessment of the field s methods and terminology Art history as a field has kept pace with debates over globalization and other social and political issues in recent years making a second edition of this book not just timely but crucial Like its predecessor this new edition consists of essays that cover a wide variety of loaded terms in the history of art from sign to meaning ritual to commodity Each essay explains and comments on a single term discussing the issues the term raises and putting the term into practice as an interpretive framework for a specific work of art For example Richard Shiff discusses Originality in Vija Celmins s To Fix the Image in Memory a work made of eleven pairs of stones each consisting of one original stone and one painted bronze replica In addition to the twenty two original essays this edition includes nine new ones performance style memory monument body beauty ugliness identity visual culture visual studies and social history of art as well as new introductory material All help expand the book s scope while retaining its central goal of stimulating discussion of theoretical issues in art history and making that discussion accessible to both beginning students and senior scholars Contributors Mark Antliff Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer Stephen Bann Homi K Bhabha Suzanne Preston Blier Michael Camille David Carrier Craig Clunas Whitney Davis Jas Elsner Ivan Gaskell Ann Gibson Charles Harrison James D Herbert Amelia Jones Wolfgang Kemp Joseph Leo Koerner Patricia Leighton Paul Mattick Jr Richard Meyer W J T Mitchell Robert S Nelson Margaret Olin William Pietz Alex Potts Donald Preziosi Lisbet Rausing Richard Shiff Terry Smith Kristine Stiles David Summers Paul Wood James E Young Painting and Sculpture in France, 1700-1789 Michael Levey, 1993-01-01 Discusses the major painters and sculptors of the period during the last years of France s ancien regime a period that started with Watteau and the fete galante and closed with the revolutionary history paintings of David Reclaiming Female Agency Norma Broude, Mary D. Garrard, 2005-04-11 Reclaiming Feminine Agency identifies female agency as a central theme of recent feminist scholarship offers 23 essays on artists issues from the Renaissance to the present written in the 1990s after As Radical as Reality Itself Matthew Beaumont, 2007 This collection of essays by a number of established scholars and artists proposes new directions for Marxist cultural theory and the criticism of modern visual culture It addresses a diverse range of topics including the state and revolution Communist and post Communist aesthetics Situationist thought and the avant garde subjectivity and commodification and the politics and problems of contemporary artistic practice The contributions also consider several other pressing questions in the visual arts from the practice of digital culture to appropriations of critical theory from the relations of art and the spectacle to architecture in the age of global modernity This book on Marxism and art is not offered in a spirit of nostalgia on the contrary it testifies to the continuing vitality and confidence of historical materialist thought in the field of cultural theory and practice in the 21st century
