Art in Indonesia Claire Holt, 1967 Art in Indonesia Continuities and Change, 1976 Art in Indonesia Claire Holt, 2006-02-01 A History of Photography in Indonesia Brian C. Arnold, 2025-10-01 As a former colonized nation Indonesia has a unique place in the history of photography A History of Photography in Indonesia From the Colonial Era to the Digital Age looks at the development of photography from the beginning and traces its uses in Indonesia from its invention to the present day The Dutch colonial government first brought the medium to the East Indies in the 1840s and immediately recognized its potential in serving the colonial apparatus As the country grew and changed so too did the medium Photography was not only an essential tool of colonialism but it also became part of the movement for independence a voice for reformasi an agent for advocating democracy and is now available to anyone with a phone This book gathers essays by leading artists scholars and curators from around the world who have worked with photography in Indonesia and have traced the evolution of the medium from its inception to the present day addressing the impact of photography on colonialism independence and democratization Feminisms and Contemporary Art in Indonesia Wulandani Dirgantoro, 2025-10-01 While Indonesian contemporary art is currently on the rise on the international art scene there hasn't yet been an in depth study of the works of Indonesian women artists and the feminist strategies they employ within the art world This book fills that gap presenting the first comprehensive study of feminisms and contemporary art in Indonesia using feminist readings to analyse the works of Indonesian women artists historically and today illuminating the sociocultural contexts in which they have worked and offering a nuanced understanding of local feminisms in the nation The Modern in Southeast Asian Art T.K. Sabapathy, Patrick Flores, 2023-05-12 Who spoke of the modern in Southeast Asia When and where was the modern written How was it written How was it received This collection brings together nearly 300 texts that were originally published between the late 19th to late 20th centuries selected by a group of scholars as responses to questions such as these The texts were produced chiefly in various locations in the region by artists critics historians and curators in 11 languages many of which had never before been translated into the English language Years in the making this publication is the first to present such breadth and depth of art writing in the region of Southeast Asia and will be a valuable resource to students teachers scholars and those interested in Southeast Asian studies and art history Looking from inside the region the rich fecundity of art discourses becomes clear if for example we compare the 1843 text by Raden Saleh from what is now Indonesia with the 1946 text of S Sudjojono allowing a historical grasp of modernity from two of its original texts or across the region to the 1971 text on Malaysia by Piyadasa The tyranny of physical cultural and temporal separation are thus overcome It is to the great credit of the editors that they have enabled this for us and this work will be a basic art historical reference both inside and beyond the region for some time to come John Clark Emeritus Professor of Art History University of Sydney Needed now more than ever this collection opens up new worlds in the guise of a region called Southeast Asia

Each carefully selected text offers a new point of access to thinking through across beyond and with the elusive idea of the modern A signal achievement this volume is both a rich introduction to the region as well as a vital resource for anyone genuinely committed to art histories that generate new spaces rather than settle for existing realms Joan Kee Professor History of Art University of Michigan Charting Thoughts Low Sze Wee, Patrick Flores, 2017-12-31 A constellation of thoughts by 25 established and emerging scholars who plot the indices of modernity and locate new coordinates within the shifting landscape of art These newly commissioned essays are accompanied by close to 200 full colour image plates

Traditional Music in Modern Java Judith Becker, 2019-03-31 Musicologist Judith Becker contends that sociopolitical changes in Javanese society since the 1940s are reflected in changes in the structure of gamelan music which is one of the traditional musics of Java She sees gamelan music as a musical system in a state of crisis unsure of its proper function and direction While traditional gamelan musical structures supported old Hindu Javanese concepts of cosmology and kingship modern innovations reflect Indonesian nationalism and a desire to become a twentieth-century nation In particular the introduction of Western musical notation which Becker describes as the most pervasive penetrating and ultimately the most insidious type of Western influence is changing gamelan from an aural to a written tradition Becker examines the works of contemporary composers Ki Wasitodipuro and Ki Nartosabdho to illustrate modern innovations in gamelan compositions and the attitudes of composers to their music as they attempt to compromise between the ethos and structure of traditional gamelan music and the changing tastes and attitudes of the modern Indonesian nation In addition to her interpretation of the political influence on gamelan music Becker includes four appendices that ethnomusicologists will find valuable Appendix I articulates her theory of the derivation of central Javanese gamelan gongan the basic temporal melodic repeated unit of gamelan music Appendix II gives biographical sketches of Ki Wasitodipuro and Ki Nartosabdho and lists their compositions referred to in the text Appendices II and IV deal with various aspects of pathet a Javanese system of classifying gamelan pieces A fifth appendix by Alan R Templeton gives an informational analysis of pathet
