Some Observations on the Art of Narrative Phyllis Eleanor Bentley, 1947 The Situation and the Story Vivian Gornick, 2002-10-11 A guide to the art of personal writing by the author of Fierce Attachments and The End of the Novel of Love All narrative writing must pull from the raw material of life a tale that will shape experience transform event deliver a bit of wisdom In a story or a novel the I who tells this tale can be and often is an unreliable narrator but in nonfiction the reader must always be persuaded that the narrator is speaking truth How does one pull from one's own boring agitated self the truth speaker who will tell the story a personal narrative needs to tell That is the question The Situation and the Story asks and answers Taking us on a reading tour of some of the best memoirs and essays of the past hundred years Gornick traces the changing idea of self that has dominated the century and demonstrates the enduring truth speaker to be found in the work of writers as diverse as Edmund Gosse Joan Didion Oscar Wilde James Baldwin or Marguerite Duras This book which grew out of fifteen years teaching in MFA programs is itself a model of the lucid intelligence that has made Gornick one of our most admired writers of nonfiction In it she teaches us to write by teaching us how to read how to recognize truth when we hear it in the writing of others and in our own SOME OBSERVATIONS ON THE ART OF NARRATIVE PHYLLIS. BENTLEY, 2018 Some Observations on the Art of Narrative (Classic Reprint) Phyllis Bentley, 2017-07-14 Excerpt from Some Observations on the Art of Narrative I find I can explain my View of the nature of narrative in fiction its varieties and the place it occupies between the reader and the imaginary world of the novel most easily if I translate a psychological fact into a physical metaphor and say that the reader is divided from the imaginary world of the novel by a high wall over which he cannot see On the top of the wall is perched the novelist He looks down into the world of his imagination and then turns to the reader and tells him what is going on there The novelist does not like the dramatist pick up bits of his world and set them down on the near side of the wall for actors to animate and his audience to see the novelist narrates he tells what he sees About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Trauma Informed Teaching through Play Art Narrative (PAN) Karen O.
