Genre Studies in Focus Faten Haouioui, Hajer Ayadi, 2024-03-05 This collection of essays aims to revise genre theory and studies Authors in this volume present and discuss different literary genres in transition They investigate genre hybridization transformation reconciliation and evolution Therefore the volume reconceptualizes the theory according to novel texts and contexts in for example trans generic film series feminine poetry and Arab women writing It introduces new generic labels in travel literature and new sub

genres in Maghrebian literature Genre blurs the boundaries between genre hierarchy labels and borderlines We read a gothic text that encompasses trauma testimony resistance and history Moreover scholars contributing to this collection astutely point out that genres are hybrid yet flexible by nature They adopt a cross cultural and interdisciplinary approach to genre theory The volume targets researchers theorists and students reading and interpreting literary and historical texts alongside genre theory

Contemporary, 2005

Orson Welles in Focus James N. Gilmore, Sidney Gottlieb, 2018-02-08

Through his radio and film works such as The War of the Worlds and Citizen Kane Orson Welles became a household name in the United States Yet Welles's multifaceted career went beyond these classic titles and included lesser known but nonetheless important contributions to television theater newspaper columns and political activism Orson Welles in Focus Texts and Contexts examines neglected areas of Welles's work shedding light on aspects of his art that have been eclipsed by a narrow focus on his films By positioning Welles's work during a critical period of his activity the mid 1930s through the 1950s in its larger cultural political aesthetic and industrial contexts the contributors to this volume examine how he participated in and helped to shape modern media This exploration of Welles in his totality illuminates and expands our perception of his contributions that continue to resonate today

Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo, Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2015

This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith Will Wilson and many more Authors Berlo and Phillips incorporate new research and scholarship examining such issues as art and ethics gender representation and the colonial encounter By bringing into one conversation the seemingly separate realms of the sacred and the secular the political and the domestic and the ceremonial and the commercial Native North American Art shows how visual arts not only maintain the integrity of spiritual and social systems within Native North American societies but have long been part of a cross cultural experience as well

Josiah Royce in Focus Jacquelyn Ann K. Kegley, Richard B. Gunderman, 2008-10-17

This new approach to Josiah Royce shows one of American philosophy's brightest minds in action for today's readers Although Royce was one of the towering figures of American pragmatism his thought is often considered in the wake of his more famous peers Jacquelyn Ann K. Kegley brings fresh perspective to Royce's ideas and clarifies his individual philosophical vision Kegley foregrounds Royce's concern with contemporary public issues and ethics focusing in particular on how he addresses long standing problems such as race religion community the dangers of mass media mass culture and blatant individualistic capitalism She offers a deep and fruitful philosophical exploration of Royce's ideas on conflict resolution memory self identity and self development Kegley's keen understanding and appreciation of Royce reintroduces him to a new generation of scholars and students Exhibiting Italian Art in the United States from Futurism to Arte Povera Raffaele Bedarida, 2022-06-28 This volume explores how Italian institutions dealers critics and artists constructed a modern national identity for Italy by exporting literally and figuratively contemporary art to the United States in key moments between 1929 and 1969 From artist Fortunato Depero opening his Futurist House in New York City to critic Germano Celant launching Arte Povera in the United States Raffaele Bedarida examines the thick web of individuals and cultural environments beyond the two more canonical movements that shaped this project By interrogating standard narratives of Italian Fascist propaganda on the one hand and American Cold War imperialism on the other this book establishes a more nuanced transnational approach The central thesis is that beyond the immediate aims of political propaganda and conquering a new market for Italian art these art exhibitions publications and the critical discourse aimed at American audiences all reflected back on their makers they forced and helped Italians define their own modernity in relation to the world's new dominant cultural and economic power The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history social history exhibition history and Italian studies Injustice in Focus Claudia Smith Brinson, 2024-01-09 The powerful life story and photography of an esteemed Black photojournalist Cecil Williams is one of the few Southern Black photojournalists of the civil rights movement Born and raised in Orangeburg South Carolina Williams worked at the center of emerging twentieth century civil rights activism in the state and his assignments often exposed him to violence perpetrated by White law officials and ordinary citizens Williams's story is the story of the civil rights era Author and award winning journalist Claudia Smith Brinson and photographer Williams combine forces in Injustice in Focus The Civil Rights Photography of Cecil Williams Together they document civil rights activism in the 1940s through the 1960s in South Carolina Williams was there in South Carolina to witness and document pivotal movements such as then NAACP legal counsel Thurgood Marshall's arrival in Charleston to argue the landmark case Briggs v Elliott and the aftermath of the infamous Orangeburg Massacre With author Brinson's rich research interviews and prose and eighty stunning photographs from Williams's collection Injustice in Focus offers a firsthand account of South Carolina's fight for civil rights and describes Williams's life behind the camera as a documentarian of the civil rights movement
