Art for Equality Jenny Woodley, 2014-06-17 A study of the NAACP's activism in the cultural realm through creative projects from 1910 to the 1960s The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People NAACP is the nation's oldest civil rights organization having dedicated itself to the fight for racial equality since 1909 While the group helped achieve substantial victories in the courtroom the struggle for civil rights extended beyond gaining political support It also required changing social attitudes The NAACP thus worked to alter existing prejudices through the production of art that countered racist depictions of African Americans focusing its efforts not only on changing the attitudes of the White middle class but also on encouraging racial pride and a sense of identity in the Black community Art for Equality explores an important and little studied side of the NAACP's activism in the cultural realm In openly supporting African American artists writers and musicians in their creative endeavors the organization aimed to change the way the public viewed the Black community By overcoming stereotypes and the belief of the majority that African Americans were physically intellectually and morally inferior to Whites the NAACP believed it could begin to defeat racism Illuminating important protests from the fight against the 1915 film The Birth of a Nation to the production of anti lynching art during the Harlem Renaissance this insightful volume examines the successes and failures of the NAACP's cultural campaign from 1910 to the 1960s Exploring the roles of gender and class in shaping the association's patronage of the arts Art for Equality offers an in depth analysis of the social and cultural climate during a time of radical change in America Praise for Art for Equality A well conceived and well executed study that will add significantly to the historiography of the NAACP the long civil rights movement and African American history John Kirk George W Donaghey Professor and Chair of the History Department at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock In this insightful book Woodley writes with great verve and confidence As a result Art for Equality will attract readers in a variety of fields from African American history to art history to American political history Matthew Pratt Guterl Brown University A necessary contribution to African American social and cultural histories Journal of Southern History

Brain and Art Bruno Colombo, 2019-08-29 This book analyzes and discusses in detail art therapy a specific tool used to sustain health in affective developments rehabilitation motor skills and cognitive functions Art therapy is based on the assumption that the process of making art music dance painting sparks emotions and enhances brain activity Art therapy is used to encourage personal growth facilitate particular brain areas or activity patterns and improve neural connectivity Treating neurological diseases using artistic strategies offers us a unique option for engaging brain structural networks that enhance the brain's ability to form new connections Based on brain plasticity art therapy has the potential to increase our repertoire for treating neurological diseases Neural substrates are the basis of complex emotions relative to art experiences and involve a widespread activation of cognitive and motor systems Accordingly art therapy has the capacity to modulate behavior cognition attention and movement In this context art therapy can offer effective tools for improving general well being quality of life and motivation in connection with neurological diseases The book discusses art therapy as a potential group of techniques for the treatment of neurological disturbances and approaches the relationship between humanistic disciplines and neurology from a holistic perspective reflecting the growing interest in this interconnection

Volume 9: Aesthetics and Philosophy of Art Guttorm Fløistad,2007-03-16 The present volume is a continuation of the series Contemporary Philosophy As with the earlier volumes in the series the present chronicles purport to give a survey of significant trends in contemporary philosophy The need for such surveys has I believe increased rather than decreased over the years The philosophical scene appears for various reasons more complex than ever before The continuing process of specialization in most branches the increasing contact between philosophers from various cultures the emergence of new schools of thought particularly in philosophical logic and in the philosophy of language and ethics and the increasing attention being paid to the history of philosophy in discussions of contemporary problems are the most important contributing factors Surveys of the present kind are a valuable source of knowledge of this complexity The surveys may therefore help to strengthen the Socratic element of modern philosophy the intercultural dialogue or Kommunikationsgemeinschaft So far eight volumes are published in this series viz Philosophy of Language and Philosophical Logic Volume 1 Philosophy of Science Volume 2 Philosophy of Action Volume 3 Philosophy of Mind Volume 4 African Philosophy Volume 5 Medieval Age Philosophy Volume 6 1 and Volume 6 2 Asian Philosophy Volume 7 and Philosophy of Latin America Volume 8
