Bombay A Contemporary Account Of Mumbai:

Bombay Namas Bhojani, Arun Katiyar, 1996 Bombay has become the crime and business capital of India This book allows the reader to explore the alchemy of a metropolis that draws the gifted and challenges the intelligent It shows a city that has grown with grace but has refused to show signs of ageing Urban Development and Environmental History in Modern South Asia Ian Talbot, Amit Ranjan, 2022-11-04 This book provides a pioneering study of the historical interaction between the city and the natural environment from the colonial to the contemporary era in South Asia The book provides a multidisciplinary analysis examining the environmental history of the city and bringing together contributions from environmental experts and practitioners as well as academics Focusing on case studies stretching from the Maldives and Sri Lanka to the Indian subcontinent the chapters trace linkages between the contemporary and earlier patterns of urban expansion and their environmental effects and consider lessons that can be drawn with respect to preventing future environmental degradation and mitigating the effects of climate change An important contribution to the field this book studies the contemporary environmental issues arising from rapid South Asian urbanization It will be of interest to researchers in the field of South Asian studies world history and environmental history Fifty Contemporary Film Directors Yvonne Tasker, 2010-10-04 This book provides an accessible overview of each director's contribution to cinema incorporating a discussion of their career major works and impact Pirates and Mutineers of the Nineteenth Century Grace Moore, 2016-12-05 The first volume devoted to literary pirates in the nineteenth century this collection examines changes in the representation of the pirate from the beginning of the nineteenth century through the late Victorian period Gone were the dangerous ruffians of the eighteenth century novel and in their place emerged a set of brooding and lovable rogues as exemplified by Byron's Corsair As the contributors engage with acts of piracy by men and women in the literary marketplace as well as on the high seas they show that both forms were foundational in the promotion and execution of Britain's imperial ambitions Linking the pirate's development as a literary figure with the history of piracy and the making of the modern state tells us much about race class and evolving gender relationships While individual chapters examine key texts like Treasure Island Dickens's 1857 mutiny story in Household Words and Peter Pan the collection as a whole interrogates the growth of pirate myths and folklore throughout the nineteenth century and the depiction of their nautical heirs in contemporary literature and culture The Emergence of Feminism in India, 1850-1920 Padma Anagol, 2005 This pioneering and innovative study paces women in India at the height of colonial rule at the centre of analysis Drawing upon rare English and Marathi archival materials Padma Anagol makes a compelling case for the birth of Indian feminism before the coming of Gandhi by also illustrating how collective movements to improve the status of women in India were based upon a consciousness of the inequalities in gender relations The Cambridge Companion to the City in World Literature Ato Quayson, Jini Kim Watson, 2023-07-27 This book forges new ground in the relationship between cities and World

Literature Through a series of essays spanning a variety of metropolises it shows how cities have given rise to key aesthetic dispositions acts of linguistic and cultural translation topographic conceptualizations global imaginaries and narratives of self fashioning that are central to understanding World Literature and its debates Alongside an introduction and three theoretical chapters each chapter focuses on a particular city in the Global North or Global South and brings World Literary debates on translation literary networks imperial and migrant imaginaries centers and peripheries into conversation with the urban literary histories of Beijing Bombay Mumbai Dublin Cairo Istanbul Johannesburg Lagos London Mexico City Moscow and St Petersburg New York Paris Singapore and Sydney

Contemporary Indian Writing in English between Global Fiction and Transmodern Historiography

Christoph Senft, 2016-01-12 This study offers a comprehensive overview of Indian writing in English in the 21st century Through ten exemplary analyses in which canonical authors stand next to less well known and diasporic ones Christoph Senft provides deep insights into India's complex literary world and develops an argumentative framework in which narrative texts are interpreted as transmodern re readings of history historicity and memory Reconciling different postmodern and postcolonial theoretical approaches to the interpretation and construction of literature and history Senft substitutes traditional Eurocentric and universalistic views on past and present by decolonial and pluralistic practices He thus helps to better understand the entanglements of colonial politics and cultural production not only on the subcontinent

Dalit Migrants Ajeet Kumar Pankaj, 2023-09-09 This book offers a detailed narrative of Dalit migrants everyday experience in urban areas with regard to the availability and accessibility of welfare services and state institutions It discusses caste specifically the identity of integration for Dalit migrants and the social work profession to integrate a marginalized community Further the book also highlights social political cultural and economic changes among Dalit migrants in cities The book traces the trajectory of Dalit migrants and captures their mobility from rural to urban areas which is a complex economic and social phenomenon In consideration of this complexity the author explores the process of migration in its finer details through a focus on lived experiences of Dalit migrants in cities Dalits often migrate to cities in search of better employment and livelihood opportunities because their occupations are invariably associated with their caste in villages This book investigates the role of caste based identity in Dalit migrants emancipation and integration in cities In addition the book examines the role of caste in the exclusion of Dalit migrants in cities and explains the dynamic nature of the state and Dalit migrants assertion Among the topics covered in the book's seven chapters Mumbai Bombay Migration Caste and Dalits Caste and Migration The City A Site for Inclusion and Emancipation Entitlement Deprivation and Basic Services Everyday Experience of Dalit Migrants with the State Dalit Migrants Assertion Emancipation and Social Change is intended for students academicians and researchers in social work migration studies labour studies development studies population science and economics Developmental professionals also will be keen to read the book

Celestial Dress , Infrastructure and Form Karin Zitzewitz, 2022-09-06 In the 1990s and 2000s contemporary art in India changed

radically in form as an art world once dominated by painting began to support installation new media and performance In response to the liberalization of India s economy art was cultivated by a booming market as well as by new nonprofit institutions that combined strong local roots and transnational connections The result was an unprecedented efflorescence of contemporary art and growth of a network of institutions radiating out from India Among the first studies of contemporary South Asian art Infrastructure and Form engages with sixteen of India s leading contemporary artists and art collectives to examine what made this development possible Karin Zitzewitz articulates the connections among formal trajectories of medium and material curatorial frames and networks of circulation and the changing conditions of everyday life after economic liberalization By untangling the complex interactions of infrastructure and form the book offers a discussion of the barriers and conduits that continue to shape global contemporary art and its relationship to capital more broadly

The Contemporary Novel and the City S. Khanna,2015-12-04 This book examines the deeply divided terrain of the twentieth century city and its formative impact on narrative fiction It focuses on two major world authors at the two ends of the twentieth century who write systematically about the colonial and postcolonial cities they were born in James Joyce and Dublin and Salman Rushdie and Bombay

Constructing Identity in Contemporary Architecture Peter Herrle,Stephanus Schmitz,2009 The global spread of uniform modes of production and cultural values has been accompanied by a dissemination of stereotypes of modern architecture styles almost everywhere around the globe Paradoxically the reverse process has also emerged In some countries the elites feel the necessity to counterbalance the loss of identity and defend their own cultures against the intruding forces of globalization What started as a defensive notion has developed into a more progressive attempt to re create what has allegedly been lost This trend is being strongly expressed in discourses about architecture in countries of the South Who are the actors feeling compelled to construct new identities How are these new identities in architecture created in various parts of the world And which are the ingredients borrowed from various historical and ethnic traditions and other sources These and other questions are discussed in five case studies from different parts of the world written by renowned scholars from Brazil Mexico Egypt India and Singapore
