Bonhoeffer And South Africa Theology In Dialogue:

Bonhoeffer and South Africa John W. De Gruchy, 1984 In this stimulating book John W de Gruchy points out the relevance of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's thought for the life of the church in South Africa engaging in dialogue the theology of Bonhoeffer and the theology of South Africa Both Bonhoeffer's theology and his life bore witness to the need for Christians to come face to face with the pressing political and social issues of the day Bonhoeffer believed that to bear an authentic witness to Christ in certain settings was to go against the stream the church in South Africa says de Gruchy faces the challenge to be just such a troublesome witness He finds in Bonhoeffer's theology direction and liberation for the oppressed as well as for the privileged who need to be freed for others Throughout the book demonstrates the abiding significance of Bonhoeffer's theology which according to de Gruchy derives from the fact that he was before all else a witness to Jesus Christ John de Gruchy is Robert Selby Taylor Professor of Christian Studies and Director of the Religion and Social Change Unit in the University of Cape Town ThirdWay, 1985-09 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Bonhoeffer's Christocentric Theology and Fundamental Debates in Environmental Ethics Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2017-05-04 There is widespread understanding of the close connection between religion and the ecological crisis and that in order to amend this crisis theological resources are needed This monograph seeks to contribute to this endeavor by engaging the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer His theology is particularly suitable in this context due to its open ended nature and to the prophetic and radical nature of the questions he was prepared to ask that is why there are many other attempts to contextualize Bonhoeffer's theology in areas that he himself has not directly written about In this monograph Steven van den Heuvel first of all addresses the question of how to translate Bonhoeffer's theology in a methodologically sound way He settles on a modified form of the general method of correlation Then secondly van den Heuvel sets out to describe five major concepts in Bonhoeffer's work bringing these into critical interplay with discussions in environmental ethics and eco theology In making the correlations he thoroughly describes each concept situating it in the historic and intellectual background of Bonhoeffer's time He then transposes these concepts to contemporary environmental ethics describing what contribution Bonhoeffer's theology can make The Oxford Handbook of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Michael Mawson, Philip G. Ziegler, 2019 This Handbook offers an overview of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's 1906-1945 biography and intellectual context his contributions to all areas of doctrinal theology ethics and public life the significance of his thought for some contemporary issues and debates and an evaluation of some existing resources for studying Bonhoeffer The Cambridge Companion to Dietrich Bonhoeffer John W. de Gruchy, 1999-05-13 This Companion serves as a guide for readers wanting to explore the thought and legacy of the great German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906-45 The book shows why Bonhoeffer remains such an attractive figure to so many people of diverse backgrounds Its chapters written by authors from differing national theological and church contexts provide a helpful introduction to and commentary on Bonhoeffer's life work and writing and so guide the reader along the complex paths of his thought Experts set out comprehensively Bonhoeffer's political social and cultural contexts and offer biographical information which is indispensable for the understanding of his theology Major themes arising from the theology and different interpretations to it lead the reader into a dialogue with this most influential of thinkers who remains both fascinating and challenging There is a chronology a glossary and an index

Bonhoeffer Petra Brown, 2019-01-04 Theologian Conspirator Martyr Saint Dietrich Bonhoeffer was killed in the waning days of World War II having been implicated in the July 20th assassination attempt on Hitler Since his death Bonhoeffer's life and writings have inspired contradictory responses He is often seen as a model for Christian pacifist resistance and more recently for violent direct political action Bonhoeffer's name has been invoked by violent anti-abortion protestors as well as political leaders calling for support on a war on terror in the aftermath of 9/11 Petra Brown critically analyses Bonhoeffer's writing preceding and during his conspiracy involvement particularly his recurring concept of the extraordinary Brown examines this idea in light of the state of exception a concept coined by the one-time Nazi jurist and political theorist Carl Schmitt She also draws on the existentialist philosopher Søren Kierkegaard to consider what happens when discipleship is understood as obedience to a divine command This book aims to complicate an unreflective admiration of Bonhoeffer's decision for conspiracy and draws attention to the potentially dangerous implications of his emerging political theology

Faith Facing Reality John W. de Gruchy,2022-10-21 The COVID 19 pandemic and the war in Ukraine have starkly reminded us of the realities that threaten our future on planet Earth Christian faith is not a way of escaping these realities but of engaging them in the struggle for justice and peace motivated by love enabled by faith and sustained by hope This is based on the conviction that in Jesus Christ the reality of God has become redemptively embodied within the reality of the world Written within the context of South Africa but with global vision and in conversation with the legacy of Dietrich Bonhoeffer this book is an attempt to stir up discussion and inform action in connecting worldly and transcendent reality Inevitably this will be controversial not least because that is something that Bonhoeffer risked This is certainly true when it comes to the five realities that provide much of the book s substance the persistence of racism the will to power scientism and soulless technology the conflict in Israel Palestine and the threat of wars and pandemics Is it possible to believe in the God of Jesus Christ in such a world If so what does that mean and how does it help us live creatively redemptively and faithfully To answer these questions the author examines the meaning of faith the human desire for transcendence and the need for conversion wisdom solidarity and responsible freedom subject in structural analogy to theological dogma On the other hand Bonhoeffer's theology repudiates Schmitt's political jurisprudential position contesting that history ultimately focuses on leading to human wholeness through reconciliation

Christianity in South Africa Richard Elphick, Rodney Davenport, T. R. H. Davenport, 1997-01-01 At a strategic time in South Africa's history the Christian history which is absolutely basic to all developments is presented in a comprehensive and objective way Too little attention is given to the influence of religion in socio political accounts This is a creative and much needed contribution to scholarship and general knowledge An outstanding work Dean S Gilliland Fuller Theological Seminary
