surveying the history of interpretation and the treatment of the terms in the various versions and translations Van Dam examines the implications of similar oracular devices and priestly dress within the larger cultural context of the ancient Near East He places the Urim and Thummim within the context of divine revelation and human inquiry and the corollary prohibition of divination in ancient Israel He concludes that the breastpiece functioned as a pouch to hold the Urim and Thummim which therefore clearly were tangible objects Van Dam traces the use of this oracular instrument through the early monarchy under David from the time of Joshua through the early monarchy under David and its apparent disappearance by the time of the classical prophets where a shift to primarily verbal oracles occurs Concurrent with his study of the history of the oracle Van Dam interacts with current discussion on the nature and process of God's revelation to humankind

The Tablet of Destinies Roberto Calasso, 2022-07-26 An immersive and mesmerizing narrative that reimagines the Mesopotamian myth of the Great Flood A long time ago the gods grew tired of humans and decided to send a flood to destroy them But Ea the god of fresh underground water didn't agree He advised one of his devotees Utnapishtim to build a quadrangular boat to house humans and animals and saved these living creatures from the Flood Rather than punish Utnapishtim for his disobedience Enlil King of the gods granted the mortal eternal life and banished him to the island of Dilmun Thousands of years later when Sinbad the Sailor is shipwrecked and arrives on that very same island the two begin a conversation about courage loss salvation and sacrifice

A Collection of Destinies David Beltran, 2016-06-23 Destiny gives to each of us a purpose for being that nothing we do in our lives is meaningless that we never meet people by chance And Taurana Nhane a young boy from a tribal island culture must face his destiny head on in a most confusing way For as is custom he and his friends must go to the Kingdom of Lydia which colonized Taus island home to be taught about war and fighting As Taurana embarks on his journey to adulthood as he goes off to Lydia's cruel and extensive warrior program he will meet people who represent ideas conflicting with his own people's reverence for fate and destiny For the Lydians believe that man is the maker of his own destiny And when Taurana befriends Draes prince of Lydia Taurana begins to adopt the Lydian attitude of a life free from the domain of destiny that is until he goes to Lydia where he meets a girl who will in fact bind him to that destiny which he was just beginning to doubt Caught now between the political frustrations of a foreign kingdom doubted now by his own native friends who are weary of him uncertain now of the way he should go he must decide what to do to submit to the will of the spirits or to make his own fate But destiny is too binding and its two closest allies time and love are equally as powerful

Supernal Serpent Andrei A. Orlov,2023 Supernal Serpent is a wide ranging study of Jewish and Christian traditions about Leviathan as the underworld s ruler the foundation of the world and the embodiment of evil It explores the Leviathan tradition in its full historical and interpretive complexity through a broad variety of texts ranging from ancient West Asian accounts to later rabbinic and Muslim sources paying special attention to the imagery found in the Book of Job the Book of Revelation and the Apocalypse of Abraham The book demonstrates that in some Jewish materials Leviathan is envisioned as a living embodiment of the most profound divine mysteries which are preserved by God from the beginning of creation to be revealed fully in the end of times Greek Myths and Mesopotamia Charles Penglase,1994 Examines the Mesopotamian influence on Greek mythology in literary works of the epic period concentrating in particular on journey myths A major contribution to the understanding of the colourful myths involved Spirit and Reason Dale Launderville,2007 Ezekiel s symbolic thinking is an integrative rationality in which reason is regarded as operating within the heart through the empowerment and guidance of the Spirit Ancient Western Asia Beyond the Paradigm of Collapse and Regeneration (1200-900 BCE) Maria Grazia Masetti-Rouault,Ilaria Calini,Robert Hawley,Lorenzo d'Alfonso,2024-05-07 New results and interpretations challenging the notion of a uniform macroregional collapse throughout the Late Bronze Age Eastern Mediterranean Ancient Western Asia Beyond the Paradigm of Collapse and Regeneration 1200 900 BCE presents select essays originating in a two year research collaboration between New York University and Paris Sciences et Lettres The contributions here offer new results and interpretations of the processes and outcomes of the transition from the Late Bronze Age to the Iron Age in three broad regions Anatolia northern Mesopotamia and the Levant Together these challenge the notion of a uniform macroregional collapse throughout the Eastern Mediterranean followed by the regeneration of political powers Current research on newly discovered or reinterpreted textual and material evidence from Western Asia instead suggests that this transition was characterized by a diversity of local responses emerging from diverse environmental settings and culture complexes as evident in the case studies collected here in history archaeology and art history The editors avoid particularism by adopting a regional organization with the aim of identifying and tracing similar processes and outcomes emerging locally across the three regions Ultimately this volume reimagines the Late Bronze Iron Age transition as the emergence of a set of recursive processes and outcomes nested firmly in the local cultural interactions of western Asia before the beginning of the new unifying era of Assyrian imperialism
