Of Hours Illuminations:

Illumination from Books of Hours Janet Backhouse, 2004 This book acts as an introduction to some of the most beautiful and historically interesting manuscripts in the collections of the British Library and contains 140 reproductions from this rich tradition The Rohan Book of hours ,1959 Illuminations Sandra Hindman, 1997 The twenty seven illuminations catalogued in this volume part of a series cataloguing the more than two thousand works of art in the Robert Lehman Collection at The Metropolitan Museum of Art include illustrations for manuscripts and early instances of small paintings on parchment conceived as independent works of art Metropolitan Museum of Art website The Art of Illumination Timothy Husband, J. Paul Getty Museum, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2008 A Century of Dutch Manuscript Illumination L.M.J. Delaiss, 2023-12-22 In A Century of Dutch Manuscript Illumination L M J Delaiss takes readers on a detailed journey through the unique characteristics and historical significance of Dutch illumination during the late Middle Ages Unlike the luxury manuscripts produced for the royal courts of France and the dukes of Burgundy Dutch manuscripts developed their own artistic identity marked by an understated aesthetic and deeply spiritual undertones Delaiss emphasizes that while foreign influences from Cologne and France shaped this artistic tradition Dutch illumination maintained an originality that reflected the cultural and spiritual movements of the region particularly in the fifteenth century Despite not being as lavish as their European counterparts these manuscripts are rich in creativity and spiritual significance offering a distinct contrast to the grander more opulent styles of southern neighbors The book goes beyond a surface level appreciation of Dutch miniatures advocating for a more comprehensive study of these works within the broader context of bookmaking Delaiss argues that a new scholarly approach is needed to explore the interrelations between the format handwriting and decorative elements of these manuscripts which are intricately linked to their illuminations With gratitude to the many collectors institutions and scholars who contributed to this volume Delaiss offers an insightful exploration of Dutch manuscript illumination urging the academic community to recognize and appreciate its quiet but profound contributions to the art of medieval Europe This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1968 Electric Lighting by Incandescence, and Its Application to Interior Illumination William Edward Sawyer, 1881 Painting and Illumination in Early Renaissance Florence, 1300-1450 Laurence B. Kanter, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1994 By way of introduction to the objects themselves are three essays The first by Laurence B Kanter presents an overview of Florentine illumination between 1300 and 1450 and thumbnail sketches of the artists featured in this volume The second essay by Barbara Drake Boehm focuses on the types of books illuminators helped to create As most of them were liturgical her contribution limns for the modern reader the medieval religious ceremonies in which the manuscripts were utilized Carl Brandon Strehlke here publishes important new material about Fra Angelico's early years and patrons the result of the author's recent archival research in Florence
