out to be published abroad tamizdat as well as the range of literature that can be classified as samizdat drawing attention to movements frequently overlooked by literary critics In his final previously unpublished essay Machovec examines Jirous s Report on the Third Czech Musical Revival not as a merely historical document but as literature itself Transformative Fictions Daniel Just,2022-07-27 Transformative Fictions World Literature and Personal Change engages with current debates in world literature over the past twenty years addressing the nature of literary influence in centers and peripheries the formation of transnational literary and pedagogical canons and the role of translation and regionalism in how we relate to texts from around the globe The author Daniel Just argues for a supranational but sub global perspective of regions that emphasizes practical reasons for reading and focuses on the potential of literary texts to stimulate personal transformation in readers One of the recurring dilemmas in these debates is the issue of delimitation of world literature The trouble with the world as a frame of reference is that no single researcher is bound to have the in depth knowledge and linguistic skills to discuss works from all countries In response this book revives literary theory and recasts it for the purposes of world literature by making a case for the continuing relevance of literature in the age of new media With the examples of fictional and nonfictional writings by Milan Kundera Witold Gombrowicz and Bohumil Hrabal Just shows that regional literatures offer differing methods of activating readers and thereby prompting personal change This book would be of general interest to anyone who wants to explore personal change through literature but is particularly indispensable for literary professionals researchers and postgraduate and graduate students Fiction Acquisition/fiction Management Georgine N.

reproduction and erosion of the old regime Subversive Adaptations Petr Bubeníček, 2017-11-07 This book deals with film adaptations of literary works created in Communist Czechoslovakia between 1954 and 1969 such as The Fabulous World of Jules Verne Zeman 1958 Marketa Lazarová 1967 and The Joke Jirí 1969 Bubeníček treats a historically significant period around which myths and misinformation have arisen The book is broad in scope and examines aesthetic political social and cultural issues It sets out to disprove the notion that the state controlled film industry behind the Iron Curtain produced only aesthetically uniform works pandering to official ideology Bubeníček's main aim is to show how the political situation of Communist Czechoslovakia moulded the film adaptations created there but also how these same works in turn shaped the sociocultural conditions of the 1950s and the 1960s Europe Since 1945 Bernard A. Cook, 2014-01-27 Europe Since 1945 An Encyclopedia is a comprehensive reference work of some 1 700 entries in two volumes Its scope includes all of Europe and the successor states to the former Soviet Union The volumes provide a broad coverage of topics with an emphasis on politics governments organizations people and events crucial to an understanding of postwar Europe Also includes 100 maps and photos Kierkegaard's Influence on Literature, Criticism, and Art Jon Bartley Stewart, 2013 Vol 2 is dedicated to the use of Kierkegaard by later Danish writers Almost from the beginning Kierkegaard's works were standard reading for these authors Danish novelists and critics from the Modern Breakthrough movement in the 1870s were among the first to make extensive use of his writings These included the theoretical leader of the movement the critic Georg Brandes who wrote an entire book on Kierkegaard and the novelists Jens Peter Jacobsen and Henrik Pontoppidan Starlight and Stargazers Helena Goscilo, 2024-05-21 Celebrification has thrived for centuries in literature theater music and other cultural spheres as vividly illustrated by Byron Sarah Bernhardt and Paganini It especially effloresced in cinema after the symbolically named Lumière brothers pioneered movies as light projected moving life to be contemplated and shared in the intimate darkness of theaters Actors and actresses such as Valentino and Garbo acquired the status of divine beings whose life on and offscreen stimulated fascination and a passionate devotion most frequently invested in religious figures The recent explosion in social media has only amplified immeasurably the scale and intensity of that adulation Yearning for the seemingly transcendent fans as mere mortals seek contact with celebrities as objects of worship that like nocturnal stars are simultaneously remote yet accessible Starlight and Stargazers examines the multifaceted nature and specific manifestations of film celebrification in Czechoslovakia the Czech Republic Poland Soviet Russia Russia and Ukraine before and after 1991 Multilingual Europe, Multilingual Europeans , 2015-06-29 Multilingualism is a crucial if often unrecognized marker of new European identities In this collection of essays we observe how a plurilinguist and pluricultural political entity practices and theorizes multilingualism We ask which types of multilingualism are defined encouraged or discouraged at the level of official policies but also at the level of communities We look at speakers of hegemonic or minority languages at travellers and long term migrants or their children and analyse how their conversations are represented in official documents visual art cinema literature and popular culture The volume is divided into two parts that focus respectively on Multilingual Europe and Multilingual Europeans The first series of chapters explore the extent to which multilingualism is treated as both a challenge and an asset by the European Union examine which factors contribute to the proliferation of languages globalisation the enlargement of the European Union and EU language policies The second part of the volume concentrates on the ways in which cultural productions represent the linguistic practices of Europeans in a way that emphasizes the impossibility to separate language from culture nationality but also class ethnicity or gender The chapters suggest that each form of plurilingualism needs to be carefully analysed rather than celebrated or condemned Czech and Slovak Cinema Peter Hames, 2010-08-09 Examines the key themes and traditions of Czech and Slovak cinema linking inter war and post war cinemas together with developments in the post Communist period An Introduction to Twentieth-Century Czech Fiction Robert Porter, 2001-01-01 This is an appraisal of some of the best Czech fiction of the 20th century After a brief introduction there are chapters on Hasek Hrabal Skorecky Pavel Klima and a final chapter on Hodrova Viewegh and Topol
