Beyond Rhetorical Questions Irene Koshik, 2005-01-01 This book uses Conversation Analysis methodology to analyze rhetorical and other questions that are designed to convey assertions rather than seek new information It shows how these question sequences unfold interactionally in naturally occurring talk in a variety of settings e g friends arguing over the phone parents disciplining children news interviews and second language writing conferences The questions are used across these widely different contexts to perform a number of related social actions such as accusations challenges to prior turns and complaints Those used in institution settings such as teacher student conferences orient to institutional norms and roles and can help accomplish institutional goals e g eliciting student error correction Both the interactional context in which these questions are embedded and the known epistemic authority of the questioner play a role in our understanding of these questions i e what social actions the question is accomplishing in a particular interaction Speaking Beyond Earth Paul E. Quast, David Dunér, 2024-04-03 Since the dawn of the Space Age small cohorts of humanity have broadcast signals towards other stars fabricated space time capsules to speak for Earth aboard interstellar probes deposited collections of space oddities on other astronomical bodies and permanently incised the memory of our species across the deep time legacy of the Sol System Many of these purposeful messages are the consequence of age old behaviors traditions and material practices using modern aerospace technologies Most attempt to preserve narratives of human experience in social exchange devices for imagined exotic audiences Looking back upon this accumulative history of messaging from Earth how do we begin to interpret such an eclectic portrait of Earth for ourselves Surveying and cataloguing the variety of these artifacts through a series of interdisciplinary essays and visual documentation this volume chronicles our changing relationships customs and assumptions made within this material culture for our own eyes What do these autobiographical accounts tell us about Terrans and our minds set against the backdrop of our planetary history Interruptions Hans-Jost Frey,1996-07-03 This untraditional text is a series of parables allegories and prose poems that reflect on the problem of the fragment Studying the fragment lays the theoretical ground for the basic question of where a text begins and ends The Scene of Linguistic Action and its Perspectivization by SPEAK, TALK, SAY and TELL René Dirven,Louis Goossens,Yvan Putseys,Emma Vorlat,1982-01-01 The four papers presented in this volume are corpus based investigations into the meaning of the verbs speak talk say and tell More specifically they want to explore how the scene of linguistic action has been put into perspective by these four high frequency verbs Furthering Talk Thomas Strong,David Pare,2012-12-06 Recently a client coming in for her second appointment told me the story of how she had been volunteering her time for the past several years to free several innocent prisoners from Illinois prisons She told me how tenaciously and persistently she had to work against politicians who did not want these releases to take place I was so struck by her dedication and personal sacrifice of time money and energy At the end of her story I thanked her I said there were many times when I heard some story of injustice on the news and I thought to myself how I should get involved or at least write a letter But somehow other matters would take precedence my anger would dissipate and soon the issue would slip my mind Listening to her I felt grateful that there were people like her to take up the cause and put energy and voice to my concerns I looked at her and thanked her again Reading this manuscript I was reminded of this story Editing a book on postmodern thinking and ways of being with clients is certainly not the same as confronting politicians or taking on power structures in a justice system But nonetheless after reading this manuscript I found myself grateful to Tom Strong and David Pare for their taking the time and committing the energy to the collection This is a book that should have been written It is timely and moves ideas forward This is a very worthwhile endeavor and the product reflects their dedication to contemporary ideas Dictionary of the English Language ... Romantic Presences in the Twentieth Century Mark Sandy, 2016-04-08 Concerned with the intermingled thematic and formal preoccupations of Romantic thought and literary practice in works by twentieth century British Irish and American artists this collection examines the complicated legacy of Romanticism in twentieth century novels poetry and film Even as key twentieth century cultural movements have tried to subvert or debunk Romantic narratives of redemptive nature individualism perfectibility and the transcendence of art the forms and modes of feeling associated with the Romantic period continue to exert a signal influence on the modern moment both as a source of tension and as creative stimulus As the essays here show the exact meaning of the Romantic bequest may be bitterly contested but it has been difficult to leave behind The contributors take up a wide range of authors including Virginia Woolf F Scott Fitzgerald W H Auden Doris Lessing Seamus Heaney Hart Crane William Faulkner Don DeLillo and Jonathan Franzen What emerges from this lively volume is a fuller picture of the persistence and variety of the Romantic period s influence on the twentieth century
