mystic Julian of Norwich is invoked throughout as a role model whom these three writers seek to emulate as popular writers contemplatives and theologians As theologians who are concerned with the pressing issues of our age Grace Jantzen Dorothee Soelle and Sallie McFague are drawn on as conversation partners to complete the three way discussion The author maintains that understanding the writing and reading of creative texts in the context of practical mysticism facilitates an integrated approach to the use of literature for theological expression      Flannery O'Connor and Stylistic Asceticism

Ann W. Astell,2024-07-15 Through close examination of ancient medieval and modern Lives of the saints Ann W Astell demonstrates how the historical transformation of hagiography as a genre correlates with similar changes in biblical studies Christian hagiography flourished from the fourth to the fifteenth centuries illuminating the gospel through the overlapping forms of exempla and vita Originally the Lives of the saints were understood as hermeneutical extensions of the Bible God authors the saint just as God authors the divinely inspired scriptures During the medieval period a sense of dual authorship between God and the cooperating saint developed paralleling the Scholastic impulse to assign greater agency to the human writers of scripture Then in the sixteenth century powerful new anxieties about historical truth pushed hagiography aside for biography its successor Drawing on her expertise in the history of Christianity and biblical exegesis Astell convincingly shows how this radical shift in hagiography s status the loss of the literal allegorical tropological and anagogical senses of the Lives serves as a bellwether for modern biblical reception      The Spiritual Way Philip Sheldrake,2019-09-06 In The Spiritual just for monastics and contemplatives It s for each person every day of their lives every time they open their hearts to God
