Bonds Of Love Psychoanalysis Feminism And The Problem Of Domination:

The Bonds of Love Jessica Benjamin, 2013-05-01 Why do people submit to authority and derive pleasure even others have over them What is the appeal of domination and submission and why are they so prevalent in erotic life Why is it so difficult for men and women to meet as equals Why indeed do they continue to recapitulate the positions of master and slave In The Bonds of Love noted feminist theorist and psychoanalyst Jessica Benjamin explains why we accept and perpetuate relationships of domination and submission She reveals that domination is a complex psychological process which ensnares both parties in bonds of complicity and shows how it underlies our family life our social institutions and especially our sexual relations in spite of our conscious commitment to equality and freedom

The Bonds of Love Jessica Benjamin, 1990

The Bonds of Love Jessica Benjamin, 1988 The Women and Language Debate Camille Roman, Suzanne Juhasz, Cristanne Miller, 1994 The Psyche of Feminism Catherine M. Peebles, 2004 Peebles argues that a feminist ethics in order to be both feminist and ethical needs to embrace psychoanalyses Novels of George Sand Colette and Nathalie Sarraute are interpreted and analysed with a focus on the relevance of psychoanalyses The Golden Thread David Clare, Fiona McDonagh, Justine Nakase, 2021 This two volume edited collection covers three hundred years of Irish women's playwriting with forty two essays written by leading and emerging Irish theatre scholars and practitioners Volume Two looks at the period from 1992 to 2016 exploring women's experiences at the intersections of class sexuality disability and ethnicity

Retrieving Political Emotion Barbara Koziak, 2010-11-01 Autonomy, Gender, Politics Marilyn Friedman, 2003 Focuses on the topic of autonomy in the context of gender politics This work concentrates on the notion of personal autonomy as the self referential capacity to define the terms of one's own life Taking Responsibility, Law and the Changing Family Heather Keating, 2016-04-01 This volume considers the impact that changing family norms have had on the responsibilities that the law allocates to people in family relationships Contributions are drawn from a wide variety of jurisdictions in which scholars lawyers judges and policy makers have been trying to discern what the appropriate correlation should be between the responsibilities that people undertake in family settings and the law that regulates family responsibilities Part I looks at the changes that have occurred in adult relationships and what they have done for our sense of the family responsibilities that adults take for one another Part II reflects on the changing nature of the parental relationship in order to reconsider the way in which changing family structures affect the responsibilities we think people raising children should have The third part brings the rights discourse that has dominated jurisprudence for much of the last fifty years into the discussion of family transformation and the responsibilities to which it gives rise In the final section the authors reflect on the difficulties of trying to resolve the meaning of responsibility in a world of changing families The collection brings together some of the most eminent and imaginative scholars and judges working in this area It will be a valuable resource for all those interested in the legal regulation of the transforming family The Politics of Time Peter Osborne, 2011-01-10 If Aristotle sought to understand time through change might we not reverse the procedure and seek to understand change through time Once we do this argues Peter Osborne it soon becomes clear that ideas such as avant garde modern postmodern and tradition which are usually only treated as markers for empirically discrete periods movements or styles are best understood as categories of historical totalization More specifically Osborne claims such ideas involve distinct temporalizations of history giving rise to conflicting politics of time His book begins with a consideration of the main aspects of modernity and develops through a series of critical engagements with the major twentieth century positions in the philosophy of history He concludes with a fascinating history of the avant garde intervention into the temporality of everyday life in surrealism the situationists and the work of Henri Lefebvre

Motherhood and Representation E. Ann Kaplan, 2013-07-23 From novels of the nineteenth century to films of the 1990s American culture abounds with images of white middle class mothers In Motherhood and Representation E Ann Kaplan considers how the mother appears in three related spheres the historical in which she charts changing representations of the mother from 1830 to the postmodernist present the psychoanalytic which discusses theories of the mother from Freud to Lacan and the French Feminists and the mother as she is figured in cultural representations in literary and film texts such as East Lynne Marnie and The Handmaid's Tale as well as in journalism and popular manuals on motherhood Kaplan's analysis identifies two dominant paradigms of the mother as Angel and Witch and charts the contesting and often contradictory discourses of the mother in present day America

Articulations of Difference Dominique D. Fisher, Lawrence R. Schehr, 1997 Drawn from insights of the past twenty years the essays reflect the renewed approach of gender and sexuality as they relate to homosexuality and its representation and they rely on models that differentiate between sexuality and gender and between natural inclinations and social constructs Despite the wide variety of subjects critical positions and authors backgrounds what these essays have in common is the willingness of the contributors to go beyond a set of rhetorics a set of limitations that were a defining moment in the struggle of gay liberation and its reflection in both creative and critical writing

Making Love Modern Nina Miller, 1999 In the teens and twenties New York was home to a rich variety of literary subcultures Within these intermingled worlds gender lines and other boundaries were crossed in ways that were hardly imaginable in previous decades Among the bohemians of Greenwich Village the sophisticates of the Algonquin Round Table and the literati of the Harlem Renaissance certain women found fresh powerful voices through which to speak and write Enda St Vincent Millay and Dorothy Parker are now best remembered for their colorful lives Genevieve Taggard Gwendolyn Bennett and Helene Johnson are hardly remembered at all Yet each made a serious literary contribution to the meaning of modern femininity relationship and selfhood Making Love Modern uncovers the deep historical sensitivity and interest in these women's love poetry Placing their work in the context of subcultures nested within national culture Nina Miller explores the tensions that make this literature so rewarding for contemporary readers A poetry of intimate expression it also functioned powerfully as public assertion The writers themselves were high profile embodiments of femininity the local representatives of New Womanhood within their male centered subcultural worlds This book captures the literary lives of these women as well as the complex subcultures they inhabited Harlem the Village and glamorous midtown Manhattan

A Gift of the Spirit Eugene Victor Wolfenstein, 2019-06-30 In A Gift of the Spirit Eugene Victor Wolfenstein offers a reading of W E B Du Bois's The Souls of Black Folk aimed at demonstrating its organic unity and coherence He takes as his interpretive key the experience of the color line with which Du Bois s narrative begins the incident from his youth in which a white girl refused his offer of a visiting card Wolfenstein contends that this instance of misrecognition makes visible an aesthetic and affective configuration involving insult and injury both racial and personal anger as the immediate response to the humiliating wound and when that anger is suppressed a melancholy retreat from the site of injury As Wolfenstein reconstructs it Souls tells the story of Du Bois s twofold approach to waging the battle for recognition proud and disciplined resistance to the impositions and injustices of white supremacy and the development of an intellectual station above the field of battle where it could be surveyed from on high With its serious and respectful approach to this canonical work in African American social theory A Gift of the Spirit is a fitting tribute to the enduring relevance of Du Bois s singular achievement
