Many of the columns in this volume are about my ordeal with cancer surgery chemotherapy and radiation treatments I have been told over and over how much sharing my experience has meant to others not only cancer patients themselves but also loved ones and friends this insidious disease affects a wide circle On a lighter note I write about memories food my hang ups our trips and dumb things I have done Some of the columns are inspirational while others are humorous and some are informative I hope that you will enjoy reading them whatever the subject The Colsonburg Chronicles, Book 1 Thomas P. Wright,2012-03-09 The family drove all day It was quiet for Dan in the truck but torturous for Ginny in the van If she heard are we there yet or how much longer or is this Pennsylvania just one more time North and east they trekked to a place seen only once before It was completely dark when the headlights caught a simple Department of Transportation sign along a rural highway that read Borough of Colsonburg Were in Colsonburg kids Ginny cheered over her shoulder exhausted but relieved The children had ironically all fallen asleep Petes prayer was not eloquent or well crafted but it was from his heart and he meant every word of it even more than he was able to say in words It got kind of quiet and finally both looked up at each other They stayed quiet for a few more moments Happy birthday Peter Pastor Dan finally greeted him Huh Pete wondered out loud Today right now youve been born again Happy birthday Wow I guess so Pete let a slight grin escape along with a nod Pete sat on that rock and watched the water go by He thought how he somehow actually finally felt clean and fresh like that pure water Everything looked the same and he was otherwise just Pete Archer but he also knew he was different now and that his life would be changed Already it felt as if a gigantic weight had been lifted from him and indeed it had been He prayed a little more just letting his thoughts and feelings about it all go up to God But eventually he had to leave Walking back up the path everything was the same but at the same time everything was different but Ginny stayed seated her head dropped tears falling all the way to the floor Then a warm presence was sensed on the pew beside her and a gentle hand was felt running across the backs of her shoulders and resting on her left arm Joanies voice was heard whispering straight into Ginnys right ear Ill go with you if you want me to Ginny simply nodded and the two stood up in exact formation and made their way down the aisle to kneel at the rail Immediately they were joined by Meredith Holt and Holly Corbin Joanies hand never departed from Ginnys arm for even a fraction of a second Rev Lilly came down and knelt opposite the rail from the two ladies and inquired how he could pray for Ginny Speaking in only half sentences split by sobs and gasps Ginny poured out the horror story of the last months one tissue after another being plucked from the box always there at the ready Oh sister even Rev Lilly was touched you have come to the right place today Ginny cried all over again when she stood and witnessed the gathering of friends also standing up behind where she had been She also let a smile escape as she embraced Joanie a sister in so many ways except biologically Many other hugs were shared and the whole box of tissues was consumed

Only now did the congregation begin to depart Beth was napping when her cell phone woke her that afternoon The display said Mom Hey she started cheerfully through a yawn You got a few minutes babe her mom asked You bet Beth promised Ginny related the whole account Beth listened in stunned silence tears coming down her cheeks Satisfied her mother was done she half sobbed half laughed thats wonderful Mom Just before leaving for the evening worship service Beths phone rang again This time the display said Sis Patty and Beth talked and laughed and cried and thanked God together long enough that Beth missed the service Randy the senior member of the officerless crew said Lets go County Engine 5 1 responding with three Pete called on the radio and they joined the race to Colsonburg sirens wailing The radio was alive with reports from officers and orders to the many pieces of apparatus pouring into the borough The Colsonburg Fire Auxiliary members brought coffee and sandwiches to all the firefighters with bread meat and cheese donated by several store owners in the borough Pete stood next to her he looked down at her and watched her for a moment She was laughing with the rest her smile wide and glowing She looked up at him as she laughed and he smiled down at her It was good to see her again and to see her so full of joy despite everything she had been through In his mind he traveled back to that horrid March day in Lewistown when she was so broken and lost the contrast what God had done was so evident The experience of seeing her that way also reminded him of just how far he had come since that life altering August afternoon almost four and a half years ago He had never been the same since He simply looked at her and smiled as he said Happy New Year Happy New Year to you Pete she reciprocated smiling up at him Good night he affirmed back over his shoulder See you tomorrow evening he added See you then she agreed before shutting the door behind her After sitting on that step for a moment more Pete stood up and walked to his truck Once again he thanked God for everything He was doing in all their lives The Literary Gazette and Journal of
