Book Of Medieval And Renaissance Alphabets

Jonathan James Graham Alexander

Book Of Medieval And Renaissance Alphabets:

Book of Medieval & Renaissance Alphabets ,1991 Seventy five of the most beautifully inventive alphabets from the Medieval and Renaissance periods have been culled from some of the greatest collections in the world including the British Library and the Biblioth que Nationale in Paris And best of all every one of these priceless alphabets can be scanned into a computer and is completely free from any copyright or licensing restrictions Created in the 8th to the 17th century these upper and lower case alphabets reflect the ancient art of calligraphy and include such inspired hand craftsmanship as Albrecht Dürer's engraved 1553 Prayer Book letters And as an additional feature there's a varied selection of period numerals monograms and initials It's an invaluable reference for typographers graphic designers and those who dabble in graphic elements as well as an incredible source of inspiration from some of history's greatest illumination artists Back cover

Medieval Illuminators and Their Methods of Work Jonathan James Graham Alexander,1992-01-01 Who were the medieval illuminators How were their hand produced books illustrated and decorated In this beautiful book Jonathan Alexander presents a survey of manuscript illumination throughout Europe from the fourth to the sixteenth century He discusses the social and historical context of the illuminators' lives considers their methods of work and presents a series of case studies to show the range and nature of the visual sources and the ways in which they were adapted copied or created anew Alexander explains that in the early period Christian monasteries and churches were the main centers for the copying of manuscripts and so the majority of illuminators were monks working in and for their own monasteries From the eleventh century lay scribes and illuminators became increasingly numerous and by the thirteenth century professional illuminators dominated the field During this later period illuminators were able to travel in search of work and to acquire new ideas they joined guilds with scribes or with artists in the cities and their ranks included nuns and secular women Work was regularly collaborative and the craft was learned through an apprenticeship system Alexander carefully analyzes surviving manuscripts and medieval treatises in order to explain the complex and time consuming technical processes of illumination its materials methods tools choice of illustration and execution From rare surviving contracts he deduces the preoccupation of patrons with materials and schedules Illustrating his discussion with examples chosen from religious and secular manuscripts made all over Europe Alexander recreates the astonishing variety and creativity of medieval illumination His book will be a standard reference for years to come
