Bombers Moon:

Bomber's Moon Negley Farson, 1941      Under a Bomber's Moon Stephen Harris, 2011-01-11 They were the best of enemies dedicated skilled and deadly In the night skies above wartime Germany an RAF navigator air bomber from New Zealand and a Luftwaffe pilot seek out their targets testing the gap between success and their own destruction as they cross each other's paths The odds are heavily against either of them making it through the war but as this sobering realisation displaces their initial exuberant sense of adventure both come to see in their youthful sacrifice the survival of all they hold dear UNDER A BOMBER'S MOON reaches across the divide of years of geography of nationality to tell their story largely in their own words describing both the breathtaking clashes in the air and the camaraderie humour patriotism and personal tragedies that became their war Stephen Harris began his journey of discovery because he wanted to know the truth of his great uncle Colwyn Jones's fate With Col's vividly written letters and diary as a starting point he set out to discover what really happened on the night Col's extraordinary luck ran out Little did he know that his quest would lead him to a meeting with a former Luftwaffe pilot who was pitted against his great uncle in the skies over Germany Otto Heinrich Fries proved to be both engaging and articulate eventually allowing Harris to tell his story in this book The result is a unique and personal account of two highly successful airmen from opposing sides      Vox Lycei 1943-1944 Lisgar Collegiate Institute,      The COMPLETE Koski & Falk A. RAAF Moore was sent deep into the action capturing history as it unfolded. He documented the brutal Japanese counterattack at Los Negros Island, the perilous missions of airmen dodging flak over Eastern Europe, and the harrowing reality inside one of Nazi Germany's most infamous concentration camps. With his camera, sketchbook, and oil paints, he recorded not just battles but the human cost of war: the exhaustion, the fear, the destruction, and the small moments of resilience that defined a generation. Yet despite his remarkable body of work, Alan Moore remains one of Australia's forgotten artists. His paintings, raw and unfiltered, serve as powerful reminders of the horrors of war, ensuring that the sacrifices of those who served are never lost to history. Through meticulous research and rare archival materials, Drawing Hell unearths the story of a man whose work still hangs in some of the world's most prestigious museums and galleries. Moore's life spanned a century of conflict, change, and artistic evolution, yet his story has remained largely untold until now. In this gripping account, historian John Morthen brings Moore's legacy back into the spotlight, revealing how his art shaped the way we remember war. For those who believe history should never be forgotten, Drawing Hell is an essential read.

In Hostile Skies James M. Davis, 2006
 James Jim Davis piloted a B 24 as part of the 8th Air Force on nearly thirty missions in the European Theatre during World War II. He flew support missions for Operations Cobra and Market Garden and numerous bombing missions over occupied Europe in the summer and fall of 1944, attacking enemy airfields, airplane factories, railroad marshalling yards, ship yards, oil refineries, and chemical plants. While he and his crew survived without serious injuries, they witnessed the destruction of many of their friends' planes and experienced serious damage to their own plane on several occasions.

Bomber's Moon Bill Spence, 1988
Splinters Tony Sheppard, 2006
 An adult fantasy thriller whose concept tells of how memories of the dead affect the lives of the living. It's about the faith of one man, Michael Jobson, and follows the life of Esther, the most beautiful girl in the world, inside and out as she grows up in a world of conflicting values.

Sentinels: Scary Ghost & Paranormal Horror Story David Longhorn, Scare Street, 2016-06-17
 A crown. A church. A ship buried underwater for centuries. And the power that awaits. England in 1940 is marked by blackouts, air raids, and the threat of enemy bombs. Yet in pastoral Duncaster, against the backdrop of awe-inspiring cliffs and a roiling sea, reporter Rachel Rubin fights an adversary more deadly than the Germans: a foe that only she can see. It seems, according to legend, King Redwald's treasure is in Duncaster and is protected by a foul curse. Believing in old folk tales is utter nonsense to the true-blue American Rachel until she starts having disturbing dreams and seeing ghosts. As the danger escalates, more chilling events occur. Rachel races against time to discover the truth. She doesn't know who to trust, but one thing is certain: the bodies are piling up, and Doomsday looms on Duncaster's watery horizon. Step into the eerie world of Scare Street, where supernatural horror and suspense await you at every turn. Our collection of ghost stories, urban legends, and haunted house stories offer the perfect mix of scary and spooky tales. Whether it's a creepy campfire classic, short horror stories, or unsettling creepypasta, our tales are crafted to bring thrills and chills that will keep you hooked.

The Library Girls of the East End Patricia McBride, 2023-11-27 The first instalment in a BRAND NEW series from bestselling author Patricia McBride With war looming it's a dark chapter for the Library Girls 1940 London When Cordelia accepts the post of head librarian in Silver Town Library her mother is more than a little disapproving The East End has high levels of poverty and illiteracy and her mother says it's no place for a woman of her status But Cordelia is determined to make a difference in these times of strife and along with her colleagues Jane and Mavis she begins to help the local community And maybe even a romance will blossom giving Cordelia the strength to make it through the chaos and destruction that constantly threatens their livelihood Against a background of war air raids and rationing it becomes clear the library is more than a building filled with books it is the beating heart of a community refusing to be torn apart a compelling story of friendships and the hardships of war with excellent sketches of the East End I thoroughly enjoyed it and highly recommend Rosie Clarke If you like Dee Williams books about Silvertown and Rotherhithe you'll love Patricia's Library Girls series Lizzie Lane I was hooked from page one Rich in historical detail and with characters you feel you know Highly recommended Lynette Rees A brilliant read the sort of book you can immerse yourself in completely You couldn't read the story without it reaching your heart or without wanting to know what will become of these women Fran Smith Drago's Vendetta Jim Meehan, 2020-02-07 Drago's Vendetta By Jim Meehan Drago's Vendetta is the story of a man seeking vengeance for the loss of his family in an early World War II bombing A former fighter pilot he sees the recovery of a lost fighter plane as the means to take the war to the bombers who have killed his wife and son The story takes place around a small island near Sicily and intimately chronicles the man's hatred of the war and the belligerents who have taken his loved ones and made his peaceful home a battleground Repairing the fighter with the help of trusted local fishermen he begins flying against both German and British bombers from a hidden strip of beach keeping his secret from his remaining teenage daughter and the other islanders A thriving black market supplies him with fuel and ammunition The British on Malta and the Germans in Sicily soon notice the loss of aircraft to an unmarked fighter and plans are put in motion to find and eliminate it His missions become more difficult as the Mediterranean air war intensifies The grieving widower attracts the sympathy and interest of the local school teacher and also a recent widow who find themselves in competition for his attention Characters in the story also include British German and Italian air crews a Sicilian bar girl involved with a German flyer and the embattled islanders themselves

RAF Bomber Command: 'Strike Hard, Strike Sure' 1936-1945 Ron Mackay, 2022-03-31 Historically rich in detail with previously unpublished photographs from private archives Researched and written by an aviation and military historian renowned author Essential for military historians modellers flight sim enthusiasts War Thunder IL 2 Sturmovik Great Battles and DCS and those interested in the complexities of aircraft design and production during the Second World War They sowed the wind and now they are going to reap the whirlwind Arthur Bomber Harris The concept of an aerial campaign on a nation's industrial and military might was advocated by Britain before the start of the First World War however a stringent post war economy ensured that the creation of Bomber Command in 1936 witnessed a daunting disparity between the aim of striking at an adversary's ability to sustain itself and the means to do so From 1939 to 1942 Bomber Command was very weak in terms of human and material losses The navigational means with which to accurately guide bombers to targets was almost completely lacking while the enemy defensive network inflicted serious casualties Consequently the punishment handed out was minimal The resurgence of Bomber Command's fortunes coincided with the appointment of Sir Arthur Harris The advent of four engine designs such as the Avro Lancaster and Handley Page Halifax ensured that a greatly increased bomb tonnage could be delivered Also electronic aids such as Gee Oboe and H2S simplified the task in finding targets Therefore by 1944 1945 the RAF's bombers pulverised Hitler's Third Reich Although flak and night fighters took a heavy toll on the bombers the RAF's nocturnal offensive in conjunction with the USAAF's daylight assaults crippled Germany's ability to fight back
