Bond Plays:

Bond Plays: 8 Edward Bond, 2006-01-01 Five new plays by one of Britain's top playwrights War Bond Plays and Other Dramatic Material for Use in Connection with War Finance Promotion United States. War Finance Division, 1943

Bond, a Study of His Plays Malcolm Hay, Philip Roberts, 1980 Bond Plays: 7 Edward Bond, 2013-12-10 The latest collection of plays by one of Europe's most important playwrights THE CRIME OF THE TWENTY FIRST CENTURY The past has been abolished and geography even the sky is changed A woman lives in a vast desert of white rubble A tiny group of people comes seeking a hiding place and is exposed to the deepest questions of human existence OLLY'S PRISON an ordinary city flat Evening A man tries to talk to his daughter She will not answer Slowly their world turns to tragedy and a search begins that lasts for years COFFEE A young man alone in a room A stranger enters Together they journey into a dark forest When the men return to the daylight world they are involved in a trivial incident It is hardly more than a gesture yet it is something that once happened and in its triviality captures the history of our century and confronts us with the deepest questions about ourselves A great playwright many particularly in continental Europe would say the greatest living English playwright Independent A play by one of Britain's greatest playwrights is an event Bond Plays: 9 Edward Bond, 2011-01-01 Edward Bond Plays 9 brings together recent work by the writer of the classic stage plays Saved Lear The Pope's Wedding and Early Morning The volume comprises four new plays and a comprehensive introduction by the author exploring theories of writing and theatre Innocence demonstrates Edward Bond's preoccupation with the violence and ugliness that humans can show to one another after being let Bond Plays: 2 Edward Bond, 2014-01-01 The internationally acclaimed dramatist Edward Bond endures as one of the towering figures of contemporary British theatre His plays are read at schools and university level Edward Bond is the most radical playwright to have emerged from the sixties Lear Bond's greatest and biggest play It is even more topical now and will become more so as man's inhumanity gains subtle sophistication with the twenty first century's approach The Times The Sea It blends wild farce with tragedy and ends with a sliver of hope what makes the play fascinating is Bond's bleak poetry and social comedy Guardian Narrow Road to the Deep North His best piece so far No one else could have written it The Times Black Mass written for performance at an anti apartheid demonstration A Georg Grosz picture come to life the only possible kind of artistic imagery through which to speak of such evil Listener Passion a play for CND Mingles comedy and high anger with absolute sureness Guardian Edward Bond is one of our outstanding playwrights He is already an acknowledged classic Plays and Players Adapting King Lear for the Stage Lynne Bradley, 2016-03-16 Questioning whether the impulse to adapt Shakespeare has changed over time Lynne Bradley argues for restoring a sense of historicity to the study of adaptation Bradley compares Nahum Tate's History of King Lear 1681 adaptations by David Garrick in the mid eighteenth century and nineteenth century Shakespeare burlesques to twentieth century theatrical rewritings of King Lear and suggests latter day adaptations should be viewed as a unique genre that allows playwrights to express modern subject positions with regard to their literary heritage while also participating in broader debates about art and society In identifying and relocating different adaptive gestures within this historical framework Bradley explores the link between the critical and the creative in the history of Shakespearean adaptation Focusing on works such as Gordon Bottomley's King Lear's Wife 1913 Edward Bond's Lear 1971 Howard Barker's Seven Lears 1989 and the Women's Theatre Group's Lear's Daughters 1987 Bradley theorizes that modern rewritings of Shakespeare constitute a new type of textual interaction based on a simultaneous double gesture of collaboration and rejection She suggests that this new interaction provides constituent groups such as the feminist collective who wrote Lear's Daughters a strategy to acknowledge their debt to Shakespeare while writing against the traditional and negative representations of femininity they see reflected in his plays

The Minute Man, 1943

The Play Out of Context Hanna Scolnicov, Peter Holland, 1989-02-24 This is a volume of essays which examines the relationship between the play and its historical and cultural contexts Transferring plays from one period or one culture to another is so much more than translating the words from one language into another The contributors vary their approaches to this problem from the theoretical to the practical from the literary to the theatrical with plays examined both historically and synchronically The articles interact with each other presenting a diversity of views of the central theme and establishing a dialogue between scholars of different cultures With play texts quoted in English the range of themes stretches from a Japanese interpretation of Chekhov to Shakespeare in Nazi Germany and Racine borrowing from Sophocles Most of the essays are based on papers presented at the Jerusalem Theatre Conference in 1986 The book will be of interest to students and scholars of the theatre and of literature and literary theory as well as to theatregoers
