The Nabis and Intimate Modernism Katherine M. Kuenzli, 2017-07-05 Providing a fresh perspective on an important but underappreciated group of late nineteenth century French painters this is the first book to provide an in depth account of the Nabis practice of the decorative and its significance for twentieth century modernism Over the course of the ten years that define the Nabi movement 1890-1900 its principal artists included Edouard Vuillard Pierre Bonnard Maurice Denis Paul Sérusier and Paul Ranson The author reconstructs the Nabis relationship to Impressionism mass culture literary Symbolism Art Nouveau Wagnerianism and a revolutionary artistic tradition in order to show how their painterly practice emerges out of the pressing questions defining modernism around 1900 She shows that the Nabis were engaged nonetheless with issues that are always at stake in accounts of nineteenth century modernist painting issues such as the relationship of high and low art of individual sensibility and collective identity of the public and private spheres The Nabis and Intimate Modernism is a rigorous study of the intellectual and artistic endeavors that inform the Nabis decorative domestic paintings in the 1890s and argues for their centrality to painterly modernism The book ends up not only re-positioning the Nabis to occupy a crucial place in modernism's development from 1860 to 1914 but also challenges that narrative to place more emphasis on notions of decoration totality and interiority The Nabis, 1988 Bonnard Nicholas Watkins, 1994 In fact Bonnard began his career as a graphic artist producing posters and illustrations for such magazines as La Revue Blanche Associated with Maurice Denis Edouard Vuillard and other members of the Nabis group from 1890 his early work is characterized by a tendency towards broad flat colour and asymmetrical composition derived from Gauguin and from Japanese prints From 1900 his palette became richer and his subject matter settled into a range of obsessive themes principally landscapes nudes and interiors in which he explored ever more complex formal problems and developed an unparalleled mastery of colour and light His mature work achieves a level of dazzling intensity which has ensured his enduring reputation as one of the twentieth century's great colourists

Pierre Bonnard: The Colour of Memory Matthew Gale, 2019-03-26 Pierre Bonnard 1867 1947 was one of a generation of artists that helped transform painting during the first half of the twentieth century As a painter he preferred to work from memory imaginatively capturing the spirit of a moment and expressing it through his unique handling of colour and unconventional choice of composition Focusing on Bonnard's work from 1912 47 this book presents a variety of landscapes and intimate domestic scenes which capture the passage of time These works are the artist's memories creatively reconstructed to convey a sense of sensuality or melancholy As well as looking at his processes his reliance on photography and his ability to work on different subjects side by side this book relocates Bonnard in the turbulent history of his times Although modest and withdrawn he was a subtle witness to events both in the wider world and his more intimate circle that can be seen to define the ways in which he thought about and made his very personal art

Channelling to the heart of Bonnard's position as an artist who maintained continuities with the past while developing an individual expression of his engagement with the world this sumptuously illustrated book reveals Bonnard's transition from great colourist to Modernist master and emphasises his place within the story of twentieth century art
