Her respect for these nineteenth-century women and their experiences as well as her engaging and intimate style enable Culpepper to transport readers into a tumultuous time of death, destruction and privation into a world turned upside down, an environment that seemed as strange to contemporaries as it does in our own time. Culpepper has uncovered forgotten images of America's bloodiest conflict contained in the diaries and correspondence of more than 500 women. Trials and Triumphs reveals the anxiety, hardship, turmoil and tragedy that women endured during the war years. It reveals the fierce loyalty and enmity that nearly severed the Union, the horror of enemy occupation and even the desperate austerity of an itinerant refugee life. Just as the Civil War influenced culture and government, it shaped the attitudes of a new breed of pioneering woman. As the war progressed, either by choice or by default, men turned over more and more responsibility to women on the home front. As a result, women began to break free from the cult of domesticity to expand career opportunities. By war's end, women on both sides of the conflict proved to themselves and to a nearly shattered nation that the appellation weaker sex was a misnomer. Originally published in 1992, this revised paperback edition includes a new index.

The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association. Committee on Resources of American Libraries. National Union Catalog Subcommittee, 1972     The Coptic Tapestry Albums and the Archaeologist of Antinoé, Albert Gayet Nancy Arthur Hoskins, 2004 Vibrant tapestries of beribboned birds, cantering centaurs and Dionysian dancers woven in Coptic Egypt more than a thousand years ago were artfully arranged in a handsome pair of albums in 1913. Some of the fabrics are shown in unique collage compositions. Sandals, spindles and a mysterious lock of hair are assembled in a shallow box at the back of one album. Many textiles in this important collection housed at the Henry Art Gallery at the University of Washington were once joined by warp and weft with those from the Musée du Louvre and other major museums. Nancy Hoskins deftly interweaves the creation of the textiles in the Greco-Roman city of Antinoé, Egypt with their discovery by the charismatic French archaeologist Albert Gayet in 1856-1916. Gayet staged stunning exhibitions of the pieces in Paris at the turn of the century and ultimately gave them to museums or sold them. One collector, Henry Bryon, had his 144 fabrics bound into the two albums featured here. The album pages and covers are illustrated in glowing color along with archival photographs from Gayet's expeditions. The style, structure and iconography of each tapestry, tabby and tablet woven textile are discussed within the cultural construct of Late Antique and Early Christian Egypt. Detailed technical drawings illustrate the special weaving techniques of the Copts. Directions for six weaving projects inspired by the album fragments are included.
