Coan, 2004-08-10 Con Thien is a memoir history of a much beleaguered Marine outpost of the DMZ Throughout much of 1967 a remote United States Marine firebase only two miles from the demilitarized zone DMZ captured the attention of the world s media That artillery scarred outpost was the linchpin of the so called McNamara Line intended to deter incursions into South Vietnam by the North Vietnamese Army As such the fighting along this territory was particularly intense and bloody and the body count rose daily Con Thien combines James P Coan s personal experiences with information taken from archives interviews with battle participants and official documents to construct a powerful story of the daily life and combat on the red clay bulls eye known as The Hill of Angels As a tank platoon leader in Alpha Company 3d Tank Battalion 3d Marine Division Coan was stationed at Con Thien for eight months during his 1967 68 service in Vietnam and witnessed much of the carnage Con Thien was heavily bombarded by enemy artillery with impunity because it was located in politically sensitive territory and the U S government would not permit direct armed response from Marine tanks Coan like many other soldiers began to feel as though the government was as much the enemy as the NVA yet he continued to fight for his country with all that he had In his riveting memoir Coan depicts the hardships of life in the DMZ and the ineffectiveness of much of the U S military effort in Vietnam

Coan,2018-11-13 A Marine s highly personal memoir reliving the hellish days of a pivotal conflict of the Vietnam War Con Thien located only two miles from the demilitarized zone dividing North and South Vietnam was a United States Marine Corps firebase that was the scene of fierce combat for months on end during 1967 Staving off attacks and ambushes while suffering from ineffectual leadership from Washington as well as media onslaughts courageous American Marines protected this crucial piece of land at all costs They would hold Con Thien but many paid the ultimate price By the end of the war more than 1 400 Marines had died and more than 9 000 sustained injuries defending the Hill of Angels For eight months James P Coan s five tank platoon was assigned to Con Thien while attached to various Marine infantry battalions A novice second lieutenant at the time the author kept a diary recording the thoughts fears and frustrations that accompanied his life on The Hill Time in the Barrel A Marine s Account of the Battle for Con Thien offers an authentic firsthand account of the daily nightmare that was Con Thien An enticing and fascinating read featuring authentic depictions of combat it allows readers to fully grasp the enormity of the fierce struggle for Con Thien The defenders of Con Thien were bombarded with hundreds of rounds of incoming rockets mortars and artillery that pounded the beleaguered outpost daily Monsoon downpours turned the red laterite clay soil into a morass of oozing mud flooded bunkers and trenches and made Con Thien a living hell Being at Con Thien came to be ruefully referred to by the Marines stationed there as time in the barrel because they were targets as easy as fish in a barrel More than a retelling of military movements Coan s engrossing narratives focus on the sheer sacrifice and misery of one Marine s experience in Vietnam Through his eyes we experience the abysmal conditions the Marines endured from monsoon rainstorms to the constant threat of impending attack Climatic moments in history are captured through the rare personal perspective of one particularly astute and observant participant MIGHTY HANDS Paul T. Entrekin, 2011-11-04 Following the completion of an aerobatic maneuver during an airshow in my MiG 15 I was doing a repositioning turn known in aviator parlance as a tuck under break At approximately 50 feet above the ground and moving at close to 300 miles per hour upside down and halfway through a roll with particularly poor timing the improperly re installed instrument panel somehow decided that now would be an appropriate time to release itself onto my feet and lap Despite all the skill I could muster momentum inertia and gravity were winning the fight as I once again found myself bracing for what I hoped would be a painless demise And again I was miraculously pulled from an imminent death by what can only be described as divine intervention God s Mighty Hands This is the story of a life punctuated by victory over adversity through the grace of God From Leatherneck to Roman Collar Colleen Gahan McFall, 2022-01-24 A career in the U S Marine Corps and ordination to the Catholic priesthood are commitments to service but it is rare one would not only have both these callings and be a widower and father as well Timothy M Gahan is such a man Raised in a large Irish Catholic military family he served in the Vietnam War as a helicopter machine gunner and was later commissioned in the Corps Leatherneck to Roman Collar describes the unusual life and times of a 27 year USMC veteran and family man who became a parish priest as told by one of his sisters It is a compelling story of meeting challenges devotion overcoming obstacles sacrifice happiness and love of country family and God Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide ,2000 Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing, 2002 The Cumulative Book Index ,1997 A world list of books in the English language Books in Print Supplement ,2002 American Book Publishing Record ,1996-09 Books Out Loud ,2007 Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Gunbird Driver David A Ballentine, 2008-10-01 Gunbird Driver is a memoir of the Vietnam War as seen through the eyes of a young pilot flying an armed UH 1E s in Marine Observation Squadron 6 The book provides information about the missions operations and the living conditions at Ky Ha and about the fellow Marines with whom he served It also contains several chapters on shipboard operation from deployment aboard the USS Princeton Parts of the book are deadly serious even sad as must be the case with any treatment of war other parts are largely descriptive and some circumstances and situations are even humorous The time was 1966 67 relatively early in the war the year before the Tet Offensive The squadron s activities ranged widely in I Corps the northern most military subdivision of South Vietnam the one assigned to the Marines Although the squadron and the air group to which it was attached MAG 36 was assigned to the southern third of I Corps it flew missions north along the DMZ at Khe Sanh west of Phu Bai and even into Laos in addition to those in their local Tactical Area of Responsibility Written to preserve a record of the impressions and experiences of one young 1st Lieutenant flying a Marine Huey in the war torn skies of Vietnam it is also reflective of all who crewed the UH 1E s pilots crew chiefs and door gunners It is a memoir that will resonate with all who crewed a helo in during the Vietnam war
