The Signs of James Bond Daniel Ferreras Savoye, 2013-02-27 This book is an analysis of the most significant elements that compose the Bond formula such as names binary oppositions and narrative patterns It tackles Ian Fleming's novels as well as the 22 films of the Eon Productions series and follows the evolution of certain determining features paradigms from the text to the screen to determine their function within the narration This study reveals how the James Bond universe goes well beyond mere spy adventures to become a genre in itself as well as now a standard cultural reference The book also shows that the underlying ideology of the James Bond narration is not as conservative as it might appear for it promotes ideals of the Enlightenment period such as secularity pragmatism and the common good

The critical emotional and intellectual change which every immigrant is obliged to endure and confront is experienced with singular intensity by immigrant writers who have also adopted another language for their literary expression Concentrating on European authors of the second half of the twentieth century who have chosen French as a language for their literary expression and in particular the novels by Romain Gary Agota Kristof Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprun with reference to many others European Literary Immigration into the French Language explores some of the common elements in these works of fiction which despite the varied personal circumstances and literary aesthetics of the authors follow a similar path in the building of a literary identity and legitimacy in the new language The choice of the French language is inextricably linked with the subsequent literary choices of these writers This study charts a new territory within Francophone and European literary studies in treating the European immigrants as a separate group and in applying linguistic sociological and psychoanalytical ideas in the analysis of the works of fiction and thus represents a relevant contribution to the understanding of European cultural identity This volume is relevant to French and European literature scholars and anyone with interest in immigration European identity or second language adoption Le coloc interdit (teaser) Louise Valmont, New York Un facing Metropolization Alain Bourdin,2024-05-27 This book characterizes a type of city i e the metropolis by using characteristics which have very little to do with its size It distinguishes between metropolises and megacities and defines these different characteristics by bringing together elements related to facilities accessibility and economic power on one hand and other elements which relate more to the capacity for innovation and more generally to the knowledge society and economy All of which demonstrate the process of metropolization as well as elements of daily life and more generally elements which relate to the urban experience To live in a metropolis is not only to benefit from more urban amenities but also to live in a different way in particular in a world which is much more diverse in every respect Based on a series of metropolization criteria constructed and discussed this book goes beyond ordinary statistical approaches to integrate the interterritorial scale of metropolitan systems as well as their qualitative dimension Following in Simmel s footsteps it shows that a city is also an atmosphere a mentality a spirit all of which are poorly captured by statistical data As such the book focuses on five major themes networks economic development social issues urban form and the ecological and digital transition The books makes an interesting read for urban planners sociologists planners and architects and all specialists
