Copeland, Esperanza Ramirez-Christensen, 2001-07-31 This provocative collection of essays is a comprehensive study of the father daughter dynamic in Japanese female literary experience Its contributors examine the ways in which women have been placed politically ideologically and symbolically as daughters in a culture that venerates the father They weigh the impact that this daughterly position has had on both the performance and production of women s writing from the classical period to the present Conjoining the classical and the modern with a unified theme reveals an important continuum in female authorship a historical approach often ignored by scholars The essays devoted to the literature of the classical period discuss canonical texts in a new light offering important feminist readings that challenge existing scholarship while those dedicated to modern writers introduce readers to little known texts with translations and readings that are engaging and original Contributors Tomoko Aoyama Sonja Arntzen Janice Brown Rebecca L Copeland Midori McKeon Eileen Mikals Adachi Joshua S Mostow Sharalyn Orbaugh Esperanza Ramirez Christensen Edith Sarra Atsuko Sasaki Ann Sherif A Historical Study of Early Modern Chinese Fictions (1890—1920) Pingyuan Chen, 2021-01-28 This book contains a classic guide to historical study of early modern Chinese fiction from the late Qing Dynasty till early republican China It does not merely study the new fiction writing in China which was strongly influenced by the western fiction but also draws a comparison between classical Chinese fiction and the early modern Chinese fiction This book is an excellent reference in the study of early modern Chinese literature since it conveys a point of view to the readers with abundant and solid historical materials At the heart of the book it is the matter of a specific value in trans cultural studies between the western world and China Love and Marriage in the Age of Jane Austen Rory Muir, 2024-02-13 What happened when Jane Austen s heroines and heroes were finally wed Marriage is at the centre of Jane Austen s novels The pursuit of husbands and wives advantageous matches and of course love itself motivate her characters and continue to fascinate readers today But what were love and marriage like in reality for ladies and gentlemen in Regency England Rory Muir uncovers the excitements and disappointments of courtship and the pains and pleasures of marriage drawing on fascinating first hand accounts as well as novels of the period From the glamour of the ballroom to the pressures of careers children managing money and difficult in laws love and marriage came in many guises some wed happily some dared to elope and other relationships ended with acrimony adultery domestic abuse or divorce Muir illuminates the position of both men and women in marriage as well as those spinsters and bachelors who chose not to marry at all This is a richly textured account of how love and marriage felt for people at the time revealing their unspoken assumptions fears pleasures and delights Love and the Genders Erik von Kuehnelt-Leddihn, 2019-12-13 Love and the Genders deals with the four forms of love Eros the love between the sexes the affections between family members friendship with the accent between the sexes and charity This scholarly book 60% elaborate footnotes is based on the author's German book Das Rätsel Liebe The Engima of Love Vienna Herold 1975 All forms of love tend toward union The rapist does not love and masturbation needs no partner The book has profound cultural and even political implications What are the qualities and qualifications of the sexes their identities and specific roles Men are not superior to women and vice versa but they are radically different and the biological research in recent years has made a number of discoveries We only know since 1958 for certain that every cell in the male body carries an additional element the Y but brain research has proven that the sexual differences are not only hormonal known for a long time but are also in the brain Thus men and women are in no way interchangeable They are not made to compete Their differences are rather statistical than personal and there are situations in which they can or must substitute for each other Thus queens might have to rule and men might have occasionally to tend babies although they cannot nurse them A high culture is ordered such that the sexes genders might get their fulfillment and naturally they must feel affection for each other The point of view of this book is Christian which includes a Hebrew background It is not specifically Catholic and does not deal directly with sexual ethics Contraception is a sexual problem abortion is obviously plain murder Homosexuality is mentioned a bit more broadly Misandry and misogyny are referenced in the North American and European situation Friendship not sex or Eros is the most important element in marriage If one marries can the partner be a friend for a lifetime Fidelity belongs psychologically to friendship not to Eros or sex What about the political aspect of the love the interest the enthusiasm for otherness Leftists are identitarians This book with its scope and documentation is quite unique It deals basically with the crisis of our time and age
